ASSOCIATE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

We are on the Road to Heaven

Today as we come to the 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear the Beatitudes: Blessed are you who.... We also hear the woes, that is, those who live lives devoid of blessing, fully satisfied in this earthly life, with no need for God. This is Jesus' first big sermon in the Gospel of Luke. His inaugural address. And it's shocking.

The topic is happiness or being blessed, and in a total reversal of ordinary standards, Jesus links true happiness with struggle, hardship, suffering and opposition, not with the prosperity, popularity, and pleasure that we normally associate with happiness. What does he mean by this? Jesus is not saying that the good things of life are evil - not at all.

They are God's gifts, and we are meant to enjoy them. But he is saying that they cannot satisfy our desire for happiness. And so, if we put our trust in them, as Jeremiah says in the first reading, our lives will wither and harden, like tumbleweeds in the desert. No roots, and no fruits. Rather, Jesus is teaching us that the true path to happiness in this fallen world is paved with life's challenges and hardships. These remind us that this world is passing and imperfect, that the only dependable thing in life is our friendship with God.

Hardships and challenges teach us to root our lives in the rich soil of knowing, loving, and serving him; then our lives will be like a flourishing tree, with strong roots and delicious fruits. This lesson must be re-learned continually. Because of our fallen nature, we always tend to think we can find heaven on earth by putting together just the right combination of possessions, praise, and power. But we cannot! We are members of the Church militant for as long as we journey here on earth, and that means we need to keep our armor on and our supply lines protected, lest we fall into the enemy's traps.

QUOTATION FROM THE CATECHISM #1723

"The beatitude invites us to purify our hearts of bad instincts and to seek the love of God above all else. It teaches us that true happiness is not found in riches or well-being, in human fame or power, or in any human achievement - however beneficial it may be - such as science, technology, and art, or indeed in any creature, but in God alone, the source of every good and of all love..."

God is Great, All the Time! Fr. Vic

SPECIAL THANKS TO E-GIVERS

St. Michael's would like to thank all the families who currently give electronically. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those parishioners who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. This saves the Parish Staff time and resources by making your donation online through St. Michael's website. It is easy to set up a one-time donation OR set up a monthly automatic donation.

If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe, and secure way of giving, please contact Cindy Keane at (858) 487-4755 Ext. 3135 or check out www.smpoway.org and click on the "GIVE ONLINE" link.

Please note: If you give online or use bank-by-mail and no longer wish to receive envelopes, please contact the Parish Office.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? — CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: How can a priest counsel people about marriage when he has never been married?

Answer: If a marriage counselor is in a bad marriage does that mean that he or she will be a bad counselor? If one's counseling ability depended upon first-hand experience, would that require counselors to be perfect before they can help others? Obviously not. Some of the skills necessary to help others do come out of personal life experience. But you don't need personal, first-hand experience in order to understand something. We would not think that a doctor, who is an oncologist, would not be able to treat cancer because he himself has never been sick. We also would not expect every doctor to treat cancer. It is the same with priests. Essentially marriage is a relationship and we've all been involved in different kinds of relationships: in our family, with our friends, and with God. And so counseling people about marriage is really helping them to look at the issues that really are part of their relationship, finding ways to better understand themselves in relationship to one another and in relationship to God. In many ways a priest's training, background, and experience, as well as his personal knowledge of many different relationships in families and couples, gives him a broad background from which to draw upon. Most priests are quite capable of helping couples prepare for marriage and discussing the issues that are important as they begin their life together. And they do not do it alone. With the help of married couples and specially trained counselors, most parishes offer a very good preparation for the sacrament of marriage.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS SCHEDULE

10 FEBRUARY 13, 2022 | 6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Conrad of Piacenza | Feb. 19

The history of St. Conrad of Piacenza is quite fascinating. A member of one of the most noble families of Piacenza, he was known for his utmost honesty. One day while out hunting with friends, he thought he saw some game in an area of brush and ordered his attendants to set fire to the brush in order to scare it out of hiding. Unfortunately, the dry brush quickly ignited, and fire started to spread. Soon, the surrounding area was engulfed in flames.

Unfortunately, a known arsonist happened to be in the same area as the fire. This man was later imprisoned, tried, and condemned to death for the damage. But on his way to his execution, St. Conrad of Piacenza, full of guilt, stopped the proceedings and confessed to the fire. To make restitution for the damages, Conrad had to sell all his belongings, which reduced him to poverty. Soon after, he decided to retire to a hermitage, where he became a hermit of the Third Order of St. Francis, and his wife entered the Order of Poor Clares. ©LPi
