PASTOR'S CORNER

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

With the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we formally close the Christmas season. The baby Jesus is now a grown up man! He is ready to start his public ministry; ready to begin his long-awaited journey to Jerusalem, where he will manifest and reveal why he came in the first place. The Child-King, who was visited last Sunday by the Magi in the Feast of the Epiphany, is ready to embrace the cross, his salvific throne as King. This is the very reason why the Father is “pleased with him” using the words in the Gospel today.

The baptism of the Lord in the Jordan River was also the beginning of his active public ministry. After baptism, we saw him preaching boldly the Good News, curing the sick, etc. This is also what is expected of us of our baptism. Our baptism carries a huge responsibility of leading a life according to our Christian commitment. The rich and many symbols of the sacrament of baptism start with the asking of the priest for the name of the child which signifies that the person to be baptized is no longer anonymous, he/she cannot live in darkness anymore without a clear identity but is now a child of God. Another powerful symbol in the baptismal rite is the signing of the cross in which the priest says these words, “(name), the Christian community welcomes you with great joy. In its name I claim you for Christ our Savior by the sign of his cross,” which powerfully communicates that we are now of God’s because that sign is an indelible mark of our incorporation to Jesus, and to act otherwise is then to deny our new identity. As baptized, we walk in this world with that invisible sign of the cross on our forehead and that invisible sign is made visible by the way we lead our own lives. How are we living up to our baptismal commitment?

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ESSAY CONTEST

Each year the eighth grade class is given the opportunity to write an essay on a topic concerning the faith. This year's theme is as follows:

Describe obstacles you have experienced or witnessed others experiencing. Explain how you overcame them and how it helped you grow in your faith.

The Knights awarded prizes for the three best essays in the amounts of $75, $50, and $25 respectively.

The winners are listed below. The winning essay contains a situation that may be troubling to some, yet, an issue that is more prevalent than we may realize. I think the essay was well written and describes issues of despair, courage, trust and hope. The youth of our day face many challenges in what should be their days of innocence.

The Knights appreciate all of the time and effort put forth by the school personnel in running a successful essay contest.

Thank you!

When I was eleven years old one of my best friends tried to commit suicide. From the hours of ten PM to three AM in the morning the frantic search was on for a vulnerable and hurt eleven year old girl. This ordeal started at bedtime that night. I had decided to sneak my phone upstairs and even though I disobeyed my parents I'm thankful I did. What started as a light and carefree conversation between two friends slowly started to turn dark and ruinous. As she told me of her feelings I was having a difficult time convincing my friend that suicide was not an option. As I grew more and more concerned I decided to tell my parents. I sat there and listened as they called the police and handled the situation.

As the night went on my concern continued to grow, and for the first time in a long time I prayed. Even though I go to a Catholic school and mass regularly, my connection to God was distant. As I thought about my friend and the hurt that she was going through it scared me. This made me want to reconnect to God and my faith. Sometimes these trying events are the ones that impact us the most, and the ones that bring us closer to God.

Loss is painful, loss happens because we are mortal. When we think about life it should never be about the things we have, but the people we share it with. The loss of a friend is one I never wanted to, or want to experience, and it was that fear that made me want to rekindle my relationship with God. In that moment it was hard to focus on anything but the fear I felt. I froze up and debated with myself whether telling my parents was worth the risk of my friend being mad at me. I didn't know what I would do if she was mad because even though I knew that what I had done was right I couldn't bear the thought of her being mad at me. I had to surrender control and put my fears and hopes into the arms of God. In that moment my connection with God was strengthened. This event caused my faith to grow and persevere through the hardships it was facing and as a result my relationship with God matured.

As I continue to grow in faith I clearly see this experience has affected many aspects of my life profoundly. It shapes my perspective and view of the world. Instead of waking up to another random day I now thank God for each moment. My life is full, and instead of wanting what I don't have I thank God for what I do. I have not yet experienced all that God can show me but I look forward to the days ahead as I know they will be faith filled and full of promise.

This event has shaped who I am as a person and Catholic and whenever I face trials in my faith I try to find the joy in it. I know that no matter what God will always be there for me. Even when I'm mad at him he's always there on the other side of the door waiting patiently for me to open it and embrace him once again. I learned I can always count on God to welcome me back with open arms and that you shouldn't wait until something goes wrong to embrace him. "But Jesus beheld (them), and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible," Matthew 19:26.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus stood in line with everyone else and was baptized. There is something incredibly humbling about how this must have played out. Then, God did something truly awesome and inspiring. Through a very gentle and simple action he let the world know about the special relationship He shares with Jesus. That's exactly what is so incredible about our baptisms as well! Through those holy waters God announces to the world the special place we also occupy in His heart. We no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. We do not need to fumble around, tripping over ourselves and wondering why we are even here. The answer has been given. All we have to do is live out the vocation we have received, to live the Gospel in fidelity to our Creator. There is nothing to fear and worry has no place. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor and God is very pleased.

