Young Adult Bible Study Group

"You've placed your trust in the Lord to guide and uplift you - now it's time to deepen that connection. Join us at Holy Cross for Bible Study, where we explore His word and grow in faith together. Your journey with Him is just the beginning." Meetings are on Mondays at 7pm at Holy Cross. All are welcome. Follow us on Instagram.

"Has puesto tu confianza en el Señor para que te guíe y te eleve, ahora es el momento de profundizar esa conexión. Únase a nosotros en Holy Cross para el Estudio Bíblico, donde exploramos Su palabra y crecemos juntos en la fe. Tu viaje con Él es solo el comienzo". Las reuniones son los lunes a las 7 p.m. en Holy Cross. Todos son bienvenidos. Síguenos en Instagram.

Adult Bible Study Group

Join us on Thursdays at 6:00pm for an adult Bible study Group. Dive deeper into the scriptures and gain a greater understanding of them. Teacher is John Bell, Holy Cross parishioner since 1988. If interested come join us and make sure to bring a Catholic Bible. All adults are welcome.

ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED!

This ministry is open to all children/youth in our Parish who have received the sacrament of First Holy Communion and have a desire to server the Lord at His table.

Serving at the altar, Pope Francis told the young people, is a privilege way to draw closer to Jesus, which in turn "enables you to open yourselves to others, to journey together, to set demanding goals and to find the strength to achieve them. The closer you are to the altar, the more you will remember to speak with Jesus in daily prayer; the more you will be nourished by the word and the body of the lord, the better able you will be to go out to others, bringing them the gift that you have received, giving in turn with enthusiasm the joy you have received."

Join us on Sunday October 13 at 11am to go through a training for new Altar servers!

Holy Cross Catholic Community offers a support group for those who have experienced a loss. Meeting on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month at 2:00pm.

If you have questions, please contact Randall Hedrick, 775-240-7345 .

IMPORTANT Announcements

- When writing a check for Holy Cross, whether it be for Sunday offering, WTSA, Second Collections, etc. Please make the check payable to Holy Cross Catholic Community and in the memo line note the intended purpose.
- Scam Alert, Please be aware: Some parishioners have contacted the parish office, to inform us that they received emails or text claiming to be on behalf of Fr. Jose, requesting funds or assistance in an urgent matter. This is not a legitimate request, It appears the requests are asking for gift cards. Unfortunately there are a variety of scams out there, which are going around all the time, please be mindful of this and do not send funds this way. All appeals for donations are made through the bulletin, the pulpit and letters mailed from Holy Cross to parishioners.
- To all parish groups, for any event your group plans to have within the parish building, please make sure to obtain permission from the parish office, for any event in the Worship area, from the Pastor.
- For your safety, when exiting the parking lot, please consider turning right & going towards the apartments or Raley's. Use the stoplight to turn in and go to the roundabout. This will save you time, is safer & eases up the traffic at the entrance of Holy Cross.

MEMORIAL TREE

The Memorial Tree will be a great addition to our Prayer Garden. It is a great space one can sit outside and pray. The surroundings are very quiet and peaceful. We enjoy real Communion with nature. We experience real solitude and assurances. The Memorial Benches are a great place to sit, reflect, give thanks and pray. The setting here upon the hill overlooking Reno/Sparks is quite amazing and almost otherworldly. The Memorial tree will reflect our enduring relationship with our departed loved ones. At Holy Cross Catholic Community our emphasis is on relationality. We are relational beings and death does not destroy our relationships. I encourage all parishioners to support this new addition: Thank you and God Bless.

October 6, 2024—27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
GOSPEL MEDITATION

As a young pastor years ago, I met with a middle-aged couple who had been divorced and civilly remarried. They were frustrated that an annulment had to precede a Church marriage. Sympathizing with their plight, I promised to walk with them along their journey. Once as we sat in my office, the man said to me, “Why is the Church so difficult on marriage?” I replied, “Actually, Jesus’ teaching is what’s difficult.” He furrowed his brow and asked what I meant.

We opened the Bible and together read today’s gospel passage from Mark 10:12 in which Jesus says, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery with her...” My two friends sat in silent astonishment. Surely Jesus understands the complexities of human life and sexual love. The words hung thick and heavy in the air. How could the merciful Lord be so seemingly unrealistic in his expectations, especially with so much divorce and remarriage in our world?

I didn’t know what to say. So, we kept reading. Next, Jesus says, “Let the children come to me.” The innocence of children allows them to receive and give love, to trust unconditionally, to believe in love that endures. Most children aren’t yet jaded by statistics, broken hearts, or dysfunctional relationships. Children remind us of the world to come. The couple and I began to talk about child-like trust in Jesus and his teaching, and we continued to move forward. When it comes to the Church’s demanding teaching on marriage, it’s best to approach it as trusting children, whatever situations in which we find ourselves.

Communion Rites #5: Prayer before Communion

“Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world, free me by this, your most Holy Body and Blood, from all my sins and from every evil; keep me always faithful to your commandments, and never let me be parted from you.”

- Excerpt from the Roman Missal

You might notice that immediately after the ‘Lamb of God’ the priest will say a quiet prayer under his breath and then genuflect. This is the second and last time the priest will pray directly to Jesus, and it is the priest’s opportunity to prepare himself for receiving Christ in the Eucharist. And so he prays for Jesus’ mercy and blessing, and then genuflects in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. But while the priest does this, we, the laity, are to do the same (c.f. GIRM 84). And so this brief period of silence invites us to ask for Jesus’ mercy and blessing in the silence of our own hearts.

How do you pray to Jesus during the Mass?

October 13, 2024—28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
GOSPEL MEDITATION

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus’ invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, “At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions” (Mark 10:22). The man’s heart wasn’t centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don’t know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God’s call to test Abraham’s willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you’re noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God’s and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, “mine.”

At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, “Lord, all I have is yours.” And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.

-Father John Muir ©LPi
