The Sacraments of Initiation

The three sacraments of initiation are baptism, confirmation and Eucharist. Each is meant to strengthen your faith and forge a deeper relationship with God. Baptism frees you from original sin, confirmation strengthens your faith and Eucharist allows you to taste the body and blood of eternal life and be reminded of Christ's love and sacrifice.

Baptism

Baptism is the first sacrament where you become united with Christ and the Church – no other sacrament can be received without it. A priest performs this rite by immersing the baptismal candidate into water, therefore cleansing their original sin through water and the word. The candidate traditionally wears white garments, a candle is lit and they are anointed with sacred chrism. This is the first step in your relationship with God and Christ. Usually this takes place when the candidate is a baby, however, it's never too late and you're never too old to begin your journey with God. It's common to have a baptism celebration with friends and family afterwards and give the child baptism keepsakes that will help them grow in their faith.

Eucharist

Eucharist means thanksgiving. This is when Christ's body and blood are offered and then received by the parishioner in the form of bread and wine. Christ during the Last Supper broke bread, ate it, gave it to his disciples and told them to eat it. Now the priest, through the words of consecration, blesses and administers the Holy Communion during every mass to remind followers that they are one with Christ. Food and drink nourishes our bodies –- Christ's blood and body nourishes us spiritually.

Confirmation

This is the sacrament that follows Baptism as part of the initiation process with God and the Church, where the candidate receives the gift of the Holy Spirit and continues their journey with Christ. During Confirmation, the candidate is anointed on the forehead with chrism by a bishop. Since baptism typically happens when the candidate is a baby, confirmation is a great way for an older child to acknowledge that they still want to continue their journey with God and grow their relationship with Him. Celebrate your child's confirmation by giving them a Bible with meaningful verses highlighted or cross as a daily reminder of God's love.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Time marches on quickly. It is already two weeks since we celebrated the resurrection on Easter Sunday. Spring break is over for the students. The routine of life (as much as it is during the pandemic) has returned after Lent. There are still some differences though. We are still in the Easter season. Easter celebrates Jesus's victory over sin and death and His rising to new life. We are able to have the sprinkling rite at the beginning of Mass instead of the penitential rite, although this may be curtailed because of the pandemic. Some of you may have holy water at home. Blessing ourselves with holy water reminds us of our baptism into Christ and how we have been given new life in Him.

Another difference during the Easter season is that the Easter candle is lit during Mass and is placed close to the altar. The Easter candle represents the Light of Christ that has conquered the darkness of our world. The darkness of sin and death that has held humanity bound since the fall of Adam and Eve. Because of our baptism, the Light of Christ is always with us and in us. We are children of the light, and if we remain close to Jesus we will always walk in the light. Darkness will no longer have a hold on us for God has brought us out of darkness to live always in His wonderful light.

Some of the other differences at Mass during the Easter season are some of the prayers. The prayers that the priest prays for the people speak directly about the new life that has been given to us in Jesus. They speak of hope and of our adoption through baptism, of being God's sons and daughters. Through Jesus we become God's beloved children, and He calls us His own. The prayer at the altar that the priest prays just before the consecration (called the Preface) states that we laud God yet more gloriously and praise Him for the fact that Christ has been sacrificed for us. We always give thanks to God at every Mass, but during the Easter season it is as if our thanks and praise are elevated to even greater heights.

Another difference is that the first reading is usually from the Acts of the Apostles rather than from the Old Testament. The Acts of the Apostles is the history of the earliest days of the Church. The gift of the Holy Spirit has come down upon the Apostles at Pentecost and they are now boldly proclaiming the Good News of salvation in Christ. We hear how this proclamation is vehemently opposed by the Jewish authorities. Yet, the Holy Spirit strengthens the Apostles to be courageous and to persevere in bringing souls to Jesus. These stories are meant to give us courage to boldly proclaim the Gospel to others. Jesus asks us to join Him in His mission to save souls, and by our words and actions we can do just that.

