FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Have you ever questioned whether God loves and cares for you? Have you wondered whether it is really true that God is concerned with every detail of your life? When trials mount, and discouragement hits, and a full schedule overwhelms, it can be hard to believe in God's faithfulness. Whenever you don't feel loved or cared for it can be hard to believe in the unwearied love of God. Every time we feel unrested, abandoned, lonely, rejected or ungrateful, it would be good moments to open up the Bible, or go to the Church, or simply find a quiet sacred place – to help remember God loves and cares for all of us and each of us.

In the Gospel today, Jesus shows his love and care towards his disciples and the crowd. First, after the disciples had been sent out for a short-term mission trip to preach the word, heal the sick, and cast out demons, they returned to Jesus and reported to him all they did and taught.

Jesus said to these disciples: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." This command (come away .... rest) is an expression of the concern, gentleness, and wisdom of Jesus. This reveals that Jesus cares about their well -being. Jesus invites them to take a step back from the crowd for a while. Jesus tells them to retreat to a quiet place, and rest from their labors.

Then, as Jesus went ashore, he saw a great and vast crowd, "his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd". Pity means compassion. His very gut was wrenched by seeing the misery of the crowd. Pity looks to the need. Mercy looks to the person. Sometime, good and generous people can write a big check to orphanages or charitable organizations and this is praiseworthy and holy. As necessary as it is that many people write checks and give offerings, it is likewise very important that contact be facilitated. We are called to show Christ to the poor and destitute with our own eyes, our own hands and our own faces- the face of Christ. As much as possible, it is good for there to be contact between the giver and the receiver.

Jesus today is moved with mercy and compassion for the crowd. He loves and cares for them. He pours himself out for them. Interestingly, the first thing he did was to teach them and tell them about the Father's love, who is a God, who cares about them, feeds them the Word of God, and teaches them about many things and shows them concrete physical love.

As the world keeps turning and things keep spinning, let our eyes be fixed on the Lord. When discouragement, confusion, challenges, abandonment or rejection surround us, we should go seeking for a sacred quiet place to spend a bit of time with the Lord. As we spend time with him, he can empower us, nourish us, and guide us through the different times. Take a deep breath and ask: how does God take care of me? Don't forget his words: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). As disciples of Christ, we have been bathed in God's mercy, love and power. As missionary disciples of Christ, we can pass these blessings of mercy, love and power to our family and friends around us. God shepherds the people around us with the authentic love of Christ that comes through our eyes, our hands, and our heart of Christ.

Blessings and peace,
Fr. Thanh-Tai

FAITH FORMATION & SACRAMENTS

JOURNEY THROUGH RCIA

Is God calling YOU to learn, discover, become Catholic?

We welcome adults seeking to learn more and become a fully participating member of the Christian Faith Community here at Saints Simon & Jude!

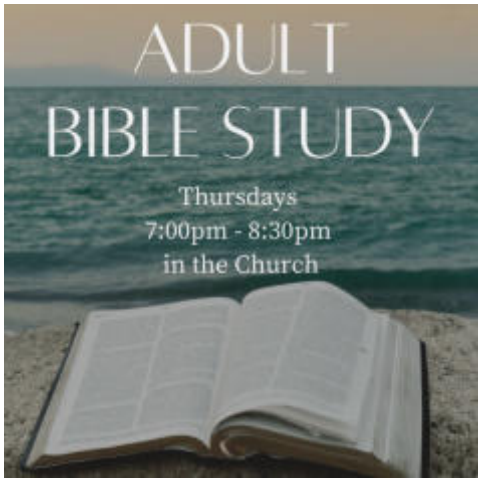
We begin with inquiring and learning more about the Sacraments of Initiation and this process:

- The Sacrament of Baptism
- The Sacrament of Confirmation
- The Sacrament of Holy Eucharist

Our program is called the RCIA – (Rite of Christian Initiation) and it is designed for all seeking to be baptized, confirmed or to receive Holy Communion.

This journey of faith focuses on Christian life and the many beautiful traditions and practices of how we live and grow closer to God in our Catholic Faith.

