Dear Parishioners of ICC and SJV,

First of all, I want to say thank you to everyone who assists at our Masses as a Lector, Choir Member, EM, Sacristan, usher or other role. Thank you also to the new people who have recently signed up to help in one of these duties – I couldn't do this without you! It takes each one of us, as the Body of Christ, to fulfill God's mission on earth, and that's why stewardship of time and talent is an essential part of being a disciple. No matter who you are, I know that God wants you to help build His Kingdom through some act of service or volunteering. We still can use more Lectors, Sacristans, Altar Servers, Ushers and Eucharistic Ministers, so if you feel God calling you to serve in this capacity, please reach out to the parish office.

In my continuing effort to serve you and help you deepen your relationship with Jesus, I would like to mention what spiritual ministry is currently available. We have our daily Masses Tues-Fri at 8:30am at ICC. Starting this October, there will be a first Saturday Rosary and Mass beginning at 8:30am at ICC; (Rosary at 8:30 and Mass at 9am). Also in October, first Friday Eucharistic Adoration is returning to ICC from 9am-12pm. I am also always available for private Confessions, Spiritual Direction, or personal counseling if you need it, as I am here to serve you. Please be assured of my prayers, and please continue to pray for me and for more priestly vocations.

Respectfully Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tyler Johnson

Resurrection of the Body

Every Sunday, we proclaim in the Creed that we believe “in the resurrection of the body.” Does that mean Christ’s resurrection or our own? Both! Jesus’ resurrection is part of the work of salvation, but it’s also a sign of what’s to come. While death separates our bodies and our souls, this was not the intention of God when He first created us. It’s an effect of original sin. At the end of time, our bodies and our souls will be reunited.

Scientifically, we may have questions about this, since bodies decompose over the course of centuries. Or what about the saints, whose relics are spread around the earth? How the resurrection will happen is a mystery. But we know that our resurrected body will be our body. If we are in heaven, our body will be in a glorified state. Some theologians speculate what this glorification will be like based on Jesus’ resurrected body. Will we be able to walk through walls? Will we eat, since Jesus broke bread with his disciples? We don’t really know the answers to these questions. We do know, however, that we will be free from the effects of the fall (such as sickness and pain) and physical defects that occurred in life. Christ redeems us as whole persons, body and soul! ©LPi

There are several items in the office that have been left in the church — truck key, house key, earrings, rings. If you have lost something, call Barb in the office.

Blessing of the Pets

Leash up the dog, put the cat in its carrier, and grab the bunny cage! Join us in the parking lot on Sunday, October 3rd at 2 p.m. for our annual blessing of the pets. All animals must be on leash or contained.

Thank you for your generous support last week for the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development! As a parish, we raised $594 to support those on the margins who live in poverty in the United States. If you missed the collection, it’s not too late to give! Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click “How to Give” under “Resources.”

Saints of the Week

What a plethora of saints we have to celebrate the last week of September and first week of October. It is hard to pick just one to feature but St. Vincent de Paul is often overlooked. When young he sought wealth. As time went by, Vincent realized that his focus on wealth and fame had been caused by a poor faith foundation. As a result, he founded an order of priests, the Vincentians, who received thorough training and who pledged to devote their lives to the spiritual and material needs of the poor. Later, along with Louise de Marillac, he founded the Sisters of Charity. He then expanded his work, founding hospitals, orphanages and homes for people who were mentally ill. He also devoted his last years to serving prisoners and slaves, sharing with them his story of hope as a former slave himself. He was very well known throughout Europe in his own time. He died on September 27, 1660, and he was made a saint in 1737.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul was not founded until more than 150 years after St. Vincent’s death. When Frederic Ozanam founded the Society, he named it after St. Vincent de Paul. Ozanam was devoted to St. Vincent, who is the patron saint of charitable societies, and he modeled the Society on his call to “see Christ in the poor and to be Christ to the poor”. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul continue to honor his life and legacy.

Hope and Healing After Abortion

“Find God in all things” - St. Ignatius of Loyola

Yes, in the pain, shame and regret following your loss due to an abortion decision, you can find God as well. He wants nothing more than to hold you in His merciful arms and remind you that He has never stopped loving you and never will.
