Synod on Synodality SUMMARY

Pope Francis has called for an Assembly of the Synod of Bishops in October 2023. An essential part of the preparation for this assembly is the participation of Catholics from around the world. To assist local churches in their response to the Holy Father's call for participation, the Vatican has released two key documents: a Preparatory Document and an official handbook called the Vademecum. This brief summary is intended to present the key points and themes of the Vatican documents, so that we can prepare for this season of discernment and reflect on how Catholics in western Oregon are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

As this is a Synod on Synodality, the Vademecum opens with a definition of synod:

The International Theological Commission (ITC) describes synodality this way: 'Synod' is an ancient and venerable word in the Tradition of the Church, whose meaning draws on the deepest themes of Revelation...It indicates the path along which the People of God walk together. Equally, it refers to the Lord Jesus, who presents Himself as 'the way, the truth and the life', and to the fact that Christians, His followers, were originally called 'followers of the Way'. First and foremost, synodality denotes the particular style that qualifies the life and mission of the Church, expressing her nature as the People of God journeying together and gathering in assembly, summoned by the Lord Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit to proclaim the Gospel. Synodality ought to be expressed in the Church's ordinary way of living and working.

Far from being simply another program or initiative with a completion date, this synodal process reflects the pilgrim nature of the Church, as she moves towards the heavenly Jerusalem (Lumen Gentium, Ch. 7). But we are pilgrims with a proclamation – along the way, we are called to share with others the good news of where the journey is leading: to abundant life in Christ. This is why the documents make it very clear that the synodal process is inseparable from the Church's central mission of evangelization.

“So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones and members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the capstone. Through him the whole structure is held together and grows into a temple sacred in the Lord; in him you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.”

– Ephesians 2:19-22

There are three dimensions of the synod: Communion, Participation and Mission. What follows is a description of each dimension as presented in the Vademecum:

COMMUNION By his gracious will, God gathers us together as diverse peoples of one faith, through the covenant that he offers to his people. The communion we share finds its deepest roots in the love and unity of the Trinity. It is Christ who reconciles us to the Father and unites us with each other in the Holy Spirit. Together, we are inspired by listening to the Word of God, through the living Tradition of the Church, and grounded in the sensus fidei that we share. We all have a role to play in discerning and living out God's call for his people.

PARTICIPATION A call for the involvement of all who belong to the People of God—laity, consecrated and ordained—to engage in the exercise of deep and respectful listening to one another. This listening creates space for us to hear the Holy Spirit together, and guides our aspirations for the Church of the Third Millennium. Participation is based on the fact that all the faithful are qualified and are called to serve one another through the gifts they have each received from the Holy Spirit. In a synodal Church the whole community, in the free and rich diversity of its members, is called together to pray, listen, analyze, dialogue, discern and offer advice on making pastoral decisions which correspond as closely as possible to God's will. Genuine efforts must be made to ensure the inclusion of those at the margins or who feel excluded.

MISSION The Church exists to evangelize. We can never be centered on ourselves. Our mission is to witness the love of God in the midst of the whole human family. This Synodal Process has a deep missionary dimension to it. It is intended to enable the Church to better witness to the Gospel, especially with those who live on the spiritual, social, economic, political, geographical, and existential peripheries of our world. In this way, synodality is a path by which the Church can more fruitfully fulfill her mission of evangelization in the world, as a leaven at the service of the coming of God's kingdom.

The Vademecum also provides a fundamental question to help guide us through these themes and create those environments in which we can be receptive to the Holy Spirit: A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together." How is this "journeying together" happening today in your local Church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journeying together"? The members of the Body of Christ are being asked to recall our experiences, re-read these experiences in greater depth, and then gather the fruits to share, so that we can discern what paths are opening up for our local Church. For the synodal process to be fruitful, any exercise of listening and reflecting must, above all, be "root(ed) in meditation on Scripture, the liturgy, and prayer." How exactly this listening and discernment will look like across the universal Church will vary greatly. The documents present a wide range of possibilities, and it is important to note as well that the process will extend beyond the parish boundaries. But the thread running through all of these efforts is the spirit of authentic fellowship and a faithful openness to the movement of the Holy Spirit. Responding to the Holy Father's invitation will require "creativity and a certain audacity" but we also know that "whoever has ears ought to hear what the Spirit says to the churches." (Rev. 2:29).