If you are considering receiving any or all of these sacraments or are just curious about who we are and what we do, contact Mark T. Purcell at 714-794-1862 or email me at mpurcell@ssj.org.



BIBLE STUDY

Every Wednesday from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. we have a Bible Study for all high school students. This is the perfect opportunity to pause in the middle of the week to reflect on God's word and what He is doing in our lives. It offers everyone a safe and friendly environment to grow in faith and fellowship. And when permitted we can enjoy some dinner as well! You don't need to be in Confirmation or a Peer Minister to attend...all are welcome!

SACRAMENT PREP REGISTRATION IS OPEN

If you have questions about our Faith Formation programs, please contact

- Early Childhood & Elementary Faith Formation – Erin Watson ewatson@ssj.org
- Middle School Faith Formation – Chentel Tabbada ctabbada@ssj.org

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

If you have a child entering the 9th grade in the Fall they are invited to begin preparation for this Sacrament.

AROUND THE COMMUNITY

CENTERING PRAYER

Our Centering Prayer ministry has some exciting news to share with all those who have been longing to practice this beloved form of prayer in-person with our fellow parishioners.

On Wednesday, September 8, we will resume our weekly meetings from 4-5 p.m. in the Franciscan Rooms. All are welcome to join us. There is no experience needed. All that is required is your desire to deepen your relationship with God.

Our Tuesday prayer group which has been meeting online for the last 15 months will continue to meet each week from 4- 5 p.m. via Zoom.

If you are interested in learning more about our contemplative group, contact Trish Rice at pdrice2012@gmail.com. We will be happy to send you our weekly email which features weekly prayer reflections, opportunities to enrich your prayer life, and the zoom link for our Tuesday gathering.

RECRUITING NEW ALTAR SERVERS!

It's time for us to begin rebuilding our Altar server ministry.

We are recruiting boys and girls who are in 3rd grade through High school and have received their First Holy Communion. It is a great opportunity for our children to participate in the life of their parish by serving at the altar in a special way. Altar Servers serve at all weekend liturgies and special celebrations throughout the year, such as weekday morning Masses, funerals, and weddings.

We offer training sessions on July 28, August 11, and August 18, from 5:00 p.m. - 5:45 p.m. For more information contact Michael Rangel at 714-932-8222 or mrangel@ssj.org.

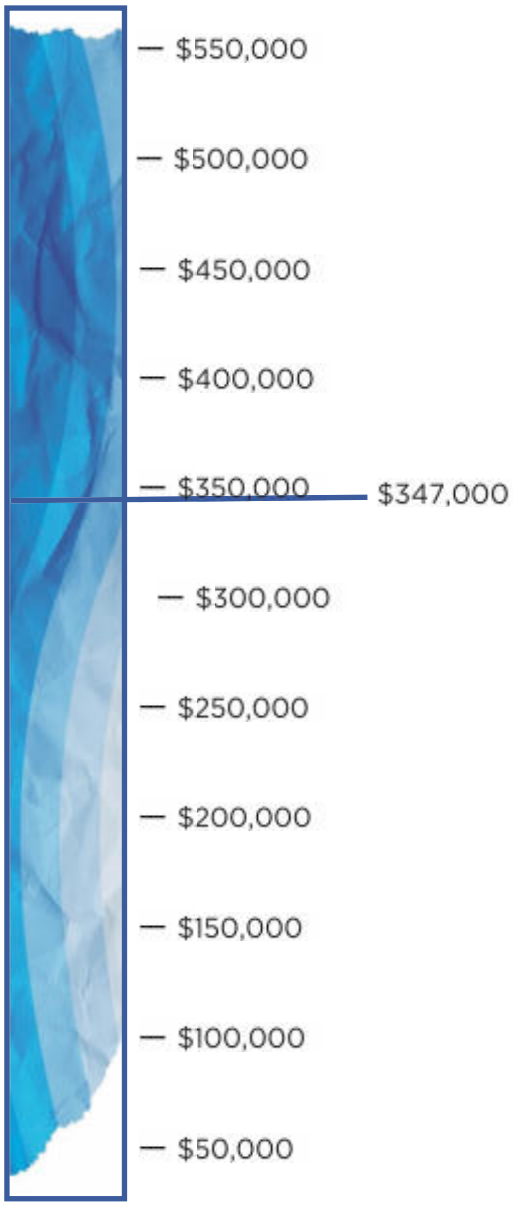
Thank you for your support of the parish!



