Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Much to Samuel's surprise, the Lord instructed him to anoint the youngest of Jesse's sons, David, to be the next king of Israel. When have you been surprised by God?

Second Reading:

Paul urges the Ephesians: "Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord." What do you think pleases the Lord?

Gospel:

Jesus' healing of the blind man created confusion, anger, and fear among some of the people witnessing this event. In a real sense, Jesus' healing exposed the blindness of others. How do we prevent ourselves from being blind to God's presence in this season of Lent? ©LPi

Father Thomas Reeves, O.C.D. is a friar from the California-Arizona Province of the Order of Discalced Carmelites. He entered the Discalced Carmelite Order in 1999 and was ordained to the priesthood in 2008. Since ordination, Father Thomas has served in various assignments, including: Santa Cruz Parish, Tucson, Arizona, 2008-2014 (Parochial Vicar, Pastor), Carmelite House of Studies, Mount Angel, Oregon, 2014-2017 (Rector), and El Carmelo Retreat House, Redlands, California, 2017-2020 (Retreat Director). He is currently serving as Prior of Mount Saint Joseph Carmelite Monastery in San Jose, California.

God asks a rhetorical and slightly sarcastic question to Samuel, the prophet: "How long will you grieve for Saul, whom I have rejected as king of Israel?" Like us, Samuel is depressed that the old king failed. It's painful to admit that the old regime is done. But God won't let us wallow our pity-party forever. "I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem," announces the Lord, "for I have chosen my king from among his sons." Samuel finally goes and anoints the young David as the new king. And his kingdom is glorious; it's the golden age of Israel's earthly history.

How discouraging to see that my own selfish ego is no longer in charge! How long will I grieve that money, power, pleasure, and reputation have been rejected as the ruler of my life? How wonderful that God has a new future in store for you and me. He is sending us to Bethlehem to anoint the new David as our king. His kingdom won't fail us. He'll slay our goliaths, unite our dispersed energies, and build a Temple where God himself will dwell.

So how long will you grieve? How long?

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives sight to the blind man. Through grace we are also transformed from not seeing to seeing and then Jesus sends us to help others see and to believe.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brings joy, peace, forgiveness, mercy and kindness to the hurting hearts of the poor.

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

As pro-life chair, Bishop Burbidge reaffirmed the Church's position on life. "The Catholic Church is consistent in its teaching on upholding the dignity of all life, and that must include care for both women and their children," he said. We decry the continuing push for the destruction of innocent human lives and the loosening of vital safety standards for vulnerable women."

Venerable Aloysius Schwartz (Father Al) spent his life embracing poverty, building hospitals, and supporting orphans in war-torn Korea, the Philippines, and the Americas. His legacy lives on through the religious orders he founded — the Sisters of Mary and the Brothers of Christ.

Prayer for Venerable Aloysius Schwartz's intercession

Almighty, ever-living God, giver of good gifts, You have filled Msgr. Al with an ardent love for You and for souls. You have inspired him to dedicate his life to relieve the suffering of the orphans, abandoned, the sick and poor, especially the youth, which he did with all humility and courage until the end of his life. May his holy life of love and service to the poor be recognized by the Church through his beatification and canonization.

For Your honor and glory, we pray that the life of Msgr. Al be an inspiration for us in striving for perfection in the love of God and service to others. I ask You to bestow upon me, through the intercession of Fr. Al (your intention).

I ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, and the maternal aid of Mary, the Virgin of the Poor. Amen.

“The Diocese of Tucson Catholic Cemeteries has three opportunities to live out your Catholic Faith while serving those who are in need. This ‘Corporeal work of mercy’ can be a blessing to you and the families we serve.

We have immediate openings in the following areas: First – A Family Services Counselor. This role is the face of our ministry. You will be working directly with families to provide empathy and Christ’s loving mercy to all those who come and call upon us at either Holy Hope or All Faiths Catholic Cemetery.

Second, we are hiring both an Irrigation Specialist and a Groundskeeper for Holy Hope Catholic Cemetery. Bring your talents whereby you can share Christ’s compassionate love to all whom you work with and serve.

These roles have been posted on the Diocese of Tucson website under “Employment”. <https://diocesetucson.org/employment-opportunities> Don’t forget to scroll down to see all our current postings. Come join our great servant team.”