It is important to recognize these differences in the liturgy during the various liturgical seasons. There are specific reasons why the Church makes these changes at these times of the year. They are significant in that they reveal certain details of how God is working in salvation history. If someone should ask us, "Why do we do certain things differently at Mass throughout the course of the year?" we should be able to answer the question. When we learn more of these details we grow in our faith, and we are able to share our faith with others. When the final history of humankind is written in heaven, it is not just the Acts of the Apostles that will be included, but also our story of how we participated in the salvation of souls. Jesus calls us His own, and sends us forth to share the Good News with others.

Praise the Lord for His salvation,
Fr. Tim Ilgen

DIALOGUE FOR JUSTICE
Catholic Advocacy to Reduce Poverty

"Touch me and see…" (Lk 24:39). Today's Gospel presents us with a very physical reality. Jesus talks about "flesh and bones." He invites his disciples to touch him in order to "see." Jesus asks for something to eat and he is given "a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them." Our senses help us to understand the world. People of faith follow their senses in discovering Christ as they hear the news reporting the suppression of minority communities, touch the hand of someone grieving the death of a family member, see the awful effects of warfare, or smell the odor of a homeless person. Our senses break open the wounds of the world for us to notice. We recall the words of John the Baptist when speaking about Jesus, "He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." As a people "baptized into Christ" (Gal 3:27), we are to carry on the mission of Christ by doing our part to heal our hurting world. This can only be done if we allow God to fill our hearts with compassion. Thomas Merton wrote, "The whole idea of compassion is based on a keen awareness of the interdependence of all living things, which are all part of another, and all involved in one another." May the glorious Eastertide find us open to the urging of the Holy Spirit to hear, touch, see and smell the challenges in our world and respond with compassion.

Linda Cooper at 360-491-0890 Ext. 108 lindac@3hearts.org

3rd Sunday of Easter

During the season of Easter, our readings all come from the New Testament, especially the Acts of the Apostles and the First Letter of John. Today our readings focus on the Peace of Christ. We hear that even big sins can be forgiven when we try hard to follow God's commandments and the loving example of Jesus. In the Gospel, the risen Jesus appears to his disciples and helps them understand what has happened.

Adult Faith Formation

Happy Easter! That's right—Easter is still being celebrated, and is always celebrated in the Church up until Pentecost Sunday.
Please consider joining the RCIA team as a facilitator for children who are between 7-18 years of age. You do not have to be a teacher, only possess the love of Jesus and excitement to share His love with others. Meeting time for class is 1 hour on Sundays. Still want to join our 10-week Adult Faith Formation study, "Jesus: the Way, the Truth, and the Life"? Contact Mrs. Harry at anni@3hearts.org to register.

RCIA

Congratulations to those who have entered into full communion with the Catholic Church during this Easter season! RCIA is switching to a hybrid meeting model, beginning April 25th. Adults will meet upstairs in Hallen Hall at their regular time of 9 AM; children and youth will Zoom. The alternating week, children and youth will be on campus, and adults will Zoom. We enroll RCIA participants year-round. Please inquire with Mrs. Harry at anni@3hearts.org about the steps to proceed forward in your faith journey!

Interested in doing some good for others while getting some exercise in the nice sunshine of spring and summer? Please consider volunteering at the Sacred Heart Community Support Garden (out in the Sacred Heart parking lot). The goal of the garden ministry is to grow fresh, nutrient-rich vegetables to donate to our community members in need. Our vision is informed by a commitment to Catholic social teachings and Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si.
Your assistance will support the donation of healthy produce to the Sacred Heart Food Pantry and the Community Kitchen. Last year, we donated 732 pounds of produce, and we donated ~650 pounds of produce in 2019. With your much-needed and appreciated help, we intend to continue to increase food donations in the community.
Volunteers can participate in every step of the process including the tilling of the soil, planting seeds and starts, weeding and harvesting.
