Mission Statement

"We, the parish community of Our Lady of the Valley Catholic Church, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and nourished by the Holy Eucharist, are a community of faith. We invite all God's people to celebrate His love through participation in liturgy, prayer, service and fellowship. We are committed to on-going faith formation for people of all ages. We value the diverse gifts we have been given and freely share our time, talent, and treasure to minister to the needs of all God's people."

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work."

Through your almsgiving you are doing the will of the Father and finishing the work of Jesus. Know that your nickel, dime or quarter is multiplied by the coins placed by others in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

"Wait for the Lord. Be strong and take heart, and wait for the Lord." Psalm 27:14.

The Stephen Ministry is here to help people who may be suffering through the grieving process for someone who has passed away. The Stephen Ministry at Our Lady of the Valley wants you to know that they can provide support through a 4-book series, "Journey through Grief," written by Kenneth C. Haugk, the founder of Stephen Ministry. This series includes 4 books which will be mailed, one at a time, on a quarterly basis throughout the year. These books will provide you with support through stories about how others have coped with grieving for a loved one, and information about the different ways other people handle living without that special person.

If you are, or someone you know is suffering and could benefit from reading this series, please call 520-625-4536 and press option #8. A trained Stephen Leader will retrieve your confidential message and will return your call.

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

The FDA's new decision comes after the agency warned in November about the dangers of health professionals prescribing mifepristone to women before they are pregnant after it had loosened restrictions on the drug.

In December 2021, the agency lifted restrictions on mifepristone distribution. The decision authorized doctors to prescribe the drugs online and mail the pills, allowing pregnant women to perform early abortions without leaving their homes.

When I became the pastor of a large parish, I soon found myself, for the first time in my life, riddled with anxiety, headaches, difficulty making decisions, and fatigue. I called a therapist friend and told her my symptoms and asked if she thought I needed a serious medical exam. She said, "How much water do you drink?" I told her, "I haven't had time to drink water lately." She responded, "You're chronically dehydrated. Drink eighty-five ounces a day and call me in a week." I started guzzling water and in a week all my symptoms went away. I felt great.

Like me, the people in the Exodus wanderings were dehydrated. But unlike me, they knew it. Their symptoms were bad. They fight with each other. They accuse God of being a monster who wants them and their children to die of thirst. Their thirst drives them to plot the bloody assassination of the man who rescued them. God responds by using Moses to strike a rock from which rivers of living waters flow to quench their thirst for years to come.

The Holy Spirit is the living water of love which flows from the pierced side of Jesus, the new Moses. What symptoms in your life suggest you're spiritually dehydrated? Anger at God? Cynicism at your leaders? Bitter rivalry and bickering with others? Don't panic. Of course we have those symptoms. Ask God to provide his water to quench your spiritual thirst, and he will. And all those symptoms will soon disappear.— Father John Muir ©LPi Venerable Eusebio Francisco Kino was a prolific Jesuit missionary to the early Americas. He covered 50,000 miles on horseback establishing missions and ranches from northern Mexico through what is now California and Arizona, befriending Natives and settlers.

Prayer for Venerable Eusebio Francisco Kino's intercession

Heavenly Father, source of all holiness, You raise up within the Church in every age sons and daughters who serve you and your people with heroic love and dedication. You have blessed Your Church through the life and ministry of Your faithful servant, Fr. Eusebio Francisco Kino, S.J. He has taught and preached well of Your Divine Son, Jesus Christ, and was a true instrument of the Holy Spirit in touching the hearts of countless people through his missionary ministry in the New World. As he joyfully accepted Your divine plans, I ask You, according to Your Will, to hear my prayer for (your intention) offered through the intercession of Fr. Kino through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

If it be according to Your Will, for the honor and glory of the Most Holy Trinity and for the salvation of souls, we ask You to move the Church to proclaim Fr. Kino a saint. We ask this prayer through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Questions of the Week
Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The Lord responded to the prayer of Moses with the miracle of water from the rock for the Israelites to drink. What might you ask from the Lord this week?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of having "hope" because "the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit." How does your faith in Jesus give you hope?

Gospel:

Through her dialogue with Jesus, the Samaritan woman comes to the realization that Jesus is the Messiah. In her joy, she tells other Samaritans about her encounter with Jesus. How can you share your faith in Jesus with others?

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Messiah Before You

If you would have asked me on the morning of my confirmation what the chances were of the Holy Spirit getting into my heart, I would have told you they were about the same as getting water from a stone.