To stay informed throughout the synodal process, be sure to visit archdpdx.org/synod for the latest updates.

Prayer for THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

OREGON RIGHT TO LIFE CONFERENCE
Rolling Hills Community Church
March 5, 2022

We have three incredible featured speakers lined up, plus around a dozen breakout sessions covering a wide range of topics from adoption to advance directives.

David Bereit, the co-founder of 40 Days for Life, will be speaking to hundreds of Oregonians at the largest pro-life conference in the Pacific Northwest.

David started and led the global 40 Days for Life movement through its first decade, mobilizing 750,000 volunteers in more than 700 cities across all 50 American states and dozens of nations, whose prayers and efforts have saved 14,643 children's lives, brought 177 workers out of the abortion industry, and closed 96 abortion centers. David recently stepped away from his role as CEO of 40 Days for Life to pray and plan for a new ministry project, which will be announced soon.

Christina Bennett was going to be aborted but a miraculous encounter saved her life moments before the scheduled termination.

Upon discovering this news in college she committed her life to fighting for the ending of abortion. After graduating college with a degree in Business Communications she moved to Washington D.C. to serve as a pro-life prayer missionary at the Justice House of Prayer and later in Atlanta as a missionary at the International House of Prayer Atlanta.

Billy Valentine serves as Vice President of Public Policy for Susan B. Anthony List. In this position, Billy manages the organization's Government Affairs team and programs. This includes managing the organization's team of federal and state lobbyists and setting the organization's policy priorities. He also serves as SBA List's lead liaison with the White House.

Rachel's Vineyard Retreats offer healing to women and men who have been affected by abortion. The retreats offer reconciliation with God and help them to honor the lives of their lost children. A past retreatant stated "I have healed more in one weekend than in 30 years of counseling and was given tools to continue healing. Another said, "I have never felt so loved and forgiven." Another said that "she would encourage anyone who has experienced an abortion to attend the retreat."

Project Aurora collaborates with Mt. Angel in teaching seminarians about the trauma of abortion and how to respond to a person in their roles as priests after their ordination. The Archdiocese has over 40 priests who have attended a Rachel's Vineyard Retreat. One current priest who attended a retreat while in seminary said that It changed him and his priesthood.

Project Aurora is sponsoring 2 retreats this year.

CUMPLIDO

“Hoy mismo se ha
cumplido este pasaje de Escritura que ustedes acaban de oír”.

LUCAS 4, 21

DEL DIÁCONO BILL

Mis Queridos Hermanos en Cristo:

Hoy continuamos leyendo del evangelio de San Lucas (ciclo C) para la segunda parte del pasaje que escuchamos el domingo pasado. Jesús acaba de indicar que la profecía del Profeta Isaías se cumple ese mismo día en su sinagoga de Nazaret. La gente queda asombrada, por un lado, admirando su manera de hablar, pero a la misma vez molestos y llenos de dudas.

La razón es sencilla, pues, convencidos de que conocen y saben todo lo que se puede saber acerca de Jesús y sus orígenes, no pueden creer que él puede ser tan importante ante Dios o tener una misión tan extraordinaria: (“¿No es éste el hijo de José?”). Jesús responde, señalando la raíz de la ceguera del pueblo: “...nadie es profeta en su tierra”.

Y cuando les recalca lo débil que es su fe, se insultan y se llenan de ira contra él, intentando matarlo al tirarlo por un barranco. Jesús no se echa para atrás, sino que se retira de allí y de su presencia y sigue su misión.

PREPARÁNDONOS PARA EL SÍNODO

El Papa Francisco y nuestro arzobispo Alexander han estado invitando-nos a los católicos a preparar el camino al SÍNODO con mucha oración. ¿Qué es un sínodo? En pocas palabras, es un proceso de discernir juntos, en este caso, con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo, las maneras y direcciones en que Dios nos está queriendo dirigir como Iglesia.

