MESSAGE FROM DEACON JOE

Dear Friends:

Today's Scriptures are about announcing the Good News. They remind us that announcing the Good News of the Kingdom by words, deeds, and life is not the task of only a few. Rather, it's a task for all baptized Christians.

In the First Reading, Isaiah announces good news to the Israelites as they return from their Babylonian exile. He declares that the ruined and desolate Jerusalem would take care of them "as a mother comforts her baby son." Isaiah assures the returned Jews that they will live in the certainty of Yahweh's promises of love, protection, prosperity, and salvation.

In today's Second Reading, Paul removes the confusion created by the Judaizers in the minds of the new Gentile Christians of Galatia. He clearly conveys the good news that it's Jesus' death on the cross, which brings one's salvation and not Jewish heritage or practice of Torah laws. Paul reminds us that the mission of each member of the Church is to bear witness to the saving power of the cross of Christ through a life of sacrificial, self-giving service.

In today's Gospel, Luke describes the fulfillment of the prophetic promise made by Isaiah in Jesus' commissioning of 72 disciples to preach the good news of God's love and salvation in towns and villages in preparation for his own visit. Jesus gives the paired disciples "travel tips" for their missionary journey. They must be walking witnesses of God's providence, relying on the hospitality of others, living very simple lives, preaching the Good News, and healing the sick.

Today's Gospel reminds us that we, the 1.5 billion Christians in the world today, have the mission of the 72 to preach the Gospel of Christ to the rest of world's 4.5 billion non-Christians.

We need to continue the proclamation of the Gospel. Just as Jesus, in today's Gospel, gave instructions to the seventy-two missionaries, he also gives each one of us a mission to carry out. As faithful Christians, we should attract others to the faith by leading exemplary lives, just as a rose silently attracts people by its beauty and fragrance. This is our job and our responsibility. We must not miss the current opportunities to be apostles through our words and deeds in everyday life.

God bless you,

Deacon Joe Sifferman

THE POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTION

Elderly

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

OUR PARISH

Welcome Bishop Eusebio & Father Chad!

While continuing his many duties as an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Seattle, Bishop Eusebio will also be serving as our parish pastor.

Father Chad was ordained June 25th and begins his priestly service as vicar here at Christ the King.

Together they bring a strong passion for sharing the love of Christ and enthusiasm for their ministry. May God bless our parish richly with their gifts as they shepherd us in our faith.

IN MEMORY

Herman "Hank" Bisom
April 9, 1925 - June 17, 2022

Hank went to Heaven peacefully on June 17th at age 97.

He was a member of Christ the King Parish for 38 years, always attending the early Sunday Mass. Hank could often be found helping with ushering and preparing Sunday bulletins.

A Funeral Mass will be Tuesday, July 5th at 11:00 am at Christ the King Catholic Church, 405 North 117th Street, Seattle, with reception to follow. Interment at Holyrood Cemetery, 205 NE 205th Street, Shoreline, WA

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
