World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

A Child's Prayer for Grandparents

Dear God, please bless my grandparents. Thank you for the life they gave my parents and for the life, they give to me.

For the ways they helped me and made me strong, I give thanks. For the ways, they love me no matter what, I rejoice. For the ways, they have paved the road that leads me here, I am grateful.

Let them grow in wisdom and joy in life. Let them find peace and rest from their work. Let them be healed of every sickness and pain. And let them see with their own eyes your glory and the love of their children and grandchildren.

Bless them always until they come to rest in you.

- Author Unknown, Xavier University

In 2021, Pope Francis established the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and Elderly on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus (July 26).

The theme for the 2024 celebration selected by the Pope is "Do not cast me off in my old age" (cf. Psalm 71:9).

The GREATEST Love Story

CREATED: You are not an accident. The God who created the universe, who set the moon and stars in place, loves You and chose YOU, even before the world was formed.

He knows you better than you know yourself, and he loves you simply because you are YOU. There are no conditions on his love: at every moment you are infinitely loved by him. You are dear to him.

FALLEN: The original harmony between us and God was shattered when sin entered the world. Even though God's understanding is beyond human reason, Adam and Eve refused to trust his omniscience and took it upon themselves to be their own gods, choosing themselves above their creator. We continue to turn our back on God, selfishly distorting the good gifts he has given us. Our sin has torn at the very fabric of creation, allowing disease, darkness, and death to inundate our world. Our relationship with God has been ruptured. Refusing to follow God's plan of love, we have been enslaved to sin.

SAVED: God loves us so much that he became man and died for us. Christ outstretched his arms and submitted to death to reconcile us to his Father. Death and sin do not have the final word: Christ's Resurrection opens for us the doors to new life in him. Christ's sacrifice and victory transcends space and time, and it is made present on the altar at every Mass! No one is excluded from his offer of love and mercy, no matter how great a sinner we might be! This includes YOU.

RESTORED: Jesus has opened the door for you, and through his Church, he invites you into a personal relationship with God, but God won't force you to choose him. Christ comes to us in the Eucharist, offering himself to us: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. He nourishes us, offering himself as "our daily bread." It is easy for us to overlook this extraordinary gift. Even people who go to Mass each Sunday forget that Jesus is not merely symbolically present, but truly and substantially. It's time for us to entrust ourselves to the One who gave his life for us and invites us to encounter him in the Eucharist. It's time for a Eucharistic Revival.

- National Eucharistic Revival Website

Healing Hearts

Holy Cross Catholic Community offers a support group for those who have experienced a loss. Meeting on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month at 2:00pm. If you have questions, please contact Randall Hedrick, 775-240-7345 .

Remember: Every Loss is unique, every person is unique
Cultural Attitudes Towards Death: Factors to consider

- Ethnicity, Religion, Family Culture, Avoid Stereotyping

Coping: "Every person's story is different so I'm always careful not to compare mine to anyone else's. What I've learned is that you don't move on, you learn o move forward and to be grateful for the life you have because you never know when it can be taken away.

"I live by a quote I heard by Steven Colbert who spoke out about grief: "It's a gift to exist, and with existence comes suffering. There's no escaping that. If you're grateful for your life, then you have to be grateful for all of it."

"To me, this means that you must be grateful for the good and the bad. I'm grateful for my life - for the 20 years I spent with her, she will always be a part of my life no matter what. I'm grateful that I got to know her, and that the universe lined us up to meet."

- Josh Coleman

Manifestations of Grief: "Stages" or better described as "Common Experiences" one may have:

- Denial
- Depression
- Anger
- Acceptance
- Bargaining
- Meaning

- Elizabeth Kubler-Ross: "I am much more than these five stages. And so are you."

MEMORIAL TREE

The Memorial Tree will be a great addition to our Prayer Garden. It is a great space one can sit outside and pray. The surroundings are very quiet and peaceful. We enjoy real Communion with nature. We experience real solitude and assurances. The Memorial Benches are a great place to sit, reflect, give thanks and pray. The setting here upon the hill overlooking Reno/Sparks is quite amazing and almost otherworldly. The Memorial tree will reflect our enduring relationship with our departed loved ones. At Holy Cross Catholic Community our emphasis is on relationality. We are relational beings and death does not destroy our relationships. I encourage all parishioners to support this new addition: Thank you and God Bless.

Fr. Jose Issac

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again —especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey.

What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails

-Father John Muir ©LPi

The Lord's Prayer #8: Forgive us our Trespases

*"Let no enemy from without be feared:
conquer thine own self, and the whole world is conquered."*

- St. Augustine, On the Lord's Prayer

In the Eucharist we are about to receive, we will have union with Christ and a foretaste of Heaven. And yet we also recognize that we live in a fallen world, and so we ask the Lord to aid us, lest when we leave the building of the Church, we turn aside from Christ and return our hearts to the world along with our bodies.

Is there any besetting sin you have found yourself
struggling with?

How are you planning on overcoming it with the Lord's help?

forgive
US OUR TRESPASSES + AS WE
forgive
THOSE WHO TRESPASS
AGAINST US

August 4, 2024—18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
GOSPEL MEDITATION

Since my college days I've loved a song called "Dance with You" by the rock band Live. It touches on the deep mystical hunger of our heart: "I've tasted all the wines/ a half a billion times/ came sickened to your shore/ you showed me what this life is for." These lines resonate with anyone who has feasted on the good things of this world only to be left spiritually hungover and unsatisfied.

We see a similar dynamic evoked by Jesus' words after he feeds the crowd with bread and fish. To teach them to hunger for God, he recalls God's gift of manna-bread for the hungry ancient Israelites. Those folks had grown spiritually sick from the idolatrous food of Egypt yet still longed for more worthless pagan food. So, God sent heavenly bread to nourish their bodies, but also to heal their distrustful hearts. His people — like us — must learn to hunger and thirst for God alone. Before we can receive that which will not disappoint, we first must cease expecting that earthly goods will satisfy us.

We will get to the Lord's teaching on the Eucharist in the next two weeks. But first, he asks us: do you trust me to take care of you? Do you trust me to give you what you need for each day, and to not worry about the next day? Do you see that when you hungrily stuff yourself with the things of this world you become sick and lose your taste for the bread of life? So, our hungry hearts cry out: Lord, help us to trust that you'll provide for our every need. Help us to use only what we truly need. Help us hunger for the goodness of your Son, who is the true bread from heaven. That is what this life is for.

-Father John Muir ©LPi
