3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the “gods” of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away. -©LPi

THE CONVERSION OF
ST. PAUL
THE APOSTLE

Due to the many issues we've had with getting the bulletins to you we made the decision to switch bulletin companies. In an effort to help our new bulletin company, Immaculate Conception is looking to add to our advertisement section on the bulletin. Do you own a business and would like to advertise? Do you think your employer or know of a business that might be interested?

Contact bulletineditor@lafayettecatholic.org if you are interested or want more information.

A huge thank you to our current advertisement supporters!

Volunteers pair up to pray the rosary together for nursing home residents who are asking for our spiritual support and companionship. Please join this mission of prayer being the face of Christ to those most in need in our community. Please contact:

ORIGINAL OLIVE WOOD HANDICRAFTS FROM BETHLEHEM

January 29th & 30th after all Masses

Olive Wood Statues: Jesus - Virgin Mary - Holy Family - Angels - Saints Nativity Scenes - Christmas Ornaments - Crosses & Crucifixes Rosaries & Bracelets - Kitchen Utensils - Church Supplies - Wall Hangings & more!

Bethlehem Handicrafts has had a difficult journey presenting the work of the one-percent Christians in the Holy Land. Throughout these years, we have always been honored and proud to put forth the beautiful work of those guardians and citizens of the Holy Land. Our skills have been passed down from generation to generation in our beloved Bethlehem, and this art is considered the bread and butter for thousands of Christian families there. Consider putting their handcrafted artwork in your home to bring love and support to them when they need it most.

With absolutely no tourists allowed in the Holy Land since March of 2020, the majority Christian families have not made any income. We have taken it upon ourselves to do whatever it takes to make these unprecedented times seem less painful to our Christian families back home, to give them the courage and belief that, even in the most difficult of times, we will all prevail and pass through this together.

3er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Canten al Señor un cántico nuevo, hombres de toda la tierra, canten al Señor. Hay brillo y esplendor en su presencia, y en su templo, belleza y majestad” (Salmo 95, 1,67). La esperanza de Jesús para su pueblo y para toda la humanidad empieza aquí con este pasaje de la Sagrada Escritura. Un mundo nuevo y diverso, sin divisiones ni estatus sociales que dividen y matan. Por el contrario una tierra redimida y armoniosa, sin tinieblas ni miedos. Esta sigue siendo la esperanza de Jesús por medio de su

Iglesia, que siempre, domingo a domingo, nos invita a acoger el Evangelio de Cristo. Abrazar su mensaje y dejarlo penetrar en el corazón hasta que dé fruto. Esto significa también todas sus exigencias de amor que conlleva en el cumplimiento de sus mandamientos.

Buscar la paz y la reconciliación en la familia y en la sociedad requiere el esfuerzo de todos. ¡Nada es fácil sin el Espíritu del Señor! Para ser efectivos en la misión que él nos encomienda como bautizados, debemos de tener amor por los demás y saber reconciliarnos unos a otros, tomando la dirección apropiada que demuestre que somos discípulos suyos. Jesús pasó haciendo el bien, curando y haciendo milagros porque sabía que: “El Espíritu del Señor esta sobre mí. Él me ha ungido para llevar buenas noticias a los pobres, para anunciar la libertad a los cautivos y a los ciegos que pronto van a ver, para poner en libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor” (Lucas 4,18-19). ¿Qué buenas noticias llevas tú a los que te rodean?
