Sacramental Marriage Formation for Couples in Civil Unions

It is our goal to walk with and provide formation to couples in civil unions seeking convalidation or to get their marriage blessed in the Catholic Church. This sacramental Marriage formation will be personal, inviting, timely, engaging and allow space for growth. Good marriage formation can provide the foundation for a lifelong, happy and fruitful marriage. For more information, contact Fr. Scheidecker or Kathy Surbrugg at 442-5825

Reminder: the Helena Catholic Women's Conference is fast approaching. It will be held on Friday, April 1st and Saturday, April 2nd at both the Cathedral of St. Helena as well as the Helena Civic Center, respectively. Times and further details will be present in forthcoming bulletin announcements. Please keep an eye out for these. The registration deadline is March 25, 2022.

A WORD ABOUT THE WORD

Trust can sometimes be a difficult word. Many of us have experienced times or situations in our lives where people we trusted have hurt us in some way. This is probably not what you wanted to read right before St. Valentine's Day, but bear with me. In our first reading from Jeremiah, we are told that people we may trust will often disappoint. The great prophet tells us instead to put our total trust in the Lord. He will never fail us and if we do this, we will be like a well planted tree and be able to stand strong. St. Paul reminds us that sometimes as Christians we may face ridicule from those who do not understand or believe in God. I am sure we can all relate to that! It is only through the power and grace of Jesus Christ that we can stand up in a world that often doesn't stand for anything. It will not be easy. Past experience and hurts may hamper us. People we trust may betray us. Yet this is exactly what happened to our Lord. In today's Gospel from St. Luke Our Lord gives the "Sermon of the Plain" and lists some problems we may face. However He tells us that in the end we will be comforted, fed, happy and blessed when we are persecuted for His name sake. We may not feel it at the time, but feelings are fleeting. One thing remains sure, put your trust in God and He will never fail you. He may not always answer in the way you think He should, but His ways are not our ways and He sees the full picture of our lives. So on this day, put your love and trust in Him who knows you best and will not forsake you and that will be the greatest blessing of all. May God richly bless all of you...

VOCATIONS PRAYER

Heavenly Father, please abundantly bless these men who are in formation for the priesthood of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant them gifts of wisdom, knowledge and most of all, generous hearts, that they may be enflamed with love for You and Your Church. Through Christ, Our Lord, Amen.

Treasures from our Tradition: February 14th is the Feast of Saints Cyril & Methodius. Known as the “Apostles to the Slavs”, they prepared slavic liturgical texts and “served as the spiritual bridge between Eastern and Western traditions” according to Pope St. John Paul II. They are thus the patron saints of Czechia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Croatia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, and all of Europe.
