Second Collection: Priests' Relief February 1 & 2, 2025

Once a year the Diocese of Reno takes up a special second collection for the benefit of the Diocesan Clergy. The Priests' Relief collection gives us an opportunity to express our thanks to all the Priests of the diocese of Reno who have touched the lives of so many in Northern Nevada. This collection will be taken up on February 1 & 2, 2025.

We are all aware that as we live longer, our health care needs also increase. All proceeds donated for this collection stay here in the Diocese and are set aside to maintain the special help, care and retirement needs of our Priests.

Please be as generous as you can. Your gift enables us all to say "Thank You" to them for all of their dedication and service.

BEING 'PILGRIMS OF HOPE' IN THE DIGITAL LANDSCAPE

written by Sister Hosea Rupprecht , OSV NEWS January 19, 2025
www.osvnews.com/2025/01/19/being-pilgrims-of-hope-in-the-digital-landscape/

The Jubilee Year 2025 is upon us, and Pope Francis has asked that we all attempt to be “pilgrims of hope” to witness to the love and power of Jesus Christ in the world today. What does that mean in practical terms? How am I to be a pilgrim of hope to the world?

The Oxford dictionary defines a pilgrim as one who journeys to a sacred place for religious reasons. Pilgrim can also mean one who journeys through life. This is the aspect of “pilgrim” that’s captured in “pilgrims of hope.” We are all pilgrims on the journey of life, looking forward to being with God forever in heaven once our earthly life is over.

There are many complexities to the journey of life. We may sometimes be tempted to fall into nostalgia about “simpler times” or “the way things used to be.” One aspect of 21st-century life that can complicate the journey is the digital landscape. How can we be pilgrims of hope when it comes to the digital media culture? How do we cultivate an attitude of hope when so much media, especially social media, seems self-centered, introspective and anything but hopeful?

Even more importantly, how do we encourage the young, who are so immersed in digital everything, to buck the selfish trend and be a hopeful and faithful presence in their online interactions? The answer lies in fostering an attitude of media mindfulness and putting some practices in place to help us out of the digital rabbit hole when we find ourselves falling in.

With some determination and effort, these suggested practices can bring us a sense of hope as we journey every single day through the digital landscape. If we, as adults, learn these practices, they can offer us hope as we endeavor to teach the young how to navigate our media world as followers of Jesus.

- Bring your faith and values to bear within the digital landscape. It takes practice, but asking ourselves if what we’re doing online is helping us grow in our relationship with God and with others can give us the pause we need to look at the way we use media. Stopping every once in a while and doing an examination of conscience about our online activities can be spiritually healthy and hopeful.
- Practice discernment. Pope Francis, in many of his writings, has emphasized how crucial discernment is to our spiritual lives. Asking the Holy Spirit to help us understand what it is God wants of us is desirable in all areas of life, but especially in our digital lives. Is what I’m watching, reading, listening to, interacting with, in line with God’s holiness?
- Be critical thinkers. Applying critical thinking skills to our digital lives and the messages that we get from the media we experience means that the negative aspects of media can have less influence on our ways of thinking. When we bring media messages into conversation with the values we hold as Christians, recognizing what is good and worth keeping and what we want to discard becomes easier. This is especially hopeful for parents trying to instill responsibility in their kids for the way they use media.
- Hope implies a trust that God has things in hand, that he is in charge and is with us on the pilgrimage of life. Hopefully, we’ve had experiences that have shown us just how much God holds us in love. Other experiences, however, may have us wondering where God is. Using these tips give us hope that even in our media and digital interactions, God is present and leading our life’s pilgrimage.

If our online lives are out of balance, other parts of our lives will be, too, especially our relationships, and that includes our relationship with God. Being a “pilgrim of hope” encompasses all aspects of our life journey. As we set off on this jubilee year, let’s take up the challenge to incorporate the virtue of hope into our own digital landscape.

Many times we may prefer to keep our emotions private. The reasons for this are numerous and practical. However, when we have experienced the profound loss of a spouse, parent, child or someone with whom we’ve had a close relationship, the grief journey begins. This journey has many twists and turns, some which may be difficult to understand or handle.

Rather than toughing it out on your own, having a safe place to hear other’s experiences and the opportunity to express your thoughts and feelings can be very helpful. Yes, sometimes there will be tears, but that is part of the healing process. Healing is the goal. We invite you to visit the Healing Hearts support group at Holy Cross.

Meeting on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month at 2:00pm.

MEMORIAL TREE

The Memorial Tree will be a great addition to our Prayer Garden. It is a great space one can sit outside and pray. The surroundings are very quiet and peaceful. We enjoy real Communion with nature. We experience real solitude and assurances. The Memorial Benches are a great place to sit, reflect, give thanks and pray. The setting here upon the hill overlooking Reno/Sparks is quite amazing and almost otherworldly. The Memorial tree will reflect our enduring relationship with our departed loved ones. At Holy Cross Catholic Community our emphasis is on relationality. We are relational beings and death does not destroy our relationships. I encourage all parishioners to support this new addition: Thank you and God Bless.

Fr. Jose Issac

Sending Rites #1: “The Lord be with you”

“Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.”

- John 20:21 NIV

As at the beginning of the Mass, the Priest will once again offer the blessing of God, saying, “the Lord be with you.” As stated in an earlier bulletin insert, every time the Priest says this, something new and important is about to take place. The same is true here. While we might be leaving the Church building, we are really embarking on the next part of the Mass: to live it in the world. And so the priest offers God’s blessing, that we might be able to take what we have received in the Mass, and bear fruit that will last in the world.

What is your vocation in the world?

Is there any specific person you feel called to help?

January 26, 2025—3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time GOSPEL MEDITATION

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, “Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news.” “Actually,” they said, “she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!” How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don’t approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is “fulfilled in your hearing” (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God’s word announces the fulfillment of God’s promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What’s required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God’s gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

— Father John Muir ©LPi

February 2, 2025—Presentation of the Lord GOSPEL MEDITATION

What is the secret to sharing in God’s power to overcome our difficulties? Mary teaches us this in the prophecy of her pierced heart. This Sunday, the old man Simeon prophecies that when her son faces opposition, Mary’s soul will be pierced by a sword. The seemingly pointless agony of a mother helplessly watching her son be mocked, tortured, killed and then cruelly desecrated in death by a spear — somehow this piercing of her heart releases a power by which “the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed” (Luke 2:35). What to make of this?

Whatever problems we currently face, the deepest threat is finally that evil thoughts are hidden in the human heart: hatred, envy, pride, lust, greed and so on. Behind every tyrant’s injustice, for example, is a heart unpierced by love. Evil hides in our hearts. Mary’s pierced heart, and its suffering love for her son, reveals and scatters these evil thoughts, and replaces them with love, forgiveness, generosity and peace.

This week, I invite us to ponder Mary’s pierced heart. Her heart is quietly at work for us in the Church and world, exposing our evil thoughts and making a path for her son’s divine love. This is how she gently cooperates in our salvation. Closed hearts are our biggest problem; love-pierced hearts are the ultimate power to overcome every difficulty.

— Father John Muir ©LPi
