Spiritual Practices

Ignatian Spirituality

The SEEL Deadline is just 11 days away. If you feel called to join this powerful and enriching prayer program, please get your application in as soon as possible. Spaces are limited and the demand is growing. As you might know from past bulletin notices, the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) is a nine-month prayer and spiritual direction program designed for lay persons. SEEL is flexible; each person carves out time for prayer and meets with an assigned spiritual director based on his or her own schedule. Participants learn by practice many types of prayer including consideration, imagination, scriptural contemplation and meditation. The Spiritual Exercises are powerful. This is a Catholic, Christian program, and people of all faiths are welcome.

For more information or to download our application, please visit <https://seeltc.com>; email info@seeltc.com. For questions or to discuss, please call Johnette at 509-910-1685.

Benedictine Spirituality

In the Prologue to his Rule, St. Benedict writes: 'let us ask the Lord ... who will dwell in your tent, Lord, who will find rest upon your holy mountain?' His long answer to this question exhorts us to be truthful, just, triumphant over temptation, and filled with praise for God's majesty, unfailing assistance, and mercy. The Rule offers practical advice on living according to these exhortations.

For more information about Benedictine spirituality, contact Betsy at 430-1962.

Carmelite Corner

Saint Elijah: Prophet and Our Father

Excerpts from Office of Readings from the Carmelite Proper of the LOH; Institutum Carmelitanum, 1993, for the Solemnity of Saint Elijah, July 20

The prophet Elijah appears in Scripture as a man of God who lived always in his presence and fought zealously for the worship of the one true God. He defended God's law in a solemn contest on Mount Carmel, and afterwards was given on Mount Horeb an intimate experience of the living God. The inspiration that was found in him from the very beginnings of the Order so pervades its whole history that the prophet may deservedly be called the founder of the Carmelite ideal.

Elijah's Call is our call too: 1 Kings 17:2-4:

The Word of the Lord came to Elijah saying "Depart from here: and go towards the East and hide yourself in the Wadi Carith which is over against the Jordan, there you will drink of the torrent and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

{In the next two Sunday Bulletins; Carmelite Corner will examine each line and reflect on what Elijah's Call means in today's world of Carmelite Spirituality.}

For information about the Lay Carmelites, contact Rebecca Moak at 509-460-1608.

Sunday Reflection

Transfigured

We have all had moments when we seem to get a glimpse of Heaven.

For me, they come with the sacraments: in the pew following my First Communion, kneeling before the bishop as he sealed my forehead with oil at my Confirmation, standing opposite my husband on our wedding day, cradling my newborns as the priest poured holy water over their little foreheads, claiming them for Christ.

Moments when the veil between this world and the one to come is pulled away, and our hearts cry out: "Lord, it is good we are here."

Like Peter at the Transfiguration, we desperately wish the feeling would last forever. We want to hang onto the certainty, the confidence and the joy that radiates from our souls. We want to spend forever looking upon the transfigured face of Christ.

But we are not in heaven yet. We raise our eyes, seeing only this world before us, the words of Jesus ringing in our ears: "Rise, and do not be afraid."

"His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed." — Daniel 7:14

Knights of Columbus News

The Columbian Club Hall - where the Knights meet

The hall's formal, legal name is The Columbian Club, Inc. This distinction is important because Knight's Councils are not structured to own property such as a hall. Please continue to enjoy our facility as you have so loyally done. Our request is that everyone begin referring to the hall as the Columbian Club Hall.

The Columbian Club raises funds to ensure the continuance of Knight's charitable works including support to this Parish. If this appeals to you, we welcome practicing Catholics, 18 years of age or older, to become Club members. Members participate in fundraisers, club activities, and community events. There's no membership fee.

If you're interested in becoming a Club member, reach out to our President, David Schwegel, at 509-440-0630.

In and Around the Diocese

A Note from the Serra Club of the Tri-Cities:

St. Peter tells us that Jesus "received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to Him from the majestic glory, 'This is My Son, My beloved, with Whom I am well pleased.' Moreover we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts." (2 Peter 1:17, 19)

Discover life as a priest, deacon, sister, or brother, being attentive to the apostles' prophetic message and sharing its light with others.
