Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there,
and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
- St. Alphonsis Ligori

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am very pleasantly surprised by the outpouring of love and appreciation from the community. I always thought I was just doing the "job" I was "hired" to do. Please know, your kind word of affirmation are accepted and well appreciated.

Thank you to all who blessed me with a retirement gift. I am thankful, that an ordinary event like retirement, has become a great sacrament of unity and togetherness. Please pray for Fr. Bobin Babu and extend to him a very generous welcome.

Before I conclude, I humbly ask all who worship at Holy Cross to continue your "Eucharistic journey" - becoming "bread being broken and shared and cup being blessed and shared." It explains what it means to be and to become a great Catholic witness.

Thank you once again and God Bless You.

Love & Prayers,

Fr. Jose Issac
Senior Priest

BEING KIND TO A GRIEVING PERSON

When we have someone who is grieving in our sphere of family, friends and acquaintances, it can be awkward as to what to say or do. There are six words which can be our potential attitude towards them: Care, Control, Criticism, Complain, Change and Condemnation. As you can see, only one word expresses love and is sensitive to the bereaved, that word is Care. Care can take many forms: presence, attentive listening, assistance, patience and empathy. The other five words may seem correct in our eyes as needed action, but may be inappropriate or untimely for where the person is in their grieving process.

Meeting on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month at 2:00pm. If you have questions, please contact Randall Hedrick, 775-240-7345

Holy Cross holds Baptism Preparation classes once a month in English on the third Monday of the month.

For the month of July & August the class will be on MONDAY JULY 21 & August 18 @ 6:00pm

Las clases de preparacion para padres y padrinos, para el Bautismo tomara a cabo dos veces al mes, el segundo domingo del mes despues de la Misa de las 12:15pm. Las próximas clases serán EL DOMINGO, 13 DE JULIO y 10 DE AGOSTO despues de la Misa.

MEMORIAL TREE

The Memorial Tree will be a great addition to our Prayer Garden. It is a great space one can sit outside and pray. The surroundings are very quiet and peaceful. We enjoy real Communion with nature. We experience real solitude and assurances. The Memorial Benches are a great place to sit, reflect, give thanks and pray. The setting here upon the hill overlooking Reno/Sparks is quite amazing and almost otherworldly. The Memorial tree will reflect our enduring relationship with our departed loved ones. At Holy Cross Catholic Community our emphasis is on relationality. We are relational beings and death does not destroy our relationships. I encourage all parishioners to support this new addition: Thank you and God Bless.

Fr. Jose Issac

Good is Good, All the Time: Explained

Perhaps you have been a member of a congregation to whom the pastor says, expectantly, “God is good!” The congregation responds, faithfully, “All the time.” In turn, the speaker repeats: “All the time.” And the congregation affirms: “God is good!”

A collective affirmation of God’s faithfulness amidst the trials of life, this refrain communicates a theme presented again and again in Scripture: Come what may, God will be with us.

There is no official consensus on the origins of this saying, though it is often associated with African Christianity. Whatever this saying’s roots, its message is truth: “For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endures to all generations,” says Psalm 100:5.

“Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever,” echoes 1 Chronicles 16:34. Jesus confirms this in Matthew 28:20: “I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

July 13, 2025—15th Sunday in Ordinary Time GOSPEL MEDITATION

I used to be a bad neighbor. I’d get wrapped up in my life and ignore those around me. Then I found sage advice from Benjamin Franklin to this effect: to be a better neighbor, ask someone to do a favor for you. It’s counterintuitive, isn’t it? Tell strangers that I need their help? Yuck. I’ll risk looking needy. Worse, I’ll be indebted to them. But I tried it, and it works like a charm. Recently I asked my neighbor Alan for a hacksaw, and Inga for an egg. They kindly obliged, and our friendship is growing.

This week we hear a scribe of the law cynically ask Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” (Luke 10:29). Like him, we prefer to keep the list of our “neighbors” as short as possible. It requires less interruption and inconvenience. But when Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan, he exposes the lonely, cold-heartedness tendency of the scribe’s (and our) heart. My “neighbor” is anyone I encounter who manifests a concrete need. There isn’t time to require any other credential because human need opens us to the happy reciprocity which is love.

Jesus’ words challenge us this week to ask a neighbor for help in some small way. How marvelous that God himself shows us how. He moves into our world and asks us to love Him with small deeds of love. Maybe that’s where Ben Franklin got the idea.

July 20, 2025—16th Sunday in Ordinary Time GOSPEL MEDITATION

One of my close friends is a hermit priest who lives on a desert mountain. Recently I found myself in a group conversation about him. One vehemently objected, “What does he do up there all day? Nothing! Priests are down here working, running parishes, making a difference, and he...he is doing nothing! What a waste.” The words dripped with indignation and resentment. Most of the group quietly nodded in silent agreement. Were they correct?

No! To see why, consider a similar scenario in this week’s gospel. Jesus visits his friends Martha and Mary. A hardworking and exasperated Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is attending to him rather than to urgent household tasks. Our Lord, rather than praising hospitality, explicitly celebrates the less-productive sister for doing the “one necessary thing.” He praises her for she “has chosen the better part” (Luke 10:42). Mary is busy doing what matters.

Before we freak out like Martha, consider that all work—domestic, manual, professional, ministerial, contemplative—is done to help us (sooner or later) to experience the love that makes us happy. We should be thankful for those who focus on the “better part” of radical, ceaseless prayer. They invite us to remember the purpose of all work is the enjoyment of love. Contemplatives, hermits, anyone fervently committed to prayer—they invite us to cast aside our forgetful, resentful, and self-aggrandizing attitudes in exchange for hearts ready to do what is finally necessary.

— Father John Muir ©LPi
