23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" —that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

Le llevaron entonces a un hombre sordo y tartamudo, y le suplicaban que le impusiera las manos. El lo apartó a un lado de la gente, le metió los dedos en los oídos y le tocó la lengua con saliva. Después, mirando al cielo, suspiró y le dijo: "¡Effetá!" (que quiere decir "¡Abrete!"). - Mc 7, 32-34

Parish Office: (360) 275-8760

Dear Parishioners:

...Happy Labor Day Weekend 2021...

---This is a "unique day" to reflect and appreciate the "fruits of labor" from all different areas of the workforce contributing to our everyday life. What an amazing realization of how we are connected together as a society and as a global community. "With a blessing to have a job" and a day of rest on this Labor Day - September 6th, we give thanks to our God. Let's also be mindful of those who have lost their jobs and those who are struggling to find a job in this difficult time. May we reach out with our own blessing, in order to help others in need and pray that those who are seeking jobs may be able to find one soon.

Labor Day weekend is also a transitions time from a "Summer schedule" to a "full school schedule" and in addition to many of our parish programs to start up as well. Please, take notice in the weekly bulletin for detail information on these parish programs. Please take the time to talk and share ideas about Faith Formation with our Team - Michael Zosel and Annie Kudrna.

---Reflecting from Scripture Readings this week, the prophet Isaiah (35: 4-7) encountered a dispirited community of exiles. Isaiah responded by recalling the joyous memories of the Exodus from Egypt. A second Exodus is in store, symbolized by the healing granted to the blind, the lame, and the mute and new life to the dead. Delivered and saved by God, all peoples shall return to their own land by way of the desert, in a new exodus. Isaiah's prediction of this abundant, new life underlies Mark's understanding of Jesus' cure of "a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech" (Mark 7: 31-37).

The healing stories reflect Jesus' intimate, powerful relationship with God and his great compassion. He healed with words, touch and physical means. Physical deafness and spiritual deafness are alike; Jesus confronted one type in the man born deaf, the other type in the Pharisees and others who were unreceptive of his message.

We are blind and deaf when we show favoritism or discrimination because of the status and wealth of other people (James 2: 1-5). We are deaf when we do not hear the cry for help raised to us and we prefer to put indifference between our neighbor and ourselves. We are deaf when turn inward and close ourselves to the world because of selfishness, pride, resentment, anger, jealousy and our inability to forgive others.

---The RCIA Team is hard at work - prepare for the men and women who are exploring the Catholic Faith in this coming year. If you ever been asked to share or explain your faith and hesitate of how to start ...!!! Come and join with "other inquirers" to learn, share and refresh the gift of our Catholic faith. Please talk to the RCIA Team Members.

---Thank you, Holiday Bazaar Committee who began this last week alert us to the big event this coming November with sell of 50/50 tickets at Masses every week, until the tickets are sold out. Thank you for your wonderful handmade items, especially about our local sport teams to help us cheer them on achieving their Championship aspiration. Please, help support this effort for the SHARE AND CARE MINISTRY in our parish community.

---Last but not least, September 8th is the Birthday of our Blessed Mother, Mary. Do something wonderful to celebrate her special day.

Christ Peace,
Fr. Phuong Hoang

Stewardship / Mayordomía

Weekly Bible Reflections

“Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?” JAMES 2: 5

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society tells us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first and experience true joy and peace. When we put possessions first, we soon realize we can never have enough and happiness is fleeting. When we put faith over possessions we truly realize it is better to give than receive.

Reflexiones Del Boletín De Administracion

¿No escogió Dios a los pobres del mundo para hacerlos ricos en la fe y herederos del reino que el prometió a aquellos que lo aman? SANTIAGO 2, 5

¿Qué es más importante ser rico en la fe o rico en posesiones? La Sociedad nos dice que las posesiones son lo más importante. Dios nos enseña una lección diferente. Cuando somos ricos en la fe, mantenemos a Dios primero y experimentamos la verdadera alegría y paz. Cuando ponemos los bienes materiales primero, pronto nos damos cuenta de que nunca tenemos suficiente y la felicidad es pasajera. Cuando ponemos la fe por encima de las posesiones realmente nos damos cuenta de que es mejor dar que recibir. <https://www.archstl.org/about-stewardship/bulletin-inserts/weekly-bible-reflections>

Questions of the Week: Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The prophet Isaiah spoke of the importance of being strong of heart when it comes the ways of God. Why do you think this is such an important virtue?

Second Reading: James encouraged believers to view the rich and poor from God's perspective. Why do you think people struggle with this divine point of view?

Gospel: In today's reading, we hear how Jesus healed the deaf man with a speech impediment at the request of the "people" close to this man. Who do you know in your life who needs healing from Jesus?

Preguntas de la Semana: A Reflexionar y Responder

Primera Lectura: El profeta Isaías habló de la importancia de ser fuerte de corazón cuando se trata de los caminos de Dios. ¿Por qué crees que esta es una virtud tan importante?

Segunda Lectura: Santiago animó a los creyentes a ver a los ricos y a los pobres desde la perspectiva de Dios. ¿Por qué crees que la gente lucha con este punto de vista divino?

Evangelio: En la lectura de hoy, escuchamos cómo Jesús sanó al sordo con impedimento del habla a pedido de la "gente" cercana a este hombre. ¿A quién conoces en tu vida que necesite ser sanado por Jesús?
