From the Pastor

June 27, 2021

Last week, I introduced our ancient Christian prayer, the sign of the cross. Now I would like to touch on a few variations of this practice. For example, as Catholics, we are accustomed to making the sign of the cross by first touching our forehead, then our torso, followed by our left and right shoulders. However, the Eastern Orthodox, when tracing the crossbeam, begin with their right shoulder and then move to their left.

Even more surprising for Catholics is that, as far as anyone can tell, the Orthodox practice of moving right to left was the original custom; it was a custom followed by all Christians until sometime in the 11th-13th centuries during which the Latin West (Roman Catholics) began making the cross from left to right. Why did we make this change? No one really knows. Evidently it just happened organically.

Obviously, the fundamental symbolism of this ancient prayer is retained regardless of whether one begins with the left shoulder and moves to the right (the Catholic practice) or begins with the right shoulder and moves to the left (the Orthodox practice). However, if one were to argue which method is the ‘best’ considered in itself, the stronger argument would favor the Orthodox practice both for its antiquity and because, liturgically, prominence is generally given to the right before the left.

For example, when incensing a high altar, the priest first moves to the right, before moving to the left. When there is only one deacon, he sits at the right of the priest. When a sponsor presents a candidate before the bishop for confirmation, the sponsor places his right hand on the candidate's shoulder. And, when a priest hears confessions, he is instructed to raise his right hand during the prayer of absolution.

This preference for the right over the left in liturgical prayer is not simply an accident of history. It is rooted in both the Old and New Testament. There are over 100 references to this scattered throughout the scripture. For example, St. Paul writes: “If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God” (Col. 3:1).

However, though one could easily argue the preference for the Orthodox manner of making the sign of the cross when considered in itself, we, as Christians, do not consider things in isolation, but in the context of the greater community of believers. As such, for centuries, billions of Catholics have been united in this common gesture, moving from left to right. The sign of the cross, in addition to being a powerful prayer, is also a sign which both manifests and deepens our unity. Therefore, for Roman Catholics, for the sake of this unity, we rightly join with one another in signing ourselves on the forehead, torso, left then right shoulders while invoke the Most Holy Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Praised be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

In Christ,

Pulpit Announcements

We bid Father Raymond Kalema farewell this week. He will now be the pastor in Colfax, WA.
We are grateful for his service and will miss him.

A Prayer for Priests By St. Therese of Lisieux

O Jesus, eternal Priest,
keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart,
where none may touch them.
Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body.
Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with your Precious Blood.
Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood.
Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion.
Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

The 9:30am Sunday Mass at St Francis is ending.
It was initiated at the start of the pandemic when Mass attendance was limited. Beginning next Sunday, July 4th, we will return to having one Sunday Mass at St Francis at 8:30am.

THE BEATITUDES: BLESSED ARE THEY WHO ARE MERCIFUL Dr. Brant Pitre explains “What does it mean to be merciful? It means to forgive others faults, to forgive others sins, even when they don’t deserve it, in fact especially when they don’t deserve it. That’s the quintessential aspect of mercy. And so what Jesus is saying here is that people who are merciful are happy, because they shall obtain mercy from God, they shall be forgiven by God even when they don’t deserve it.”

POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS ON BLESSED ARE THE MERCIFUL:

“We are debtors. All of us. To God who is so generous and to our brothers and sisters. Everyone knows that he/she is not the father or mother he or she should be, the bride or groom, the brother or sister. We are all “in deficit” in life. And we need mercy. We know that we too have done wrong. There is always something lacking in the good that we should have done. However our very poverty becomes our strength to forgive! We are debtors and if...we shall be measured with the same measure with which we measure others (cf Lk 6:38), then it should suit us to widen our measure and to forgive debts; to forgive. ...This is the secret to mercy: by forgiving one is forgiven. “General Audience Wednesday, March 18, 2020

REFLECT AND ACT: Pray the Our Father slowly, line by line, and reflect on the words “forgive us our debts as we also have forgiven our debtors” (Mt 6:12). This prayer concludes with these words “For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.” (Mt 6:14-15). Am I a person who holds grudges? Do I only forgive when someone says they are sorry to me? Do I connect God’s forgiveness of my sins to how I forgive others?

“...True freedom is not advanced in the permissive society, which confuses freedom with license to do anything whatever and which in the name of freedom proclaims a kind of general amorality. It is a caricature of freedom to claim that people are free to organize their lives with no reference to moral values, and to say that society does not have to ensure the protection and advancement of ethical values. Such an attitude is destructive of freedom and peace.” St John Paul II

Saint Junipero Serra entered the Franciscan Order in Spain, first as a student of theology and then as a professor. He became famous for his preaching and felt called to convert native peoples in the New World. Arriving by ship at Vera Cruz, Mexico, he and a companion walked the 250 miles to Mexico City. On the way Junipero's left leg became infected by an insect bite and would remain a cross—sometimes life-threatening—for the rest of his life. For 18 years, he worked in central Mexico and in the Baja Peninsula. The first mission founded after the 900-mile journey north was in San Diego in 1769. That year a shortage of food almost canceled the expedition. Vowing to stay with the local people, Junipero and another friar began a novena in preparation for St. Joseph's day, March 19. On that day, the relief ship arrived.

