Dear Liturgical Ministers,

Wish you a very fruitful season of advent. Hope and pray that you and your loved ones are doing well.

I am writing this letter to humbly ask you to read the “Liturgical Ministers Guidelines” I have prepared them after deep study, reflection and very careful observation. They are not new! They have been discussed in the Training sessions.

These guidelines are important and urgent. Holy Cross Catholic Community is growing. Many new parishioners are joining the Community. Many more are returning to the Catholic faith after having been away for years.

The liturgical ministers are our front-line leaders. They are the face of Holy Cross Catholic Community. So, it is important to present a united and welcoming face at all times, especially during the Liturgical Celebrations.

Thank you for being a leader! Your gift of time and talent are well appreciated. May Jesus continue to Bless you and reward you. Please be assured of my prayers.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Jose Issac

Pastor

Blessed & Thankful

Dear Friends in Christ,

Prayerful greetings to you from Holy Cross Catholic Community. Hope and pray that you and your loved ones are safe, healthy, and doing well. Wish you all a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Let us take this opportunity to pray our Good-Byes to 2023 with gratitude. This past year has brought many great blessings to our community. The week-end liturgical celebrations are well attended with greater participation. Our faith formation program for children, youth, parents (family catechesis) is going well. Most of the special events like Sonshine Summer Youth Camp, Parish Picnic, Wine Tasting & Silent Auction, Tom Sawyer Village Thanksgiving dinner, feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, "Five Loaves", etc. all took place successfully. Children's Stewardship, Children's Liturgy, and Ministry to the Homebound re-started with excellent participation. Daily Mass and Adoration have contributed to an increase in attendance. All the mini-fundraisers with a strong social and community building components have gone very well.

Fr. Norm, Deacons Joe & Herbert have become a great support to our community. The parishioners took very good care of the community and its many needs. I am grateful.

"Fr. George Wolf Memorial Scholarship Fund" has started with a deposit of $300,000.00. Of which we have already raised $222,970.10, so far. Thank You!

Finally, I am so blessed to have Holy Cross Catholic Community in my journey. Also, I am very thankful that God was very gracious in allowing me to be part of everyone whom I served in 2023.

Let us welcome 2024 with hope, trust and optimism: Our God is a God of surprises. Without the surprises, twists and turns, faith journey is dull.

Thank you to all.

Once again, wish you all a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Jose Issac
Pastor

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I remember the first time my older sister asked me if I wanted to hold her newborn son. Terrified, I told her I didn't think it was a good idea. My résumé had nothing to suggest I would be a qualified baby holder. But she warmly told me, "I'll help you hold him." It struck me that she is baby's mother. She is the one who decides who is qualified to hold him. I took him in my arms and soon I began to feel comfortable with that tiny little warm cooing creature in my arms, and soon I no longer feared holding him.

Now, twenty-seven nieces and nephews later, holding a newborn child is one of the great joys of my life.

Do we sometimes think that Jesus is given only to the highly qualified, special religious people? In the Gospel of Luke today we hear about the presentation of the Lord in the temple. The newborn son of God is passed around like a baton in a relay race, not guarded like a precious jewel or a breakable china dish. We can see him going from the arms of Mary to Joseph, then to the priest performing the ceremony, then to Simeon the old man, then to Anna the old widow. Each one receiving him and then handing him to the next. A tidal wave of joy and thanksgiving follows wherever he is placed.

Believe me, you are qualified to hold Jesus in your arms. How can I say that with such confidence? Because the mother decides who is qualified. The Blessed Virgin, embodied in the Church, holds him out to you and me. She rejoices to place him in our arms to hold, and to hand him on, too.

The Epiphany of the Lord

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A stranger in a foreign land, I was exhausted and homesick as my summer Spanish immersion ended in Guatemala. The rusty minivan arriving outside my small residence filled me with joyful hope. I was flying home to the U.S. and would be, at long last, completely happy. Or so I thought. After about half an hour of being home, I thought to myself, "This place is boring. I want to go somewhere." So, I hopped in my car and left to see my friends. As I drove, I wistfully wondered, "Where am I truly at home?"

The feast of Epiphany has a lot to do with our notion of home. Where is our origin? Where are we going? When is our wandering done? Saint Matthew tells us of the Magi, "They were overjoyed at seeing the star." This star will bring them home, to a place where their questing will end, and they will be satisfied. Their real home is neither in the East nor in the earthly Jerusalem. Somehow, their home is wherever this boy and his parents are.

If you're a teenager or older, you probably know by now that every physical home we have is temporary. So, we look up at the countless stars in our proverbial skies: things which bedazzle and beckon us to follow toward peace. The Gospel invites us to behold that — at long last — God has sent us a star to follow home, one that whispers, "Follow me! I will take you home!" Perhaps that star is your spouse. A friend. An opportunity. A cause. An intuition about a new direction. A prayer group. What is it for you? How will you know? It will lead you to Mary and Joseph and their son, and you will be home.

Eucharistic Prayer #5 – The Eucharistic Presence

"...unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you."
- John 6:53

When we discuss the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist we usually speak of Him being "really, truly, and substantially" present. Each of these words hammers home the same idea—that the Eucharist isn't a symbol but Jesus Himself. Of course we can encounter Jesus in other ways, whether that be through reading the Bible, or through holy people, or through encounters with beauty, or a host of other things. But in the Eucharist, we encounter Christ Himself; not an icon or a symbol, but Jesus. As such, when we receive the Eucharist, we enter into communion with Jesus in a manner unparalleled by any other prayer, devotion, or experience. We become united in body and spirit and so become what we receive.

Do you have a favorite Eucharistic devotion?

2nd Collection: January 6 & 7, 2024 Church in Latin America

The countries of South America have diverse populations from Indigenous, African, European, and Asian ancestries, all with different cultural experiences.

By welcoming and understanding people from so many backgrounds, the Church grows and continues its mission of making disciples of all peoples. In Peru, missionaries working in the Peruvian Amazon bring the Gospel to the Ashaninka and Matsigenka communities of about 60,000 people.

Such encounters and engagement with the peoples of South America are made possible when Catholics in our diocese are generous to the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Your participation in the collection truly becomes a way to share your faith and support evangelization efforts among all peoples.
