STEWARDSHIP

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Envelopes

Starting in July, St. Michael will be using Our Sunday Visitor for the weekly offertory envelopes. You will notice a difference in the design of your contribution envelopes beginning with the July packet. Currently, the church mails out contribution envelopes to 1,400 families and only receives about 150 envelopes back weekly (on average). If your family has switched to online giving or no longer wishes to receive envelopes, please contact Mary Abrams in the Parish office (mabrams@stmichaelchurch.net or (713) 403-4119) so we may remove your name from the distribution list. Alternatively, if you wish to start receiving envelopes, please also contact Mary.

Parishioner Number

Please continue to ALWAYS include your parishioner number on all contributions to the church—whether with a check or online. Your parishioner number is listed on your envelopes. If you don't use the contribution envelopes or don't know your number, please contact the parish office. Without your parishioner number, we cannot properly record your contributions, which results in incorrect year-end statements. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated!

Ut in omnibus glorificetur Deus

Sunday the 28th of May, 2023
Pentecost Sunday

Dear parishioners and friends of Saint Michael the Archangel,

Two years ago, on this same great feast of Pentecost, I shared with you the news that I would be heading off to study for the priesthood at Holy Trinity Seminary in Dallas. And my, how things have changed over the last two years! You all have grown and graduated, you've fallen ill and recovered, dear friends have moved or passed away. . . And I count myself as inordinately lucky to have had the last two years growing alongside you as a seminarian, working toward the priesthood with your support. As confusing as the mystery of Pentecost can often seem to us, so too the way God's plan unfolds in our very lives. But it is with sure and certain hope and complete trust in God's ultimate plan for my life that I share with you that – for the time being – I am stepping away from seminary formation. Our loving Father – Who sent His Spirit to comfort and sustain us, and to lead and guide us – is with us even now. I am deeply grateful for your prayers and friendship. With joy and trust, together we walk forward, much like those first disciples, in pursuit of God's will which, we pray, will lead us Heavenward. I ask that you continue to pray for me, as you have so faithfully done in these last years, and for an increase in all vocations in service of the Church.

Ever your friend and brother in Christ,

Matthew Thomas "John Paul" Lydick
