From the Desk of Fr. Gary

It has now been one year since public masses were suspended, and schools closed to in-person instruction due to COVID. During this past year over 500,000 people in our country, and more than 2,500,000 worldwide have died of COVID. Those are sobering numbers.

We were able to return to public celebration of the Mass on June 14, with a maximum of 50 people for indoor Mass. That number has gradually increased and we are now able to celebrate Mass with 25% capacity, which is 260 people for us.

Our children at St. Joseph School returned on August 31, for on-line school. After gradual re-opening for in-person learning, our school this past week welcomed back our middle school students for all day, in-person learning four days per week. The week before our elementary age students came back. While some families, because of their particular situation, have chosen to continue on-line learning, every family who wants in-person learning is back at our school four days per week.

This past year has been a very long journey. For those who have lost loved-ones, there is a particular pain and sorrow. We continue to keep those who have died and their family and friends in our prayers. We also pray for those who have suffered the loss of a job and extreme economic hardship.

We are particularly mindful of the most vulnerable among us, here at home and abroad. For homeless people and those who were already living on the edge of poverty, this time has forced them into even more desperate circumstances. For our brothers and sisters in the developing world, this time has been just one more trial for those who already live with so much less than we do.

The good news in all of this is that many people have turned their attention outward, to those who are struggling the most. Giving to local charities, like our St. Vincent de Paul Society, has been a life-line for many of the people in our community. The work of staff and volunteers at St. Vincent de Paul, and at local organizations like SHARE and Council for the Homeless has literally saved lives.

As we look forward with hope to the days and weeks ahead, may we continue to keep the most vulnerable in our prayers. May those prayers lead us all to action on their behalf - advocating for those most at risk: people who are poor, people who are unemployed or underemployed, those who are homeless, brothers and sisters in the developing world, and those who are feeling isolated and alone.

May we see in these persons the face of Jesus, and serve them in and through him.

God Bless,
Fr. Gary Lazzeroni

This week we take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection to help Jesus in disguise. This collection helps six Catholic agencies to provide relief and support for struggling communities and to work for peace and reconciliation among our marginalized brothers and sisters here and around the world. Des de el escritorio del padre Gary

Ha pasado un año desde que se suspendieron las misas públicas y las escuelas cerraron a la en persona instrucción debido a COVID. Durante el año pasado, más de 500.000 personas en nuestro país y más de 2.500.000 en todo el mundo han muerto de COVID. Esos son números aleccionadores.

Pudimos volver a la celebración pública de la misa el 14 de Junio, con un máximo de 50 personas para la misa interior. Ese número ha aumentado gradualmente y ahora podemos celebrar la misa con un 25% de capacidad, que son 260 personas para nosotros.

Nuestros niños en la escuela San José regresaron el 31 de Agosto para la escuela en línea. Después de la gradual apertura para el aprendizaje en persona, nuestra escuela la semana pasada les dio la bienvenida a nuestros estudiantes para que aprendieran en persona durante todo el día, cuatro días a la semana. La semana antes de quenuestrosprimaria regresan estudiantes de. Si bien algunas familias, debido a su situación particular, han optado por Continuar con el aprendizaje en línea, todas las familias que desean aprender en persona están de regreso en nuestra escuela cuatro días a la semana.

El año pasado ha sido un viaje muy largo. Para aquellos que han perdido a sus seres queridos, existe un dolor y una tristeza particulares. Seguimos manteniéndola los que han fallecido y a sus familiares y en nuestras oraciones amigos. También oramos por aquellos que han sufrido la pérdida de un trabajo y extremas dificultades económicas.

Somos especialmente conscientes de los más vulnerables entre nosotros, aquí en casa y en el extranjero. Para las personas sin hogar y aquellos que ya vivían al borde de la pobreza, esta vez los ha llevado a circunstancias aún más desesperadas. Para nuestros hermanos y hermanas del desarrollo del mundo, esta vez ha sido solo una prueba más para aquellos que ya viven con mucho menos que nosotros.

La buena noticia de todo esto es que muchas personas han dirigido su atención hacia afuera, hacia aquellos que están luchando más. Dar a organizaciones benéficas locales, como nuestra Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, ha sido un salvavidas para muchas personas de nuestra comunidad. El trabajo del personal y los voluntarios de St. Vincent de Paul y de organizaciones locales como COMPARTE y Consejo para las Personas sin Hogar estos organizadores literalmente salvan vidas.

Mientras miramos hacia adelante con esperanza los días y semanas venideros, que podamos seguir manteniendo a los más vulnerables en nuestras oraciones. Que esas oraciones nos lleven a todos a actuar en su nombre, abogando por los que están en mayor riesgo: las personas pobres, las personas desempleadas o subempleadas, las personas sin hogar, los hermanos y hermanas del mundo en desarrollo y los que se sienten aislados. y solo. Que podamos ver en estas personas el rostro de Jesús y servirles en él y por él.

Bendiciones de Dios,
Padre Gary Lazzeroni

Esta semana realizaremos The Catholic Relief Services Collection a fin de ayudar a Jesús con otro rostro, ¿le ayudarás? Esta colecta ayuda a seis agencias católicas a brindar alivio y apoyo a las comunidades que luchan por salir adelante y trabajar por la paz y la reconciliación entre nuestras hermanas y hermanos marginados, aquí y alrededor del mundo. Por favor, en oración, consideren la manera de apoyar a esta colecta.