U.S. Bishops' Pro-Life Chairman Denounces FDA Decision on Chemical Abortion Pill

WASHINGTON - The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) announced they will eliminate the safety requirement of in-person dispensing in the Risk Evaluation Mitigation Strategy (REMS) for the chemical abortion drug mifepristone in response for the diminishing number of doctors who are willing to do abortions. The new protocol expands the use of Mifeprex (morning after pill) to 70 days after conception. The new recommendation also cuts the dosage down to one pill. The FDA's action clears a path for the drug to be dispensed by clinics, medical offices, and hospitals through the use of online pharmacies or drug delivery services. Planned Parenthood doctors can dispense the pill.

Mifeprex blocks the action of progesterone – the natural hormone vital to maintaining the rich nutrient lining of the uterus. As a result, the tiny, developing baby literally starves to death as the nutrient lining of the womb sloughs off.

The new protocol expands the possibility of a failed abortion and/or danger to the woman.

Possible Side Effects of an RU 486 Abortion*

- Nausea, diarrhea, vomiting, dizziness, headache
- Severe cramping
- Incomplete abortion requiring surgical abortion.
- Infection
- Heart palpitations
- Hemorrhage (heavy bleeding)
- Allergic reaction to the medicines.
- Rupture of tubal pregnancy
- Emergency treatment for any of the above problems, including possible need to treat with an operation, medicines, or a blood transfusion.
- Psychological trauma from seeing the baby's body
- Rarely, death (at least 14 women have died since the FDA approved the drug).

In response, Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Pro-Life Activities, issued the following statement:

“Every life is sacred: the lives of mothers and the lives of the unborn. Not only does this decision further the tragic taking of unborn lives but it does little to care for the well-being of women in need. Far from the accompaniment that women in crisis pregnancies deserve, this decision would leave women alone in the midst of trauma, often without any medical attention or follow up care.

“One of the essential tasks of governments is to safeguard the health and well-being of citizens. As such, the FDA ought to act to protect the lives and health of mothers and children, rather than merely succumbing to the abortion industry's pressure to loosen safety standards. “I call on leaders of every level of government to stand with women in need by promoting policies that recognize the value and human dignity of both mother and child, rather than further promoting the devastating tragedy of abortion.” uscbb.org

DEL DIÁCONO BILL

Mis Queridos Hermanos en Cristo:

Con la fiesta que celebramos en la Misa de hoy, EL BAUTISMO DEL SEÑOR, damos fin al tiempo de Navidad y comenzamos lo que se llama en la Iglesia, “TIEMPO ORDINARIO”. Se le denomina “ordinario” no en el sentido de común y sin mayor importancia, sino más bien para distinguirlo de los tiempos especiales tal como el adviento, la cuaresma, la navidad, etc. VERDE es su color litúrgico.

El bautismo de Jesús es muy diferente al nuestro, porque él es EL Hijo de Dios por naturaleza, desde toda la eternidad, y no tiene pecado ni necesidad de ser perdonado. Además, él sabe muy bien su misión de parte del Padre: proclamar por el resto de su vida el Reino de Dios, aceptando las consecuencias de esta misión, incluyendo la muerte en una cruz para nuestra salvación.

La mayoría de nosotros recibimos el bautismo como niños, antes de tener idea de lo que implica (de allí el rol crítico e indispensable de los padres y padrinos). Es solamente después de un largo aprendizaje que empezamos a entender la belleza del regalo recibido y la responsabilidad que trae consigo para testimoniarlo con nuestras vidas. Y, a diferencia de Jesús, llegamos a ser hijos por adopción, y herederos del Reino.

PAREJAS: DESEAN CASARSE EN LA IGLESIA?

Este mes de enero, el lunes 24 a las 7 PM, dará comienzo la siguiente serie de PLATICAS PARA EL MATRIMONIO en el Centro Parroquial.

Si hay parejas que desean prepararse para este sacramento hermoso en la Iglesia, esta es la oportunidad para inscribirse. Lo pueden hacer llamando a la oficina parroquial y haciendo una cita inicial con el Diácono Bill o el Padre Cary. Llamen al 503-644-2619 Ext. 176.