San Juan Capistrano, now famous for its annually returning swallows on St Joseph's Feast day was the seventh of nine founded missions. Saint Junipero Serra brought the Native Americans not only the gift of faith but also a decent standard of living. He was canonized on Sept. 23, 2015. From franciscanmedia.org

LECTURA— Hermanos:

Ya que ustedes se distinguen en todo: en fe en palabra, en sabiduria, en diligencia para todo y en amor hacia nosotros, distinganese también ahora por su generosidad.

Bien saben lo generoso que ha sido nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que siendo rico, se hizo pobre por ustedes, para que ustedes se hicieran ricos con su pobreza.

No se trata de que los demás vivan tranquilos, mientras ustedes están sufriendo, se trata, más bien, de aplicar durante nuestra vida una medida justa, porque entonces la abundancia de ustedes remediará las carencias de ellos, y ellos, por su parte, los socorrerán a ustedes en sus necesidades. En esta forma habrá un justo medio, como dice la Escritura: Al que recogia mucho, nada le sobraba, al que recogia poco, nada le faltaba.

2 Corintios 8: 7, 9, 13-15

Ofrecimiento del dia—

!Oh! Jesús, por medio del inmaculado corazón de María, te ofrezco mis oraciones, trabajos, alegrías y sufrimientos de este día, en unión con el santo sacrificio de la Misa que se celebra en el mundo. Los ofrezco por todas las intenciones de tu sagrado Corazón; la salvación de las almas, la reparación de los pecados, la unión de todos los cristianos. Los ofrezco por las intenciones de nuestros obispos, y del apostolado de la oración y particularmente por aquellas recomendadas para este mes por el Santo Padre.

frente primero, luego nuestro torso, seguido por nuestros hombros izquierdo y derecho. Sin embargo, los Ortodoxos Orientales, al trazar la viga transversal, comenzaron con el hombro derecho y luego se mueven hacia la izquierda.

Aún más sorprendente para los Católicos es que, por lo que cualquiera puede decir, la práctica Ortodoxa de moverse de derecho a izquierda era la costumbre original; era una costumbre seguida por todos los Cristianos hasta por algún momento en los siglos 11—13 durante el cual el Occidente Latino (Católicos Romanos) comenzaron hacer la cruz de izquierda a derecha. Porqué hicimos este cambio? Nadie sabe en realidad.

Evidentemente sucedió organicamente. Obviamente, el simbolismo fundamental de esta Antigua oración se retiene independientemente si uno comienza con el hombro izquierdo y se mueve hacia la derecha (la Práctica Católica) o si comienza con el hombro derecho y se mueve hacia la izquierda (Práctica Ortodoxa). Sin embargo, si uno discutiera que método es el 'mejor' considerado en si mismo, el argumento más fuerte favorecería la práctica Ortodoxa por su antigüedad y porque, litúrgicamente, la prominencia generalmente se da a la derecha antes que a la izquierda.

Por ejemplo, al incensar un altar mayor, el sacerdote se mueve primero a la derecha, antes de moverse a la izquierda. Cuando hay solamente un diácono, él se sienta a la derecha del sacerdote. Cuando un padrino presenta a un candidato ante el Obispo para

La semana pasada presenté nuestra Antigua oración Cristiana, la señal de la cruz. Ahora me gustaría tocar algunas de las variaciones de esta práctica. Por ejemplo, como Católicos, estamos acostumbrados a hacer la señal de la cruz tocando nuestra confirmación, el padrino pone su mano derecha sobre el hombro del candidato.

Y cuando un sacerdote escucha confesiones, se le ha instruido que levante su mano derecha durante la oración de absolución. Esta preferencia por la derecha sobre la Izquierda en la oración litúrgica no es simplemente un accidente de historia. Está enraizado en ambos el Antiguo y Nuevo Testamentos. Hay más de 100 referencias a esto esparcidas por toda la escritura. Por ejemplo. San Pablo escribe: "Si han sido resucitados con Cristo, busquen las cosas de arriba, donde Cristo está sentado a la derecha de Dios" (Col. 3:1).

Sin embargo, aunque se podría argumentar muy fácilmente la preferencia por la forma Ortodoxa de hacer la señal de la cruz cuando se la considera en si misma, nosotros como Cristianos, no consideramos las cosas de forma aislada, sino en el contexto de la mayor comunidad de creyentes. Como tal, por siglos, billones de Católicos se han unido en este gesto común, moviéndose de izquierda a derecha. La señal de la cruz, además de ser una oración ponderosa, también es un signo que manifiesta y profundiza nuestra unidad. Por lo tanto, para los Católicos Romanos, por el bien de esta unidad, nos unimos correctamente unos con otros al persignarnos en la frente, torso, hombro izquierdo luego derecho mientras invocamos a la Santísima Trinidad—El Padre, el Hijo, y el Espíritu Santo.

Alabado sea Jesucristo, ahora y siempre!

En Cristo,

Padre Nicks
