THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Happy New Year! I hope the celebration of the Christmas season, Mary Mother of God, and New Year's Day have been filled with fresh joy and peace for you. Is one religion correct and all others wrong? Or are all religions of equal value, relative to the preferences of each person or culture?

The nuanced answer is marvelously contained in this Sunday's celebration of the Epiphany of the Lord. You'll recall from the reading from Matthew 2:1-12: "Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.'" In the Magi "from the east" we see representatives of the pagans, that is, non-Israelite religions. These men symbolize all the various human religious attempts to express and encounter God.

Wonderfully, the gospels don't denigrate the Magi. Quite the contrary--they are depicted as wise, intelligent, zealous, courteous, and generous people. And it is through their intelligence and zeal that they seek the "newborn king of the Jews." Here they sense something of a totally unique fullness--something worth their homage.

All this corresponds to the fact that Church acknowledges the true and good elements in all the great religions and philosophies of human history, while recognizing that in the coming of God-with-us in Jesus Christ, all the religious strivings of man find their proper fulfillment. This means that Israel's uniqueness is not just for Israel, but for the nations, for all humanity. It's an overflowing uniqueness, so to speak. That's why the Catechism says:

"The Epiphany shows that 'the full number of the nations' now takes its place in the family of the patriarchs,' and acquires Israelitica dignitas (is made 'worthy of the heritage of Israel')." CCC 528. So when the Magi enter the "house" with Mary and the Child, they symbolize the entering of the nations into the Church and into true worship of God, dignified men sharing a new, elevated dignity.

What's the upshot of this? Two complementary things. First, we should always be attentive to and respectful of all the good elements of other religions, philosophies, and peoples. Especially in the great religions of the world there are many elements of truth to consider and admire. Second, we should always confidently embrace and share the unique truth of human salvation through the Incarnation of God in the human flesh and blood of Jesus. We acknowledge that this is not simply another human religion, something quite different, of a higher objective order. And we do so in humility and honesty, knowing that in Christ and the Church, it's not so much about our search for God, but the revelation of God in search of--and finding--us. This is the good news we should never tire of sharing--or "epiphanizing"--to the magi in our lives. Come, let us adore Him!

Truly,

Fr John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:
 What happens to a consecrated host if it accidentally falls to the ground?

Answer:
 This is a very practical question because, as we all know, accidents happen, even during the most careful celebration of the liturgy. The short answer to this question is that nothing happens to the consecrated host. The Real Presence of Jesus remains in the consecrated host or any consecrated wine that might accidentally be spilled.

Another question we might ask is: How should the ministers respond if the Eucharist is dropped or spilled? If this happens, the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion should immediately pick up the dropped host and consume it. If it is a case of the Precious Blood being spilled, the minister would use the purificator (and additional purificators if needed) to clean the spill and then the area should be reverently washed as soon as the Mass is over and the water poured into the sacrarium (a special sink that is located in church sacristies for reverently disposing of holy water, the water used to clean sacred vessels, etc.).

Shareholder PROJECT

What would our world look like if more of our youth knew, loved, and served Jesus Christ in their lives? Every year, here at Aquinas, hundreds of children & teens go through our religious education, sacramental preparation, and youth ministry programs. Through the generosity of our parishioners' tithing, we are able to keep costs low while providing the highest-quality materials, events, retreats, conferences, and more! However, some of our families require partial or full scholarship assistance for their children.

The Shareholder Project allows you to sponsor scholarship(s) and directly bless one (or more) of our parish families. You quite literally become a Shareholder investing in the spiritual life of our youth! Please prayerfully discern if you are able to share your financial blessings with a young person in our community as they seek a deeper relationship with the God that has blessed us all so abundantly.

You can donate to the Shareholder Project via FaithDirect or by filling out the bottom of this page and returning it in an envelope with a check payable to St. Thomas Aquinas Faith Formation. This can be left in the collection basket at Mass, turned in at the Parish Office in The DOC, or dropped in the drop-box. As an added bonus, your donations are tax deductible!

I WANT TO SPONSOR ONE (OR MORE) YOUTH & BECOME A

Shareholder IN THE FUTURE OF MY PARISH!

How do shares work? Shares are $25 apiece. Two shares would completely cover a Religious Education Registration, EDGE Registration, or an EDGE Retreat. Three shares is a Sacrament Prep or a Life Teen Registration. Add two or three shares to cover kids for both Youth Ministry and Sacrament Prep. Eight shares sends a high-schooler on a life-changing retreat experience. How many of our youth will you bless with your shares?
