The Church around the world will be celebrating the Solemnity of Pentecost on the weekend of May 22-23rd. In keeping with the spirit of the feast, we invite you to wear some piece of red clothing when you come to church that weekend.

Church Safety Updates: Phase III

With Washington State remaining in Phase III for the time being, we are now allowed new freedoms in our parish worship while still guarding basic social distancing and mask-wearing mandates.

We ask you to be attentive to the following protocols while at Mass at Sacred Heart:

- ◆ We have raised the limit on in-church attendance from 50 persons to 70 for ordinary liturgies, and up to 80 when additional chairs are set up in the back of the church nave.
- ◆ Sunday morning, 10:00 am Mass is now available both in-person attendance and live-streaming.
- ◆ Congregational singing is now welcome as long as we remain masked throughout.
- ◆ Lectors, presiders, and homilists may now exercise their ministries without masks as long as they maintain substantial distance from others while unmasked.
- ◆ Weekday Masses, Tuesday through Friday, 8:30 am, have started up again. There is no need to register in advance, but we ask you to sign in each morning.
- ◆ When in church, keep masks covering fully both mouth and nose and assiduously maintain 6' social distancing. Please observe both rules both within and outside the church.
- ◆ Holy Communion will continue to be distributed in the pews only and on the hand only.
- ◆ Please remember that not everyone is already vaccinated; hugs and handshakes should still be avoided.

Thank you for your cooperation and care!

Welcome Back, Weekday Masses!

Since Easter, we are once again celebrating weekday Masses in our parish church. As before, the daily liturgies are celebrated at 8:30 am, Tuesday through Friday.

Our usual safety precautions will be in place including social distancing and masks covering the mouth and nose. There is no need to sign-up in advance, but we do ask that you sign in as you enter the church.

A Word from Our Pastor...

Dear Friends,

I wish to all of our parish family's mothers, grandmothers, and mothers-to-be a very blessed and happy Mothers' Day! Though not a church feast in itself, celebrating our mothers is a very "church thing" to do, because, simply put, mothers are sacraments of God's love in our world in a very special way. I use the word "sacrament" here in the sense that our mothers make present in their humanity the divinity of God, which is to say, the love that IS God!

All of us know that no mother is perfect just as no human is perfect. Faults and failings are part and parcel of their lives as much as anyone's so there is not need to put them on pedestals and place gold halos around their heads. Some have limited patience and occasionally hit the limits of that precious resource when their kids are bouncing off the walls. Others feel a certain despair when sizing up yet another mountain of laundry to send through the machines, then fold, then store in dressers in every bedroom. Some have a harder time than others saying "I'm sorry" or "I love you." But we sons and daughters also know that in their long-haul perseverance and forbearance with us and our faults, they show us what God is like and that makes them "sacraments."

So this weekend, we honor our moms and thank them for being here for us. If they have already gone to their place in the heavens, we look skyward and blow them a kiss. More than anything, we make explicit our love for them by giving them a flower or breakfast in bed or a pretty card with a few well-chosen words inside.

And we pray for them. They need our prayers and we need to prayerfully encourage them in their wonderful ministry of making the maternal love of God present to us day in and day out across the course of our lives.

Happy Mothers' Day!

Fr. Kevin

Rest in Peace...
