First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

What makes a spiritual leader an effective one is experiencing similar things with all the people that the leader serves. It can give us empathy, an understanding, or a common experience.

A spiritual leader can comfort those suffering health issues, illnesses that are ongoing, or even life threatening. Praying over those who need healing reminds us that illness makes no appointment; it can come at any time. And it touches just about everyone.

Our spiritual leaders at St. Patrick, too, are experiencing some serious health issues and other challenges. Fr. Mark Harrington, who assists us at the parish, has some serious health issues that forced him into the hospital for a period of time. This will be a continuing health issue but our hope is that he can resume his duties soon.

Deacon Jim Hostutler has also experienced a serious health issue and has been in the hospital and recovering in a healthcare facility. It has been a long stay for him, but we are hopeful for a recovery for Deacon Jim. We recently told you the news of the recent death of Deacon John Meyer who also experienced some health issues which made it difficult for him to minister this past year or so.

So we are facing some serious issues, and we ask God to bless these men. Deacon Lou is with us, but is limited right now, living in a place that has some Covid safety procedures for him to follow. Fr. Andre and I are vulnerable, and are being careful. We will get through this. Thanks for the patience of so many people who are understanding, who receive blessings and pastoral conversations by phone for our safety and others. The healings are still happening, the blessings, anointings, confessions, and listening is happening at Sunday Communion, at Masses, at Confessions on Wednesdays, and by zoom and phone. We keep moving forward and await the day when our spiritual leaders can resume their former duties.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

ReImagine TOGETHER

Dear St. Patrick's Staff,

Yesterday I had the privilege to be a Eucharistic Minister from 8:30 to 10:00 am. This is a privilege and a joy for me. Each time I have the opportunity to serve in this way I come home with so many memories of our community. What I noticed yesterday were "hands". There were hands cupped to receive Our Lord in such a tender manner and there were hands open wide like a wide receiver running down the field and waiting and expecting to be successful. Yes, I had to have one football analogy for Fr. Eric. But it's true, the hands were open and wanting. I saw young hands holding tightly to Mom and Dad hands. I saw middle aged hands steering much older hands to the table to receive the Eucharist. I saw hands of couples that have probably been holding hands for 30 years or more and those touched my heart personally since I have been holding the same person's hands for what will be 50 years this August. Hands can hurt but more importantly hands can heal. What a beautiful thing to see hands accepting our Lord.

Thank you St. Patrick's staff for allowing me to serve in this way.

Anita Blain

Come Join the NEW Calling Ministry at St. Patrick!

Hospitality is one of our five pillars. In our ongoing journey to stay connected as a church community, we are creating a new telephone Calling Ministry team. The team will telephone contact each parish household a couple times each year. If you have an interest in connecting with other parishioners this is the ministry for you!

Detail oriented ministers will need a telephone or cell phone; laptop or desktop computer (unfortunately, no iPads or tablets) and be comfortable with recording information in a spreadsheet document.

Orientation, training and written instruction will be given to each minister to ensure success in this rewarding ministry. If you are interested in this fun, fulfilling Ministry, please send an email to callingministry@stpatcc.org. We look forward to hearing from you!

God, thank you for a new year. May everyone in our family be willing to begin anew with a clean slate. We know that you are always ready to forgive us and help us start anew. Help us be willing to forgive ourselves and forgive one another.

As we begin a new year, remind us of our truest values and deepest desires. Help us to live in the goodness that comes from doing what you want us to do. Help us to put aside anxiety about the future and the past, so that we might live in peace with you now, one day at a time.

Amen

Stewardship

Our readings today focus on the vital attributes of being a disciple of Christ.

The Gospel of John portrays these attributes as he bears witness to Jesus' first disciples. Upon seeing Jesus, John proclaims, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The lamb is a reference to the Jewish sacrificial offering at Passover and reveals Jesus as Savior. Once the two that were with John heard this, they immediately followed Jesus. Jesus turned to them and asked, "What are you looking for?" They responded with, "Rabbi, where are you staying?"

Imagine Jesus asking you, "What are you looking for?" We might respond with answers like a better job, more kids, retirement, or any number of things that we think will make our lives better. The things we seek may be righteous, but as disciples of Christ, we should first and foremost seek the Kingdom of God. If we strive to respond to Jesus' question in the same way the first disciples responded, essentially by asking, "Where are you, Lord?" then we will not be disappointed with the outcome.

