WORD ABOUT THE WORD

This week's readings are full of imagery and evangelization. It is not always easy to share the gospel with others. Many times people put up walls or say things like "you believe what you believe, and I believe what I believe". This makes sharing rather difficult. So what do we do? In our first reading from the book of Acts we see that there are going to be times when people will simply not listen or actively try to sabotage what we are trying to say. This was happening to the Apostles, and so they took their message to the gentiles. (A gentile is anyone who is not Jewish). The gentiles received the message with joy. Sometimes it takes time for someone to come to the Faith. I often think of St. Monica who prayed for her rebellious child for over 30 years. At long last he came to the Faith and became Catholic and one of our greatest Saints. He was the one and only St. Augustine. In our second reading from Revelation John sees those in white robes washed by the blood of the Lamb. These people had endured more than just negative attitudes; these were ones who often laid down their very lives for the Faith. Here is something to consider. The Lamb is also the Shepherd! Isn't that cool! There is something to meditate on. Finally we have the gospel and our blessed Lord telling us that His sheep know His voice.

How do we get to know His voice? We hear it in the scriptures, we can hear it throughout creation, but most of all we hear it in prayer. We all need to pray and to talk to God.

We also need to be quiet and listen to God as He speaks to our souls. It is not enough to read about prayer and meditation and contemplation, that is like reading about swimming. You can read all the books in the world but until you get in the water it won't amount to much. So, this week take some time to pray and listen to the voice of the Shepherd. He will direct the way that you should go...Something to try and by the way, the water is just fine...May God richly bless you always...

Treasures from our Tradition: St. Devota is the patroness of Monaco. It is believed that her martyred body was placed on a ship bound for Africa but landed in the Gaumates, the valley which holds present day Monaco. Monegasques claim it was St. Devota's protection that saved them from a Genoese seige in the 16th Century. Every year on January 26th, a large barque is burned on the beach in her honor.