¿Cuáles deben ser nuestros objetivos y nuestras metas, individual-mente y como familias y comunidades, para llevar el mensaje de Jesucristo a un mundo que tanto lo necesita? ¿Cómo lo debemos hacer? ¿Qué es lo que más nos puede ayudar a cooperar con esta obra tan urgente de Dios?

Aquí en Santa Cecilia, como en las otras parroquias, tendremos la oportunidad de reunirnos y para orar, discernir y platicar juntos sobre lo que escuchamos en nuestros corazones. Estemos alertas a los detalles...

PAREJAS: DESEAN CASARSE EN LA IGLESIA?

Este próximo mes de febrero, lunes 7 a las 7 PM, dará comienzo la siguiente serie de PLATICAS PARA EL MATRIMONIO en el Centro Parroquial.

Si hay parejas que desean prepararse para este sacramento hermoso en la Iglesia, esta es la oportunidad para inscribirse. Lo pueden hacer llamando a la oficina parroquial y haciendo una cita inicial con el Diácono Bill o el Padre Cary. Llamen al 503-644-2619 Ext. 176.

SAN PABLO Y EL DON SUPREMO

La segunda lectura, tomada de San Pablo, habla de los hermosos dones del Espíritu Santo que Dios derrama sobre su Cuerpo que es la Iglesia. Nos anima a anhelar y a buscar siempre lo mejor, el máximo bien para nosotros y los demás, y NO contentarnos simplemente con hacer el MÍNIMO ESFUERZO en la vida espiritual.

Luego describe precisamente cuál es eso MEJOR, eso que todo lo demás lo sobrepasa. Acentúa lo maravilloso que es admirar dones popularmente reconocidos: hablar bien, entender misterios profundos, conocer mucho de la ciencia, tener fe que puede hasta mover montañas, repartir todo lo que uno tiene a los pobres y necesitados, etc. Todo esto, declara San Pablo NO VALE NADA, si no hay lo más importante de todo, que es AMOR. Si esas cosas no están movidas y motivadas por amor, no tienen valor alguno ante Dios, y no nos pueden ayudar al llegar al Cielo. Sólo el amor tiene esa capacidad de santificarnos, y eso es lo que necesitamos pedirle constantemente a Dios, y luchar por ponerlo en práctica en nuestras vidas.

Con ese amor, lo tenemos todo. Sin ello, no tenemos nada.

CITAS PARA NUESTRA REFLEXIÓN Y ACCIÓN

“La ciencia puede contribuir enormemente para hacer que el mundo y la humanidad sea cada vez más humana. Sin embargo, puede también DESTRUIR a la humanidad y al mundo, a no ser que esté guiada por fuerzas que existen fuera de ella”.

Papa Benedicto XVI, carta encíclica, Spe Salvi, #25.

CLÍNICAS DE VISIÓN Y DENTAL

Los Promotores de Salud de la parroquia estarán coordinando talleres en Santa Cecilia de VISIÓN, y DENTAL. Se llevarán a cabo entre enero y abril del presente con la ayuda de la universidad Pacific University.

Para mayores detalles y para confirmar una cita, puede llamar a Erika Ojeda, promotora de salud de Santa Cecilia. (503-847-7967)

¿DESEAN BAUTIZAR A SU HIJO?

Llame a la oficina parroquial (503-644-2619, extensión 161) para averiguar sobre la preparación y los trámites (sencillos) que son necesarios. Elizabeth le ayudará con mucho gusto.

Tenemos PLÁTICAS para padres y padrinos planeadas; la próxima no será hasta marzo 5. Necesitan anotarse en la oficina parroquial primero.

CONFESIONES EN SANTA CECILIA

Hay 2 horarios para que la gente pueda confesarse, ambos el día SÁBADO. El primer “turno” es de 8:45 hasta 10 AM, en la iglesia. El segundo turno es por la tarde, de 3:30 hasta las 4:40, también en la iglesia.

ADULTOS: ¿DESEAN PREPARACIÓN PARA LOS SACRAMENTOS?

Si usted es mayor de 18 años y necesita prepararse para recibir los SACRAMENTOS DE CONFESIÓN Y PRIMERA COMUNIÓN, o la CONFIRMACION, tenemos un programa para ayudarle.