Our story of Jesus' first disciples concludes with Andrew intentionally sharing the Good News of Christ to his brother Simon Peter. Andrew had the gift of meeting the Lord and did not hoard it to himself. Instead, he sought his brother and proclaimed what he had experienced, which serves as a reminder for us. Our calling is to be missionary disciples — to seek the Lord and share what we have found. Our faith is a gift! We should strive to share this gift with others.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Social Justice and Outreach

Many times we get caught up in studying and reading about facts and figures when it comes to topics relating to social concerns like affordable housing, homelessness, and poverty for example. With January being Human Trafficking month and a topic that highlights the news during this pandemic, we continue to educate and advocate for those victims.

Our minds get caught up in the information gathering and we tend to forget about our contemplative hearts. Prayer and meditation open us up to allowing God to direct our responses to issues like this. Prayer and contemplation allows us to have hearts of compassion, bind us in solidarity, and help us understand the plight of the individual affected by this servitude. Prayer and the understanding of Church teaching towards a social concern like Human Trafficking is the first step in asking ourselves, "What can I do to assist those in need?"

Whatever insults human dignity, such as subhuman living conditions, arbitrary imprisonment, deportation, slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children; as well as disgraceful working conditions, where men are treated as mere tools for profit, rather than as free and responsible persons; all these things and others of their like are infamies indeed. They poison human society, but they do more harm to those who practice them than those who suffer from the injury. Moreover, they are supreme dishonor to the Creator. (Second Vatican Council)

Human trafficking will never be truly defeated without eliminating the consumerism that feeds it and prosecuting those actors in receiving countries, including our own, that benefit because of the exploitation of vulnerable human beings.....Human trafficking is a horrific crime against the basic dignity and rights of the human person. All efforts must be expended to end it. In the end, we must work together—Church, state, and community—to eliminate the root causes and markets that permit traffickers to flourish; to make whole the survivors of this crime; and to ensure that, one day soon, trafficking in human persons vanishes from the face of the earth. (USCCB)

Come Prepared for Sunday Mass

Reading and praying the Sunday readings starting on Monday and reflecting on them during the week is a great way to come hear the scripture readings proclaimed at Sunday Liturgy. Here are the readings and reflections for next

Sunday, January 24, 2021
Third Sunday of Ordinary Time
Jonah 3:1-5, 10, 1 Corinthians 7:29-31
Mark 1:14-20

First Reading: God spared the people of Nineveh because they heeded the message God sent through Jonah.

Second Reading: Paul warns the Corinthians that they must act differently because the world in its present form is passing away.

Gospel Reading: Jesus calls the fishermen, Simon and Andrew, James and John, to be his disciples.

You can pray the Daily and Sunday Readings via our website: stpatcc.org.

Prayer for Victims of Human Trafficking:

We pray never to forget what it feels like to be in this moment; to stand in solidarity with victims of human trafficking consumed with fear and pain.

We pray you will use us in some way to help end this human tragedy.

Lord we have faith that your presence, your love, and your spiritual embrace will always be with the victims of human trafficking.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, hear our prayer. Amen

I'm grateful for...

Welcome 2021! Make a Change. Practice Gratitude.

Yes, 2020 was a difficult and stressful year. We may be tired, irritable, lonely and more. We wish that we could return to our old "normal." Our challenge is to reframe our lives and be grateful for what we have, what we have learned about ourselves, and what we can do for others.

Benefits of practicing gratitude include: It can make us feel happy, enhances our self–esteem, improves our physical and mental health and motivates us to help others.

One gratitude practice: Everyday write down three things that you are grateful for. Keep them in a notebook or in a jar. After a month see how you feel and act. Look at your list!

When Catholics who may be impeded from attending Mass and receiving Communion, due to illness, or other reasons, the Catholic tradition of praying a spiritual communion is highly recommended. Here's a popular form for offering an act of spiritual communion.

MY JESUS,

I BELIEVE THAT YOU ARE PRESENT IN THE MOST HOLY SACRAMENT.

I LOVE YOU ABOVE ALL THINGS, AND I DESIRE TO RECEIVE YOU INTO MY SOUL.

SINCE I CANNOT AT THIS MOMENT RECEIVE YOU SACRAMENTALLY, COME AT LEAST SPIRITUALLY INTO MY HEART.

I EMBRACE YOU AS IF YOU WERE ALREADY THERE AND UNITE MYSELF WHOLLY TO YOU.
NEVER PERMIT ME TO BE SEPARATED FROM YOU.

AMEN.

- Happy New Year EDGE Family. We are officially a couple weeks into the new year and God is definitely bringing in the blessings. We are so excited to start this new year with all of you.

-There have been some changes to kick off, we will now resume January 24 at 6:30 pm. Enjoy MLK Monday! In addition, for your safety we will continue to meet over ZOOM until further notice. More information will be sent out via FLOCKNOTE.

- Our Theme this semester is "I Believe" nights on the Creed. We can't wait to dive deep into our faith and truly understand the meaning in what we say and why we say it.
