My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

The Lord's Prayer #2: "At the Savior's command..."

*"At the Savior's command, and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say"
- Excerpt from the Roman Missal*

As mentioned last week, fundamentally, the Lord's Prayer is not our prayer, but Christ's prayer. The 'Our' of the Lord's Prayer refers not only to all of us, but it can be understood more deeply to refer also to the Son and the Spirit since they also are always turned toward the Father as source. In other words, when we pray the Lord's Prayer, we participate in the life of the Son and Spirit. This is obviously something beyond our human capacity to achieve; it is only because of the Savior's command that we dare to say it.

How does the Lord's Prayer direct your own personal prayers?

What is your favorite part of the Lord's Prayer?

THANK YOU!

- Thank you to all the volunteers who helped with the Santa Cruz Dinner on May 3.
- Thank you to the community who attended in support of the scholarship fund.
- To Dulce and her Ballet MX Dancers that put on a great performance.

We hope all had a grand time and we look forward to seeing all of you for the Holy Cross dinner next year!

"Thank You, Mom"

From the initial wonder to the morning sickness,
 From the sleepless nights to the giggles of delight,
 From the first steps to the temper tantrums,
 Thank you, Mom.
 From school day pride to detention day
 disappointment,
 From the big game to the big show to the big "uh-oh,"
 With secret shared moments and home-cooked meals,
 Thank you, Mom.
 Through tears and laughter,
 Through sorrow and joy,
 For all the ups and downs,
 and for the journey yet to come,
 Thank you, Mom!

Happy Mothers Day to all

NURSING HOME MINISTRY

Take Jesus to those who can't join us on Sundays!

Requirement: 1 time a month, after the 8:00am Mass, you would take the Eucharist to a nursing home.

What you get: Grace and Thanks!

Take a friend or spouse with you! Since this takes only 30 minutes, you could have coffee or breakfast on the way home—with an added Blessing!

If you would like to join this ministry please contact Vilia at vnatchez47@gmail.com

MEMORIAL TREE

The Memorial Tree will be a great addition to our Prayer Garden. It is a great space one can sit outside and pray. The surroundings are very quiet and peaceful. We enjoy real Communion with nature. We experience real solitude and assurances. The Memorial Benches are a great place to sit, reflect, give thanks and pray.

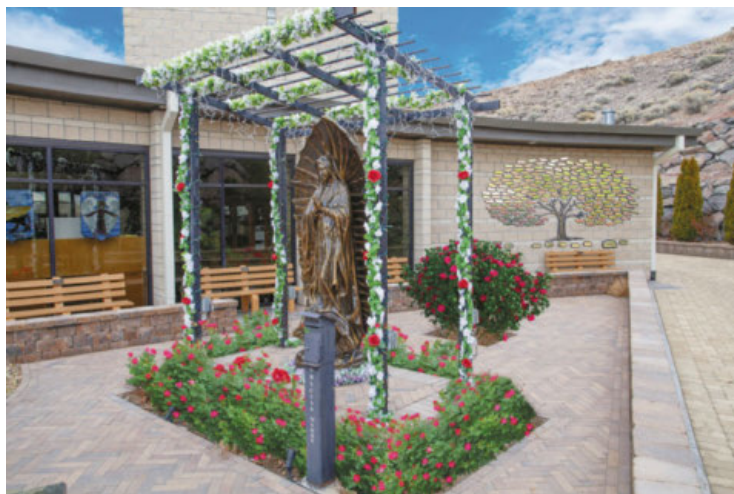

The setting here upon the hill overlooking Reno/Sparks is quite amazing and almost otherworldly. The Memorial tree will reflect our enduring relationship with our departed loved ones. At Holy Cross Catholic Community our emphasis is on relationality. We are relational beings and death does not destroy our relationships. I encourage all parishioners to support this new addition: Thank you and God Bless.

Fr. Jose Issac

May 5, 2024 6th Sunday of Easter GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland. When told of the man, the Pope said, “He is mistaken about our friendship. I don’t recall ever having suffered with him.” As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope. Now, I’m not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn’t the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JP II? He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us, “You are my friends if you do what I command you” (John 15:14). In Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus? How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you’ll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you’ve suffered together a great deal.

-Father John Muir ©LPi

May 12, 2024 The Ascension of the Lord GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a kid, my parents took me to the circus, and I was mesmerized by the acrobats. I recall one show in which the trapeze artists would swoop down just above the ground and then launch up into the air, flinging their bodies seemingly to the top of the tent, all at dizzying speeds. It wasn’t just their height but their dangerous proximity to the ground that thrilled me.

Perhaps that’s a little how St. Mark wants us to feel as he describes the Ascension of Jesus. He tells us that Jesus “sat down at table with them” and then, just a few lines later, “he ascended into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God.” He dies, he rises! He sits down, he ascends! What do these divine acrobatics teach us?

The depth and height on display are a show of his love for us. When Jesus “sat down” he “upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness of heart.” He dangerously swoops down into our lowly place of fragmentation, disbelief, and death. When he ascends, he confirms their preaching with signs of powerful healing. The height of heaven is the place from which God brings wholeness, faith, and life. The point is the Ascension of Jesus is not about his departure. It is about the feat by which he unites the heavens and the earth, the highest and the lowest.

We are meant to relive this spiritually dizzying experience in every Mass, when Jesus sits down with us at his Eucharistic table and then offers himself up to the Father with and for us. Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls: welcome to the great tent of the Church! Feast your eyes on the divine and human acrobat whose saving feat is the great thrill of our lives.

-Father John Muir ©LPi
