REFLECTION on the GOSPEL

This fourth Sunday of the Easter season is sometimes called Good Shepherd Sunday because in each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel reading invites us to reflect on Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In each cycle the reading is from the tenth chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter sets the framework for Jesus' teaching about himself as the Good Shepherd.

Today's reading falls between the stories of Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the raising of Lazarus. Both of these stories were proclaimed in the Gospels found in this year's season of Lent. Following the controversy that ensued when Jesus healed the man born blind, Jesus directs his allegory about the sheep and the shepherd toward the Jewish religious leaders of his time, the Pharisees.

Throughout John's Gospel the Pharisees fail to accept Jesus' ministry and teaching. They show themselves to be "robbers and thieves" because they try to lead the sheep without entering through the gate, Jesus. Through these metaphors, Jesus is telling his listeners that those who follow him and his way will find abundant life. He identifies himself both as the shepherd and the gate. The shepherds who are faithful to him are the ones whom the sheep (Jesus' disciples) should follow.

The relationship between the sheep and their shepherd is based on familiarity. Sheep recognize their shepherd and will not follow a stranger. At the end of the day, shepherds lead their sheep from pastures to a common gated area called a sheepfold. There, one shepherd protects all of the sheep until the next day when each shepherd returns to lead his own sheep to pasture. As shepherds move among the sheep, the sheep follow only their shepherd.

Today's Gospel also gives us the opportunity to reflect on Christian leadership. Jesus' words suggest to us that those who will lead the Christian community will be known by their faithfulness to Jesus. The leaders will recognize that Jesus is the gate for all of the sheep and that having a good relationship with Jesus is the primary characteristic of a Christian leader. Jesus' allegory also suggests that faithful Christian leadership requires a good relationship with the community: the shepherd knows his sheep, and they know him. Christian leaders follow the example of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, by being faithful to him and by being a good shepherd.

Please Help Our Neighbors in Need

In the month of March 2023:

$29,757
provided for rent

136
individuals assisted

$6,466
provided for utilities,
food, and furniture

We are very low on funds and are receiving an extraordinary number of calls for assistance to the Saint Michael Charity Line. In March we received over 250 calls and provided $36,875 in assistance to those families struggling to pay their rent and utilities or in need of food and other necessities. An increasing number of families are facing eviction.

You have always been very generous in reaching out to those in need, and it has been over 6 months since we have made an appeal for funds. We ask that you consider a special contribution to the Saint Michael Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that we can continue to reach out with compassion and love to those families who are in crisis.

You can donate through the St. Michael website by selecting the St. Vincent de Paul Society Fund at www.stmichaelchurch.net/online-giving or using your phone to scan the QR code below. You can also donate by check, payable either to St. Michael Church with a Memo note of "St. Vincent de Paul Society" or payable directly to St. Vincent de Paul Society. These funds are maintained separately from church funds and are used exclusively to help those in need. Checks can either be placed in the collection baskets at Mass or delivered to the Parish Office.

May God bless you during this Easter season for your continued generosity.
