SOLEMNITY OF MARY, Holy Mother of God

May God bless us in His mercy.

Dear Friends in Christ,

According to the Jewish Talmud, at the end of our lives and we find ourselves at heaven's door, whether we are admitted or not, depends on our answers to six questions.

God will ask us:

Did you make time to learn?

Did you take care of loved ones?

Did you deal honestly with others?

Did you maintain hope?

Did you partake of all the legitimate pleasures that came your way?

*Were you true to yourself? **

Not a bad list of questions to ponder as we wade into 2023.

Christ our light, illuminate the road we will walk in the New Year. May the light of your grace and wisdom shine in our homes and hearts in the New Year, enabling us to re-create our world in your compassion and peace. Your St. Anthony Parish Staff wishes for you and yours a very blessed and happy New Year filled with much joy, good health, and deep faith.

Happy New Year!!!

Fr. Tom

In order to make sure that Jesus is never left alone while exposed with Blessed Sacrament, we asked that 2 or 3 people for each hour of the night commit to being in the church.

"Would you not spend one hour with me?"

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

The shepherds returned from Bethlehem "glorifying and praising God." They were affected deeply by the sight of the infant Messiah and the message of the angels. What would the world look like, if we allowed ourselves to be likewise impacted by the word of God?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. John Neumann, patron saint of educators, immigrants, and sick children, was the first male saint to be canonized from the USA. An immigrant himself, he expanded Catholic education in his region from 2 schools to 100 & ministered in 6 different languages!

PRAYER

Prayer for St. John Neumann's intercession

O St. John Neumann, your ardent desire of bringing all souls to Christ impelled you to leave home and country; teach us to live worthily in the spirit of our baptism which makes us all children of the one Heavenly Father and brothers of Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the family of God.

Obtain for us that complete dedication in the service of the needy, the weak, the afflicted, and the abandoned which so characterized your life. Help us to walk perseveringly in the difficult and at times painful paths of duty, strengthened by the Body and Blood of our Redeemer and under the watchful protection of Mary our Mother. May death still find us on the sure road to our Father's house, with the light of living faith in our hearts.