My faith was fragile at this time in my life, primarily because I viewed it as exactly that — my faith. Something within my possession and subject to my own power. And I hadn't done the things I thought I needed to do in order to be the kind of Christian who knows the truth and lives it. I was waiting to be made stronger. I was waiting to be made more faithful. I was waiting for a transformation.

Little did I know, I was like the woman at the well, standing around talking about the coming of the Messiah, unaware that he was standing right in front of me. She wasn't ready; she was still living in her sin. She was caught so unawares that she left her water jar at the well, rushing out to tell what she had seen.

When I was anointed with the oil it no longer mattered that I wasn't strong enough to break open the stone that I was convinced encased my heart — God's grace gushed forth through the cracks. While I certainly didn't become a perfect Christian — and never will, in this life — I did learn that when God tells you to strike, it's probably best not to second-guess Him.

In the Philippines, farmers are learning about the importance of diversifying their livelihoods in order to improve their sources of income and nutrition for their families.

“I have many dreams for my family and my grandchildren. I hope I can give them something good.”— Raul Encillo

Raul and Rhodora Encillo live on their farm in Northern Samar, Philippines, with their granddaughters Loraine and Kate.

Raul and Rhodora get up at 5 a.m. each day to tend to the fishpond, pigs and chickens before getting their granddaughters off to school. Education is important to Raul and Rhodora. Their dream is that Loraine and Kate will graduate from college and get good jobs—Loraine wants to be a doctor when she grows up.

For years, Raul and Rhodora worked hard as coconut farmers. After harvesting, they prepared the coconuts for making oil—but it took a lot of work before they made money. On top of that, periods of heavy rain caused flooding, making farming difficult.

Then Raul and Rhodora participated in a Catholic Relief Services program where they received training and assistance to build their own fishpond. They bought little fish to stock the pond, fish food and a net. The fish grew bigger, and soon they were able to sell them at the market. The fishpond also provided food for their family so they could enjoy nutritious meals together.

“Life is so much easier now that we have the fish for our daily living,” Rhodora says.

In the program, Raul and Rhodora also learned how to better prepare for the increasing natural disasters in their area—like typhoons, flooding, earthquakes and landslides. They made improvements to their house, using stronger, sturdier materials to protect their home and family.

Since joining the program, Raul and Rhodora added two more fishponds along with pigs and chickens. With the extra income from their farm, their granddaughters can enjoy their childhood and live a more comfortable life, giving them the opportunity to study hard and finish school.

“I have many dreams for my family and my grandchildren,” Raul says. “I hope I can give them something good.”

REFLECT

Work is important and part of God’s plan for adults and families. What chores do you do to help your family?

Why is it important to help others have work and an income?

Meet our Children’s R.E. Catechist Elaine Wentz

I started teaching this year at OLV. I taught for 15 years as a Catechist teacher, preparing students for Reconciliation & 1st Holy Communion at St. John’s Parish in Tucson.

I have 2 sons & a daughter, and 4 grandchildren, plus Dukie, my son’s little puppy. Two of my grandsons started the Religious Education Program this fall, here at Our Lady of the Valley.

I am so grateful that I was hired 7 years ago to be the Receptionist of Our Lady of the Valley Parish. This has been rewarding for me as I am able to attend daily Mass, to be nourished at the Table of Christ and listen to His Holy Word. I am assisting with being a Eucharistic Minister, reciting the Chaplet & the Rosary, when I am able, and serving our Parishioners in any way I can.

I love spending time with my family & friends, camping, walking, teaching & learning from the children in the R.E. class, as they teach me, by one question they ask or share with me, and serving my community. Most of all I enjoy meditating on my back patio and just listening to our little water fall.

I am so thankful for so many things, all the ups and downs of everyday life, but it is such a blessing to know that God has my back at every second of each day!

To Know Him, LOVE Him, & Serve Him is why I am here!!!

Thank you Elaine for your Stewardship of Time and Talent!

Sharing the Gospel with Children

GOSPEL

Jews didn't usually like the people from Samaria, let alone visit one of their towns or talk to any of them. Men didn't usually talk to women back then, either. When Jesus talked to the woman at the well, Jesus broke those silly rules. Jesus saw into the woman's heart and knew that she needed God in her life. Jesus came to rescue her from her sin. She was so happy that she invited everyone in her town to meet Jesus, too.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for caring about me, no matter where I live, and no matter what I have done wrong.

Mission for the Week

Ask God to open your heart so that you will be friends with other kids, no matter what they look like.
