Help for Haiti

The Diocese of Spokane is taking part in the Special Collection authorized by Archbishop Gomez, President of the USCCB, and prompted by the massive earthquake and tropical storm that hit Haiti a few weeks ago. The funds from this collection will be used to support the Church and humanitarian needs arising from this disaster. To participate in this collection, you can donate online at www.dioceseofspokane.org/haiti, or send a check to the Diocese of Spokane, with "Haiti Collection" written in the memo.

Church Safety, Delta Edition

As the Delta variant of the coronavirus circulates widely in our community and out of concern for the health and safety of all, we now require mask wearing for all persons who attend Mass in church or who attend other parish activities indoors.

Please also be attentive to maintaining at least 6' social distance between yourselves and others outside your family group while in church.

We continue to ask all to receive Holy Communion ONLY in the hand.

Thank you for your patience and perseverance!

Introducing Our New Parish Catechist:

Anita Doberman

Anita will be taking over leadership of our parish's catechetical programs for children. Let us let her introduce herself in her own words:

Hello everyone! I am excited to join Sacred Heart Parish as your new DRE/catechist. I look forward to getting to know everyone and to share in our journeys of faith.

A little bit about myself and my family - I am Italian and was born and raised in Rome, Italy. Catholic culture and faith have been an essential part of my upbringing and my life. I grew up in the Neo-Catechumenal Way, a lay movement that focuses on social justice and on creating small communities of faith around parish life. I hope to bring the warmth, care and a bit of the Italian zest to the community.

My husband is active-duty military. We moved to Spokane a couple of years ago and are excited to finally call this area our home!

We have ten children ranging in age from 20 to one and a half. Two of our children have special needs and are on the spectrum. I have a strong passion to advocate for dis-ability and inclusion. I am completing my master of theology at Gonzaga (go Zags!) and will present my thesis on catechetics and dis-ability in May of 2022, after which I will continue to work on a dissertation on this topic in a doctorate.

I have been involved in teaching religious education, RCIA and, sacramental prep for several years and I love to accompany children, teens and adults on their spiritual path. I try to create a welcoming and affirming environment for everyone.

As we say in Italian, A Presto!

Anita Doberman

Sadly, Anita just recently learned that her mother is grievously ill back in Rome, so she is leaving for a time to care for her. Let us accompany Anita, her mother, and her entire family with our prayers during the difficult weeks ahead.

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,

On October 6, 1965, Pope Paul VI visited and addressed the United Nations, the first pope in history to ever do so. In that address, he issued the following call, which came to represent some of the most memorable, moving, and prophetic words coming from the heart of any pope: No more war, war never again.

Just six words. It took just six words for Pope Paul to drive to the darkest heart of the human reality and call us back to our best selves. In the same century that had seen two world wars and many much smaller ones (including our own costly involvement in Korea and Vietnam), with untold millions of souls lost to warfare and many more injured or driven into dire poverty, and now over twenty years into the following century, with war still very much an ongoing and horrific reality all these years later, Pope Paul's simple call to walk away from arms and turn to the ways of peace and justice, continue to echo...and still very much need to be heard.

I mention all this, because our news over the past few weeks has been filled with reports in words and photos of the war-induced suffering of the Afghan people as well as the chaotic and deadly efforts to evacuate our U.S forces, civilian citizens, and our Afghan collaborators for the past twenty years. (The images that have come back to us at home have been almost too painful to view. I found the story of the 18-year old soccer player who clung to the wing of a C-17 in hopes of riding it deeply moving, but, sorry, I just could not watch the video of him falling from that wing to his death.)

As this war has now ended with pain for all, is it even possible for us human beings to live without war? Looking back over history, it seems never have been done for long. Can we hope for the future Pope Paul called for in 1965? Yes, but only if we take to heart the final words of Pope Paul to the United Nations that day:

The hour has indeed struck for "conversion," for personal transformation, for interior renewal. We must get used to thinking of man in a new way; and of men's life in common in a new way; in a new way, too, of the paths of history and the destiny of the world, in accordance with the words of Saint Paul, to "put on the new man, which has been created according to God in justice and holiness of truth" (Eph. 4:23).

Fr. Kevin

Rest in Peace...

We have had many funerals and memorial services in our church over the past few months; we ask you to continue to keep all of our faithful departed in your prayers. As of this week, we have just one on our schedule:

- ◆ The funeral Mass for Natalie Concie will be celebrated on Saturday, September 4, 10 am.
- ◆ Please keep the family of Dan Hentges, a resident of Rockwood Lane and parishioner who recently passed away, in your prayers as well. Dan's funeral Mass will be celebrated at Saint Mary of the Holy Rosary Church in Chewelah, Thursday, September 9, 11:00 am, burial to follow.

Farewell and Welcome...

Father Kevin's final weekend with us will be September 25-26. There will be an informal reception following the 5:00 pm Saturday Mass and a parish picnic/barbecue in the church yard following the 10:00 am Sunday Mass.

We will welcome Father Vic as our new pastor the following weekend, October 2-3 with events to be announced soon.