Las clases se llevan a cabo los días DOMINGO empezando en septiembre, desde las 12 hasta la 1:30 PM en el Centro Parroquial. Llame a la oficina parroquial para mayores detalles entre 2 y 5 PM lunes a jueves. Si tiene amigos o parientes que podrían aprovechar estas clases, hágales saber del programa. GRACIAS.

MENSAJE MARIANO

“¡Queridos hijos!

En este tiempo los invito a la oración, al ayuno y a la renuncia, para que sean más fuertes en la fe. Este es el tiempo del despertar y del renacer. Así como la naturaleza se da, también ustedes, hijitos, piensen en todo lo que han recibido; sean portadores alegres de la paz y del amor para que estén bien en la tierra. Anhelen el cielo, porque en el cielo no hay tristeza ni odio. Por eso, hijitos, decídanse de nuevo por la conversión, y que la santidad reine en su vida.

Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado.” Enero 25, 2021.

Oración por EL SÍNODO SOBRE LA SINODALIDAD

Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo, reunidos en tu nombre.
Tú que eres nuestro verdadero consejero:
ven a nosotros, apóyanos,
entra en nuestros corazones.
Enséñanos el camino,
muéstranos cómo alcanzar la meta.
Impide que perdamos el rumbo
como personas débiles y pecadoras.
No permitas que la ignorancia
nos lleve por falsos caminos.
Concédenos el don del discernimiento,
para que no dejemos que nuestras acciones
se guíen por prejuicios
y falsas consideraciones.
Condúcenos a la unidad en ti,
para que no nos desviemos del camino
de la verdad y la justicia, sino que en nuestro peregrinaje terrenal nos esforcemos por alcanzar la vida eterna.
Esto te lo pedimos a ti,
que obras en todo tiempo y lugar,
en comunión con el Padre y el Hijo
por los siglos de los siglos.
Amén

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA:

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Primera de Corintios y la Corresponsabilidad de las Redes Sociales

“El amor es paciente, el amor es bondadoso...” Por muy familiares que sean estas palabras, nunca parecen desviarse al territorio de volverse triviales o tontas. En su esencia, comunican una verdad sobre nosotros y sobre nuestro Creador que nunca deja de inspirar.

Pero a pesar de que probablemente las hayas escuchado en muchas bodas a lo largo del tiempo, La primera de Corintios no es solo para recién casados. No fue escrita para personas casadas. Es para cada uno de nosotros, en cada estado de vida y cada situación social, en cada país, cultura e idioma en todo el mundo.

Lo que significa que Primera de Corintios es incluso para el mundo en línea. Es para Facebook, Twitter e Instagram y todas las demás plataformas que me estoy olvidando (parece que hay una nueva todos los días, ¿no es así?).

Un sentido de división ya sea enraizado en la política, la cultura o cualquier otra cosa, está creciendo en nuestro mundo, y nunca es más obvio que cuando observamos las interacciones en línea. Después de todo, es mucho más fácil recordar lo que es el amor cuando tenemos ante nosotros un ser humano de carne y hueso. Cuando todo lo que vemos es un avatar o una foto de perfil en una pantalla, especialmente acompañado de una opinión con la que vehementemente no estamos de acuerdo, incluso los cristianos más amorosos pueden tirar Primera de Corintios por la ventana.

Como corresponsables diarios, sabemos que estamos obligados a ser no solo amables sino también agradecidos. Recibimos a los demás, pero también damos gracias por lo que nos brindan, incluso si esa es una oportunidad para "luchar con entusiasmo por los mayores dones espirituales."

Entonces, antes de que publiques algo en línea la próxima vez, te sugiero que leas Primera de Corintios, y recuerdes que, el amor nunca falla.

The Good Samaritan Ministry of St. Cecilia Outreach in San Miguel Amuco, Guerrero, Mexico

The Good Samaritan Ministry of our parish had an outreach to a community that has been displaced because of the violence in the mountainous region. They gave clothes and shoes to families. In these pictures, parents are looking through the clothes and shoes that would fit their children. Children were happy getting new clothes.

These efforts were made possible through the recyclable cans that our parishioners have given.
