LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

God calls us to bring His Word to all corners of the earth. What does that mean for you and me? We are just simple and humble folks trying to find our way through the Gospel and our world. After all, we are not professional preachers but gentle servants. Jesus summons us to take his message on the road and bring it from the pew to the pavement. We cannot keep the joy of the Gospel to ourselves but must bring it into every aspect of our lives: our families, our schools, our work, our corporations, our politics, our social circles, and our philosophies. We cannot just accept the wisdom of the world as true and conduct our lives as if the Good News is a separate matter. They are one. Jesus never asked his friends to go and construct buildings where people could come to hear the truth. He asked them to go to their homes and meet them one on one, face to face. When the rubber meets the road and the message is challenging, rejection is quite possible. That's the litmus test for whether we're really doing what we have been asked.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Lo que llevamos de pueblo en pueblo

En mi experiencia, hay dos tipos de personas: las personas que se quitan los zapatos en el momento en que entran por la puerta y las que no lo hacen.

La gente puede sentirse muy convencida de esto en ambos lados. El principal impulso de la Brigada sin zapatos parece ser el siguiente: rastreamos muchas cosas raras en las plantas de nuestros pies. Pequeños recordatorios de todos los lugares en los que hemos estado, ya sea una casa privada o un baño público, se aferran a nuestros zapatos mucho después de que nos vamos.

Esta misma teoría se aplica a nuestra vida espiritual. Como seres humanos y como discípulos, visitamos muchos pueblos figurativos y recogemos mucho polvo figurativo. Pecaminosidad. Vergüenza. Fracaso. Enojo. Miedo. Duda. No importa cuánto tratemos de mantenernos libres de ellas, estas cosas tienen una forma de adherirse a nosotros, a veces sin que nos demos cuenta. Necesitamos echar un buen vistazo al equipaje inútil y poco constructivo de nuestro pasado que estamos rastreando en nuestros encuentros presentes y futuros.

¿Cuál es la "ciudad" que Dios te pide que visites hoy en Su nombre? ¿Es una conversación difícil con un amigo, un breve testimonio a un extraño en la fila de la caja, una llamada para estar presente con alguien de tu familia? Antes de irte, recuerda, sacúdete el polvo. No dejes que una decepción pasada te limite. No permitas que los fracasos o las cargas de ayer te alejen del gozo del testimonio de hoy, cualquiera que sea la forma que adoptes.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Inspiración de la Semana

Dios nos llama a llevar Su Palabra a todos los rincones de la tierra. ¿Qué significa eso para ti y para mí? Nosotros somos gente sencilla y humilde que trata de encontrar nuestro camino a través del Evangelio y nuestro mundo. Después de todo, no somos predicadores profesionales, sino siervos apacibles. Jesús nos llama a llevar su mensaje al camino y llevarlo del banco al pavimento. No podemos guardarnos el gozo del Evangelio para nosotros, sino que debemos llevarlo a todos los aspectos de nuestras vidas: nuestras familias, nuestras escuelas, nuestro trabajo, nuestras corporaciones, nuestra política, nuestros círculos sociales y nuestras filosofías. No podemos simplemente aceptar la sabiduría del mundo como verdadera y conducir nuestras vidas como si la Buenas Nueva fuera un asunto aparte. Son uno. Jesús nunca les pidió a sus amigos que fueran a construir edificios donde la gente pudiera venir a escuchar la verdad. Les pidió que fueran a sus casas y se encontraran con ellos uno a uno, cara a cara. Cuando la teoría se pone a prueba y el mensaje es desafiante, el rechazo es bastante posible. Esa es la prueba de fuego para saber si realmente estamos haciendo lo que se nos ha pedido. ©LPi

GROWING WITH THE Gospel
CYCLE B

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus prepared his disciples for a mission trip, where they would help the people in area towns and teach them about God. Before they left, Jesus asked his disciples to travel light- they were to bring no food or clothes or money. They could not survive without God's help. Jesus also asked them to heal people. They could not heal without God's power, either. God provided everything they needed for their mission trip.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Mark 6:7-13

PUZZLE

Draw a picture of a disciple.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me always to remember that it is your power that turns people's lives around. Amen.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

MISSION

Choose one friend you know who needs to hear about God's love. Ask your parents if you could offer a ride to that friend, and invite him or her to church with you.
