Pastor's Letter—Fr. Oakland

Each and every night, Fr. Poje and I pray the words of Simeon that we hear in the Gospel this weekend:

Lord, now you let your servant go in peace;
your word has been fulfilled:
my own eyes have seen the salvation
which you have prepared in the sight of every people:
a light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

They are words prayed by all priests and religious each night, and a great many lay people as well, as a part of Night Prayer for those who pray the Divine Office. Compline, as it is also known, is prayed as the day draws to a close, as darkness surrounds us and yet we hold fast to the Light of the World.

I always find solace in it. It is a prayer of thanksgiving, for the blessings of the day. It is a prayer of intercession, for those whose labors are not yet ended or are just beginning. It is a prayer of petition, for the cares which were shared with me during the day. It is a prayer of sorrow, for those caught up in the darkness and sin. It is a prayer of hope—that the Lord will carry us into tomorrow, and the eternal tomorrow.

How do you end each day? How do you bring it to a close? If it is just scrolling on your phone or a favorite show or movie, the pages of a good book or just collapsing in exhaustion, I would encourage you to add something new to the mix. Prayer. On your own. As a family, and not just with the little ones. Turn to the Lord.

Pope St. John XXIII had a rather famous night prayer of his own, dealing as he so often did with the cares of the world each day: "Lord, it's your Church. I'm going to bed." It doesn't have to be profound—just the gift of yourself.

Simeon and Anna were the only ones at the Temple that day to recognize God in their midst because they alone were looking for him. The encounter changed their lives. Look back on your day for God's presence, as you beg it continue through the night. It will change your life as you bring all to him.

Protect us, Lord, as we stay awake; watch over us as we sleep, that awake, we may keep watch with Christ, and asleep, rest in his peace.

PREPARES Open Your Heart Appeal

This coming weekend, our parish will participate in the statewide PREPARES Open Your Heart Appeal. The PREPARES (Pregnancy & Parenting Support) ministry is a nurturing, parish-based response to low-income mothers and fathers who, regardless of religious belief, have chosen life: the promise of support and care from pregnancy to their child's fifth birthday. Your gift, no matter the amount, will have a real impact in fulfilling the promise to families in need to provide life-affirming, life-changing support.

The program was initiated in 2014 by the bishops of Washington state to offer parishes the opportunity to live out Catholic teachings about the value of all human life and the preferential option for the poor. Since then, statewide, the program has been adopted by 197 parishes, and in 2024 trained 1,144 Volunteers and Companions providing 22,193 family encounters, offering one-on-one companionship, children's essentials, and social and educational events for young parents. To learn more, volunteer, or donate, visit www.preparesforlife.org.
