CANA CORNER

July 25th is the anniversary of the 1968 document *Humanae vitae, in which the Catholic Church reaffirmed its consistent teaching that every marital act must be both unitive and procreative. It teaches that "The sexual activity, in which husband and wife are intimately and chastely united with one another, through which human life is transmitted, is, as the recent Council recalled, "noble and worthy," and that, because of the sacredness and dignity of this act and its purpose for bonding the couple and bringing forth new life, "each and every marital act must of necessity retain its intrinsic relationship to the procreation of human life."

Sterilization and contraception violate the moral order, even if a couple has already been open to life by having other children.

God's grace in the sacrament of marriage can help a couple live out the call to responsible parenthood while respecting the sacredness and integrity of their sexual union. That doesn't mean it's always easy! The cross is part of marriage—but through our crosses, there is also the resurrection.

Would you like help living out your Catholic marriage? Nathan and Sarah Bartel have created an online marriage ministry to help couples living faithfully Catholic and vibrantly joyful marriages—even while carrying their crosses. Come find us at www.canafeast.com

Witness to Love Marriage Preparation

What makes Witness to Love unique is that the engaged couple chooses their own mentor couple. This is a couple they both admire and see as a source of faith formation.

This mentor couple gives them a concrete connection and integration into the parish. Through the sharing of the mentor couples' own marriage journey, the engaged couple inherits a "lifeline" of support in their commitment to Jesus and His Church.
