

PRESENTATION of the BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

FATHER STANLEY POLTORAK

Dear Friends,

I wish to express my profound gratitude for your generous response to my invitation to build a new shrine to honor our Blessed Mother. As you remember the old statue of Mary was damaged extensively and the entire area around the statue needed to be revitalized. May 9th, I provided you with the renderings of the new proposed shrine and I asked for your financial support. With the first generous contribution coming from the Knights of Columbus we initiated the effort to raise $30, 00.00 for this project. I am pleased to inform you that not only did we raise the $30, 00.00 but we went beyond. I have received such positive feedback on our effort and the work that has already begun. This new Marian shrine will be beautiful and heartfelt expression of our love for the Blessed Mother. It was my intention to secure the shrine with a security camera. Upon further reflection I have decided this is the time to provide greater security with cameras for the entire church building, both inside and outside. Knowing that we have put a lot of effort into beautifying the church and soon the chapel it is necessary to add the extra security. I am now in the process of investigating what the cost will be of providing a security system for the church. The extra funds and any future donations will be used designated towards this project.

In my previous communication I informed you that the work in the chapel was to commence at the end of June. However, in the last week I was informed that one of the crates coming from Italy was damaged in transit and a portion of our new altar was extensively broken. This piece will need to be refabricated and will cause a necessary delay. This was a great disappointment. I will keep you informed of the future time frame for installation.

Trusting in the divine providence I am confident that the Lord will continue to bless our parish and all of our undertakings. Please be assured of my prayers.

With God's Blessings,
Fr. Stanley

In your wisdom and love you have created us and called us your own. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them your courage and perseverance. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. How does our parish attract inquirers each year who consider becoming Catholic?

The short answer is you! When any parish has many inquirers year after year, it is the fruit of the Holy Spirit as parish members open their hearts to welcome others. Members of a welcoming and evangelizing community take seriously their call to share the Divine message of salvation. It happens in parish families, in the workplace, in gatherings with friends and neighbors, and in daily contacts. Give thanks to God as he continuously strengthens each of us who seek to do his will in offering a gentle, humble, and clear welcome to the Catholic faith.

"Go out into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

Benny's Corner

Mmrrh! Paaa-pa—

Have you seen my papa? Hoped he'd be home by now. In time to wish him Little Cat wishes 'cuz last year I was just a Kitten when it was time to celbray Papa's day. He taught me all about papas. I remember that lesson . . .

"Benny, come to Da-Da.," he calls to me.
"We have a special lesson today."

The tips of my ears point up when I hear his deep voice. I speed toward him and my paw strikes my jingly ball that rolls away from me down the hall – where I'm running. "I'll win. I can beat you," I mrenh-eh at him. "I've got tail-swishin' speed!" I yowl as I pass him...

Papa Pastor reaches down to snatch me before I crash into his legs. "Aah-ha-ha," he laughs with his I'm-happy- to-hold-you laugh. "But slow down," he says squeezing me.

"Mrah-ah-ah!" I reply, copying him. I like copying my papa. He's a very smart man. I wiggle, just a little, to remind him that I, Benkovski the Great, am a strong and very smart cat.

"Father's Day," he begins and sits down in our favorite chair. Large enough for a papa and snug enough to fit a papa and a cat. Purr-fect. He continues while slowly stroking my back. "We make this day holy by honoring God the Father, first person of the Trinity. Then we're reminded of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Church. Next is the clergy including the Pope, cardinals, pastors, priests and brothers who act as spiritual fathers by caring for the spiritual needs of their sheep. Finally, we look to the domestic church with the father as its head."

"Pwa-pwa?" I ask. I give him a cat kiss, blinking my eyes slowly.

He nods. "The greatest gift your Da-Da ever received was my vocation. The priesthood. I am able to celebrate the sacraments – especially Holy Eucharist. I am blessed."

I blink another cat kiss. . .

And that's my lesson on papas. I think of what Pope Bendedict XVI said and it reminds me that my papa is thinking of me like I'm thinking of him: "Every human being is loved by God the Father. No one need feel forgotten, for every name is written in the Lord's loving heart."

Pawz up to Papas everywhere,
Benny