The calling to make sure the works of the Church continue is at the core of our mission as followers of Jesus Christ. Your generosity has a powerful impact on our ability to carry out the works of the Church -- building a strong Catholic presence across our Diocese and taking care of our parishes, schools, and those in need in our communities.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Not As Man Sees

I don’t know Fr. Stu personally, but I’ve heard a fair number of his homilies. I think it is safe to assume that if he and I were to get into a discussion on any number of things, from church history to liturgical music to stand-up comedy, each of us would cringe at the opinions of the other.

But Fr. Stu happens to offer just about the only confession time within 20 miles of me that consistently works with my schedule. That means that, quite by accident, Fr. Stu is my regular confessor. For years now, he’s sat patiently on the other side of the grille, listening to me pour out the details of my transgressions, from the pathetic to the embarrassing, and he absolves me of my sins.

In the Gospel, Christ links vision with humility and pride with blindness. We see again and again in Scripture how God delights in surprising us, in revealing himself through people, places, and experiences we not only didn’t expect but perhaps had totally written off.

We are right to be proud of the truth, but we are wrong if the truth causes us to be proud of ourselves. The truth no more belongs to the one who believes it than sight belongs to the blind man in the Gospel. A gift does not reflect on the recipient. It reflects on the giver.

After a great deal of thought, I’ve decided to be grateful that God contrived to give me a confessor whom I strongly disagree with on so many things. It’s a powerful reminder of how much I must receive from other people, even those I may think are wrong. In that confessional, Fr. Stu is only a priest, and I am only a sinner.

“Not as man sees does God see.” — 1 Samuel 16:7

To continue farming in the face of climate change, a community in Kenya learns how to use a solar powered well.

“The CRS program has changed my life. Through that I will change my community.” – Rebecca Etelej

Turkana, Kenya is very hot and dry. Temperatures reach the mid-90s year-round. Most people in this area raise livestock such as goats and camels, and a few are farmers. But the climate makes this work difficult—and climate change is making it even harder.

Rebecca and her husband, Lotiang, have farmed and raised goats for years. They rely on rain and river water to irrigate their crops and feed their animals. But it is raining less and less in Turkana, and—when it does rain—it can be unpredictable and intense, leading to floods that wash away the seeds.

“We struggled to water our farms,” Rebecca says.

Rebecca and Lotiang have worked hard so their family can thrive. Their determination—and hope for their children’s futures—helped them overcome the challenges they faced. They participated in a Catholic Relief Services program that installed a water well in their village and trained them in new farming techniques. With the well and solar-powered pump, they can irrigate their fields regularly and take care of their goats. Their children love to help with the goats!

Lotiang learned to grow kale, which provides nutrition for his family and can be sold for a high price at the market. Rebecca is grateful that her children can eat healthy food every day. She is also happy that she can send them to school using money from the produce Lotiang sells at the market.

Rebecca and Lotiang have become leaders in their community and teach others what they learned so that everyone can benefit.

“I learned much in CRS’ program,” Rebecca says. “It is a program that has changed my life. I am trying to show my community what I am able to do so that they can emulate it for a better future. Through that I will change my community.”

Sharing the Gospel with Children

GOSPEL

When Jesus saw the blind man, he did not just walk by. Jesus stopped. He knew he could help the man, and honor God at the same time. Showing all of God's love and power, Jesus healed the blind man's eyes. For the first time in his life, the man could see Jesus and believe in him.

Mission for the Week

Draw a cross and put it in a place where you can see it and think of Jesus every day.

PRAYER

Jesus, thank you for helping the blind man believe in you.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

How precious is a soul that comes to Jesus with all their needs. He heals and helps you to carry your crosses everyday. It pleases Him to see you, He smiles at you, His heart is happy. His graces and blessings are abundant. We often make time for many activities. Can you make time to spend one hour a week with Jesus? He is waiting. If you are here only a couple of months a year, that's ok, you are most welcome to participate. We have a great need for adorers of the Blessed Sacrament between the hours of 9:00 AM to Noon in the Church, a nice comfortable peaceful place. Do you have time to spend with Jesus? Please call Rose Spusta to get on the Adoration schedule or for more information at 520-241-6271.
