AFTER HOURS EMERGENCY LINE FOR GRAVE ILLNESS OR DEATH: (713) 621-4370 – OPTION 1

REFLECTION on the GOSPEL

In each of the three Synoptic Gospels, after his baptism, Jesus is reported to have spent forty days in the desert, fasting and praying. In Luke and in Matthew, the devil presents three temptations to Jesus. The devil tempts Jesus to use his power to appease his hunger, he offers Jesus all the kingdoms of the world if Jesus will worship him, and he tempts Jesus to put God's promise of protection to the test. In each case, Jesus resists, citing words from Scripture to rebuke the devil's temptation.

Each temptation that Jesus faces offers insight into the spirituality we hope to develop as we keep the forty days of the Season of Lent. We can trust God to provide for our material needs. We worship God because God alone has dominion over us and our world. We can trust God to be faithful to his promises. Jesus' rejection of the devil's temptations shows that he will not put God to the test. Grounding himself on the Word and authority of Scripture, Jesus rebukes the devil by his confidence in God's protection and faithfulness.

This Gospel highlights for us one of the central themes of the Season of Lent. We are dependent upon God for all that we have and all that we are. Anything that leads us to reject this dependency or to distrust its sufficiency, is a temptation from the devil.

Luke ends his report of Jesus' temptation in the desert by noting that the devil departs for a time. The implication is that the devil will return. Jesus knows that he will be tempted again in the Garden of Gethsemane. The depth of Jesus' trust in God is shown most fully when Jesus rejects the temptation to turn away from the task God has given to him. Jesus' final rebuke of the devil is his sacrifice on the Cross.

Jesus' responses to the temptations of the devil teach us how we can respond to temptation. As we start our journey through Lent, this Sunday's Gospel calls us to adopt the same confidence that Jesus had in the face of temptation: God's word alone will suffice, God's promise of protection can be trusted, and God alone is God.

HELPING THOSE IN NEED

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED IN JANUARY 2022

(2021 Average Monthly Assistance = $16,926)

Food, Furniture and Other Necessities - $6,499

Neighbors and Children Assisted - 137

In recent months, we have seen an increase in the number calls to our Charity Line and a dramatic increase in threatened evictions and eviction proceedings. We have also seen the impact of inflation on those who are barely making ends meet. Many in our community must choose between paying for medicine instead of rent or paying for busfare to get to work instead of utilities. We can help them to avoid eviction or service cut-offs with practical and pastoral support, along with temporary financial assistance.

Please help us to help our neighbors by contributing to the St. Michael Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. You can give online through the St. Michael website at stmichaelchurch.net/svdp. You can also contribute through church collections or by mailing or delivering your donation to the Parish Office (please put a note that your donation is for the St. Vincent de Paul Society). Your donations will go directly to helping those in need. Thank you for your continued generosity!
