"Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Messiah and Lord."

~ Luke 2:10

Dear Brother or Sister in Christ,

For the past four weeks we have been preparing once again during this season of Advent for the great celebration of Christmas.

As a child this was one of my favorite times of the year. Memories of Midnight Mass, gathering with family, Grandma's delicious carrot pudding, and attempting to quietly sneak downstairs with my brother to inspect our stockings early on Christmas day bring back immense joy. It was such a fun time of the year and I always hated to see it draw to an end.

Life is filled with transitions. So many of the things that I looked forward to as a child are gone and have given way to new experiences and celebrations. Christmas is still a wonderful time of the year, but the focus has greatly changed for me.

Christmas is a time for us to recognize the depths of God's love for humankind. God made a definitive statement to the world on that cold night so long ago when in the midst of poverty He united Himself to our humanity in a bond that can never be broken. Contemplate for a moment just how vulnerable God became in the baby Jesus. Completely dependent on the love and care of Mary and Joseph, the baby Jesus experienced the joys and sorrows of our humanity. What more could be done to prove God's love for us? God has visited us in Christ and in him we have an eternal wellspring of hope to help us deal with the pain and difficult moments of life.

*In Christ,
Fr. James Northrop
Pastor*
