Our Sister Parish

St. Gabriel - Port Orchard, WA

Dear Parishioners:

---In the Book of Samuel 3: 3-10, it's the call of Samuel and of Andrew and his brother, Simon Peter. First, let us consider the story of Samuel's call -- a dramatic story exemplifying the dynamics of God's call. Eli was old and nearly blind; his time was nearing an end, so God called Samuel to begin a new era. Samuel needed help in discerning his call, and Eli's wisdom and friendship with the young man were necessary so that Samuel could really hear the Lord's voice. Once Samuel recognized that it was truly the Lord who was calling him, he became the great prophet who would discern God's will regarding religious, social and political matters for the people.

When we come before the Lord to listen to his Word, our deepest prayer of the heart should be: "Speak Lord, your servant is listening."; yet, often turns out to be: "Listen Lord, your servant is speaking!"

In the Gospel story John 1: 35-42, it is Jesus who takes the initiative to ask the disciples: "What are you looking for?" (verse 38). The disciples, in turn, ask him, "Teacher, where do you stay?" The disciples are not only concerned about where Jesus might sleep that night, but they are really asking where he has his life. Jesus responds to them: "Come and see" (verse 39). To "come" to Jesus is used to describe faith in him. Also, for John, to "see" Jesus with real perception is to believe in him.

The disciples began their discipleship when they went to see where he was staying and "they stayed on with him that day" (verse 39). They responded to his invitation to believe, discovered what his life was like, and they "stayed on"; they began to live in him, and he in them.

What can we learn from the call stories in today's readings? We are never called for our own sake, but for the sake of others.

---This coming Friday, January 29th, a "March for Life" will be held in Washington D.C. and was the forty-eighth anniversary of the U. S. Supreme Court Decision Roe v. Wade. (Although, it's will be little different because of Coronavirus). The Bishops of our nation have asked all Catholics to fast and do extra penance as small reparation for the millions of abortions committed in our country, and for the legal approval of these actions.

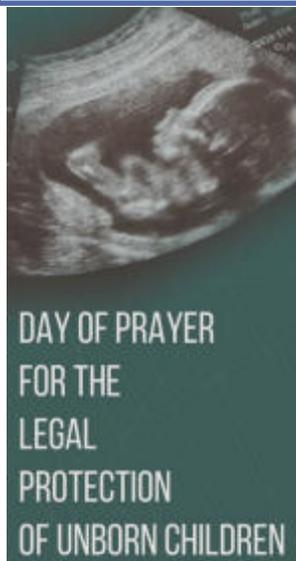

While, we Christians can and ought to build a pro-life culture through many avenues, and not only through changes in law, it remains the case that as Christians and as Americans, "in God we trust". God expects us to make needed changes in our world, but we can only do so through God's truth and grace.

A word of "Thanks" to those who work on behalf of our two parish communities in Justice, Peace and Life at St. Gabriel and Prince of Peace who has shared information and encouraged us in this effort locally and in our own Archdiocese of Seattle.

---A word of thanks to many people have contributed to this special collection last weekend for the special collection to C.C.S. (Catholic Community Services) in the local office here in Kitsap County. Also, many thanks to everyone who had contributed, financially, to the effort of C.C.S. work.

---Our Beloved Seahawks are not moving on in this year playoff ... how SAD!!! Perhaps, at some point, we can truly say that the Seahawks did have a very good season.

Christ's Peace,
Fr. Phuong Hoang

"A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer."
Evangelium vitae, 100

January 22, 2021
Day of Prayer For the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

"There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image."

Stewardship / Mayordomía

Weekly Bible Reflections

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - John 1: 38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

Reflexiones Del Boletín De Administracion

"Jesús se dio la vuelta y al ver que lo seguían les preguntó, "¿Qué están buscando?" - Juan 1, 38

¿Que está usted buscando? ¿Está perdiendo su tiempo buscando las comodidades materiales del mundo? O, ¿su corazón anhela algo más profundo que puede únicamente encontrarse si pasamos tiempo con Dios? Tome tiempo, cada día, en silencio y pregúntele al Señor que es lo que Él quiere que usted haga.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

We have often heard it said that God is always calling but we are not always listening. It is not only that we are not listening, but that we are not familiar enough with God to even recognize that it is God who is calling! We can easily mistake God's voice for someone or something else and miss some profound opportunities for connection. We have to train our minds, hearts, and souls to specifically listen for the voice of God. It is a voice that draws us to deeper places, leading us to moments of grace and more profound God awareness. To look at Jesus and be able to say, "Behold, the Lamb of God," means that I know something special about this person whom others know as simply a man. I will become more attentive and receptive when he says, "Come, and you will see." I may even be more willing to set aside what I am doing and actually go.

Vivir la liturgia - Inspiración para la semana

A menudo hemos escuchado decir que Dios siempre está llamando, pero no siempre estamos escuchando. No es solo que no estamos escuchando, sino que no estamos lo suficientemente familiarizados con Dios para reconocer que es Dios quien está llamando. Podemos confundir fácilmente la voz de Dios con alguien o algo más y perder algunas oportunidades profundas de conexión. Tenemos que entrenar nuestras mentes, corazones y almas para escuchar específicamente la voz de Dios. Es una voz que nos lleva a lugares más profundos, llevándonos a momentos de gracia y una conciencia más profunda de Dios. Mirar a Jesús y poder decir: "He aquí el Cordero de Dios," significa que yo sé algo especial acerca de esta persona a quien otros conocen simplemente como un hombre. Me volveré más atento y receptivo cuando Él diga: "Ven y verás." Incluso puedo estar más dispuesto a dejar de lado lo que estoy haciendo e ir.

PREPARES Ministry has been approved by the Archdiocese to serve families in a parking lot fashion beginning Monday, February 1st. Our volunteers are anticipating serving YOU!

Saints of the Week: St. Fabian, Pope and Martyr

St. Fabian, pope and martyr, was only a layman when he was named pope by acclamation; it was said that a dove landed on his head to mark him as the future pope. He proved an able choice, founding the minor orders as part of the process for candidates to the priesthood and dividing Rome into seven districts, with secretaries assigned to record the stories of the martyrs in each district.

St. Marianne Cope, Virgin

St. Marianne Cope was a Franciscan sister who helped establish hospitals in central New York State to serve the sick of any race or creed. Following the call to love Jesus in "the least of these," St. Marianne later joined St. Damien of Molokai in sheltering and caring for leprosy patients, ensuring that the mission would continue after his death.

These positions are open until filled.

Rosary Makers Report

Even though our small but mighty group of Rosary Makers were unable to meet during this past year, we continued to make and send rosaries to those in need. This year a total of 5,304 rosaries were created. Because of the pandemic, many international locations would not accept packages this year. So many were sent to areas within the U.S. for bundling and forwarding to missions overseas, or distributed to prisons, hospitals or nursing homes in the U.S. We did send some directly to Rwanda, Zambia and Tanzania. Some of the bundled rosaries went to Kenya, Africa, Mexico, Canada, Ghana, Liberia, Nigeria and India. We received thank you notes from many of these missions and even received a video of a mission in Ghana distributing the rosaries. Despite the restrictions, there is more of a need for prayers than ever. Please continue to keep your rosary makers in your prayers that we can carry on this outreach ministry.