COMENZAMOS LAS CLASES DE CATECISMO

Este pasado miércoles dimos comienzo de nuevo a las clases de preparación para jóvenes y niños para los sacramentos de Primera Confesión (o Reconciliación) y Primera Comunión.

Continuamos con las clases para padres y sus hijos (después del descanso de Navidad) en el programa que concluye a principios de mayo.

CITAS PARA REFLEXIÓN Y ACCIÓN

¡Atentos hijos de Nuestro Rey y Señor Jesucristo! Los templos serán mayormente saqueados ante la rebelión del hombre contra lo que le recuerde: ley, cumplimiento, amor, paz, Fe, moral.

Sean prudentes, que la lengua no sea fuego que incendie todo. Que no sea veneno que de muerte al hermano ... con esa misma lengua oran, bendicen, y adoran a Dios Uno y Trino, a nuestra Reina y Madre de los Últimos Tiempos”.

San Miguel Arcángel a Luz de Maria, enero 1, 2022

ADULTOS: ¿DESEAN PREPARACIÓN PARA LOS SACRAMENTOS?

Si usted es mayor de 18 años y necesita prepararse para recibir los SACRAMENTOS DE CONFESIÓN Y PRIMERA COMUNIÓN, o la CONFIRMACION, tenemos un programa para ayudarle.

Las clases se llevan a cabo los días DOMINGO empezando en septiembre, desde las 12 hasta la 1:30 PM en el Centro Parroquial. Llame a la oficina parroquial para mayores detalles entre 2 y 5 PM lunes a jueves. Si tiene amigos o parientes que podrían aprovechar estas clases, hágales saber del programa. GRACIAS.

¿DESEAN BAUTIZAR A SU HIJO?

Llame a la oficina parroquial (503-644-2619, extensión 161) para averiguar sobre la preparación y los trámites (sencillos) que son necesarios. Elizabeth le ayudará con mucho gusto.

Tenemos PLÁTICAS para padres y padrinos planeadas; la próxima no será hasta marzo 5. Necesitan anotarse en la oficina parroquial primero.

REVELACIONES PRIVADAS

Esta es la designación en la Iglesia de revelaciones del Cielo, comúnmente de la Santísima Virgen, pero en ocasiones de Dios mismo o de algún santo, para ayudarnos en nuestro camino de fe. Su autenticidad (o sea, la verdad que revelan) se verifica por la aprobación de las autoridades de la Iglesia que las investigan y estudian cuidadosamente, por su fidelidad al Magisterio (la enseñanza oficial de la Iglesia), y por el estilo de vida que llevan los que las reciben directamente.

No hay que olvidar que nunca pueden reemplazar los medios fundametales y primordiales que tenemos para alcanzar la salvación: los sacramentos, especialmente la Reconciliación y LA EUCARISTÍA, la Sagrada Escritura, la oración, la conversión, y nuestras enseñanzas magisteriales (como se encuentran, por ejemplo, en el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica).

Bajo estas condiciones, las revelaciones privadas nos pueden ayudar a entender mejor nuestra situación, y caminar con más confianza en Dios.

MENSAJE MARIANO

“¡Queridos hijos!

Que este tiempo sea para ustedes tiempo de oración, para que el Espíritu Santo, a través de la oración, descienda sobre ustedes y les dé la conversión. Abran sus corazones y lean la Sagrada Escritura para que, por medio de los testimonios, también ustedes puedan estar más cerca de Dios. Hijitos, busquen sobre todo a Dios y las cosas de Dios y dejen las terrenales a la tierra, porque Satanás los atrae al polvo y al pecado. Ustedes están llamados a la santidad y han sido creados para el Cielo. Por eso, busquen el Cielo y las cosas celestiales. Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado.”

OREGON REPROUVAILLE

A LIFELINE FOR MARRIED COUPLES

Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage, but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope.

Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples that can help you learn the tools of healthy communication, build intimacy and heal, just as they have done in their own marriages.

For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on January 21-23, 2022, call 1-503-225-9191 or email: portland@retrouvaille.org or visit www.helpourmarriage.org

GOSPEL

Your Dad says, "Wash your hands, please. It is almost time to eat." After you wash your hands really well, your Dad smiles. He says, "That's my boy. You did a good job!" In today's Gospel, it was time for Jesus to be baptized. After his baptism, Jesus talked to God his Father in prayer. Jesus did everything his Father asked. God was happy with his Son and said, "I'm pleased with you."

PRAYER

God, I want to make you and my parents happy.

St. Hilary of Poitiers, Bishop and Doctor of the Church | January 13

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

"The chief service I owe you, O God, is that every thought and word of mine should speak of you."