Thank you to all parishioners who have supported the 2021 Pastoral Services Appeal with pledges and payments.

Pledge payments that exceed our $213,000 assessment are sent back to the parish in the form of rebates. Our designated project funded by PSA rebates will address improving the sound and acoustics in the Church.

We have heard from parishioners that it is often difficult to understand the lectors and priests during liturgies. This project will help make the spoken word more clear, while bringing a warm and resonant tone to the choir, cantors and musicians. In addition, we would like to add in screens and projectors, which will help reduce paper and printing costs, which can run $25,000 a year. The overall goal of these projects is to enhance the experience of worship in our Church building.

If you have not already done so, please consider making a pledge to PSA. Envelopes can be found in the parish office or pledges can be made online at : https://www.rcbo.org/psa/.

Call to Worship: Church of Justice (Ben Walther)

Gathering: The King of Love, My Shepherd Is (ST. COLUMBA)

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness fails me never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow,
With gentle care He leads me.
And where the verdant pastures grow,
With heavenly food He feeds me.

And so through all the length of days,
Your goodness fails me never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Your praise,
Within Your house forever.

Gloria: Mass of St. Ann (Ed Bolduc)

Reading I: Jer 23:1-6
Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

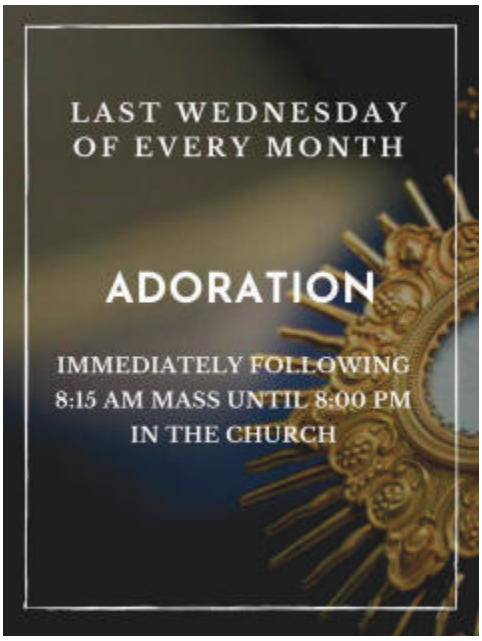
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 23 (Scott Crandall)

R: The Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

Reading II: Eph 2:13-18
Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel Acclamation: Mass of Restoration (Josh Blakesley)

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia!



The Office of Evangelization and Faith Formation is happy to announce the 2021 Summer Institute! Live in-person courses will be taught at the Pastoral Center during the first two weeks of August. While these courses are for teachers and catechists, they are also for anyone who wants to begin basic certification (a future parish catechist) or just learn more about their Catholic faith. PRAYER, READINGS & WORSHIP

Profession of Faith
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gospel: Mk 6:30-34
The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Eucharistic Acclamations: Mass for Our Lady of Light (Jesse Manibusan & Remi F. Bauer)

Communion: : I Am the Bread of Life (Steve Angrisano)

Refrain:
I am the Bread of Life, I am the hope in night,
I am the door wide open, I am the shepherd's might,
I am the truth and light, I am the way and life,
I Am Who Am and I am for you: come and follow me.

Song After Communion: The Table (Chris Tomlin)

Refrain:
Come all you weary, come and find;
His yoke is easy, His burden light.
He is able, He will restore;
At the table of the Lord.

Sending Forth: Joyful, Joyful We Adore You (HYMN TO JOY)

Joyful, joyful, we adore You,
God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before You,
Opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day!

All Your works with joy surround You,
Earth and heaven reflect Your rays,
Stars and angels sing around You,
Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain,
Flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain
Praising You eternally!
