19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."
- Lk 12:39-40

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCC. LHM

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three."
- Lk 12:50-52

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCC. LHM

Nursing Home Ministers NEEDED!

Requirement: 1 time a month, after the 8:00am Mass, you along with another parishioner would take the Eucharist to a nursing home.

Currently there are only 18

Parishioners that are helping to take the Eucharist to 5 nursing homes, we are in great need of more individuals who are willing to share the Eucharist with those who are unable to join us for Mass on Sundays! Take a friend, your teenager or your spouse with you! Since this takes only 30 minutes, you could have coffee or breakfast on the way home — with an added Blessing of having shared the Eucharist with others!

If you would like to join this ministry please contact Vilia at vnatchez47@gmail.com

ASSUMPTION OF MARY ASUNCIÓN DE MARÍA

Join us on Friday August 15 to celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass will be at 6:30pm, join us.

The feast of the Assumption is a reminder to us that heaven gets even better! We pray that the souls of the faithful departed would soon be united to God in heaven. ©LPi

IMPORTANT Announcements

- When writing a check for Holy Cross, whether it be for Sunday offering, WTSA, Second Collections, etc. Please make the check payable to Holy Cross Catholic Church and in the memo line note the intended purpose.
- To all parish groups, for any event your group plans to have within the parish building, please make sure to obtain permission from the parish office, for any event in the Worship area, from the Pastor.
- For your safety, when exiting the parking lot, please consider turning right & going towards the apartments or Raley's. Use the stoplight to turn in and go to the roundabout. This will save you time, is safer & eases up the traffic at the entrance of Holy Cross.
- CRY ROOM: We encourage parents with little ones to make use of our classrooms, the 4 classrooms have a speaker for your family to be able to hear the Mass and the windows allow you to see the celebration while your little ones can be comfortable and all can enjoy Mass.

GRIEF AND ANGER

Anger, unfortunately, can be a part of one's grieving process.

It is a normal emotion we all experience.

The consequences of how anger is handled or mishandled will affect one's grief. Some questions to be considered when angry: Why am I angry?

Is being angry going to change anything?
Can I accept the reason for anger or make corrective changes?

Seeking support in processing one's anger can be helpful. Pray.

Seek counsel with a trusted friend or priest.
Attend a support group.

Meeting on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month at 2:00pm.

If you have questions, please contact
Randall Hedrick, 775-240-7345

2025 Missionary Cooperative Program

At the weekend Masses of 8/16 - 8/17/ 2025 there will be a special collection in support of church missions as part of the annual Missionary Cooperative Program coordinated by the Diocese of Reno. This year we will have a guest missionary to present the appeal in person and share their ministry and needs.

Please be generous in your support!

Mission: The Diocese of Gallup

The Diocese of Gallup: 55,468 sq miles. That's about the size of the state of Illinois! But our resources are limited. Here are some examples of where your donation may be used:

1. Immaculate Heart of Mary School, Page, AZ
The Sisters of the Congregation of Jesus Mary Joseph run a rapidly-expanding K-3rd grade school and provide religious education to working families.

2. Priests' Retirement Fund.
Many priests in the Diocese continue to serve well past retirement age. The PRF helps to cover the cost of their medical care.

3. Kayenta and Tuba City, AZ.
In the heart of the Navajo Nation, the parishes of St. Jude and Our Lady of Guadalupe operate a food bank provide sacramental ministry to remote and rural areas.

4. Catron County, NM. The 4 parishes in the far south of the Diocese require expensive heating in winter, Church upkeep and repairs, and fuel for priests who travel extensively to say Masses each weekend.

Missioner: Deacon Randolph Copeland

The continued ministry of the Diocese of Gallup is dependent upon the generosity of the faithful outside its borders to keep the doors open and to support its services to those in physical and spiritual need. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated.

EVERY DONATION HELPS

MEMORIAL TREE

The Memorial Tree will be a great addition to our Prayer Garden. It is a great space one can sit outside and pray. The surroundings are very quiet and peaceful. We enjoy real Communion with nature. We experience real solitude and assurances. The Memorial Benches are a great place to sit, reflect, give thanks and pray. The setting here upon the hill overlooking Reno/Sparks is quite amazing and almost otherworldly. The Memorial tree will reflect our enduring relationship with our departed loved ones. At Holy Cross Catholic Community our emphasis is on relationality. We are relational beings and death does not destroy our relationships. We encourage all parishioners to support this new addition.

August 10, 2025—19th Sunday in Ordinary Time GOSPEL MEDITATION

There was a young mother in my parish community who was depressed due to financial strain. She prayed for help. One morning before Mass, she placed on the counter a zip-lock bag filled with jewelry and old coins. Smiling, she explained she had been fixing an old cabinet and found the items hidden deep within the walls of her home. One particular coin could be worth as much as $900,000. The contents of the bag—previously unknown to them—were now their prized possession. Their plans changed that week. They had to learn how much it was worth.

This week, the Lord tells us, “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Luke 12:34). Our lives revolve around what we treasure. When we discover the treasure the Father gives us—the kingdom of God—everything changes. We might not know its precise value, but we rearrange our lives around it. The joy of this discovery should never be far from our minds.

Sometimes we go through times when we can’t find this treasure. It seems hidden. Or it appears like dirty old coins and worthless jewelry in a Ziploc bag. But how crazy would my parishioners be if they tossed it away without knowing the cash value? How much crazier are we if we center our hearts on any treasure except that of Jesus and his kingdom? Remember, the Father is pleased to give it to us. That’s why we put our hearts there, even when it is hidden.

Holy Hour : Explained

The Guardian Angel Prayer, also known as the Angel of God Prayer, invokes the protection of one’s guardian angel. Often one of the first prayers taught to children, it consists of two rhyming couplets: “Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God’s love commits me here, ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide.”

The exact authorship of this prayer is unknown. Scholars previously attributed it to St. Anselm of Canterbury, though many now believe a version composed by Reginald of Canterbury in his “Life of Malchus” serves as the prayer’s inspiration.

Guardian Angels are referred to in Scripture in the Book of Daniel (Dan. 12:1), the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 18:10) and the Psalms (91:10-13). “From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession,” says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 336).

August 17, 2025—20th Sunday in Ordinary Time GOSPEL MEDITATION

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, “You shouldn’t be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don’t. If I stop pushing you, it means I don’t think you have any more potential.” He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. “Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?” he asks, “No, tell you, but rather division” (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That’s why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents’ wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let’s thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir ©LPi
