WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese.

The Baptism of the Lord January 10, 2021

ON THE COVER "I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." The Baptism of the Lord. East Apse stained glass window, St. James Cathedral, 1994. Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen, artist.

WEEKDAY MASSES OPEN TO THE PUBLIC Each day from Monday through Saturday, an 8:00am Mass is celebrated in the Cathedral. All are welcome to attend without prior registration. On Tuesdays, the 8:00am Mass is followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, concluding with rosary at 12 Noon.

TAKE ANOTHER LOOK AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

You are invited to an online Cathedral program for Catholics who have been away, and are wanting to take another look at their Church. Be part of a small zoom community, ask questions, and learn about changes in the Church. The program begins Monday, January 11, 6:30-8:00 pm, and runs for six Monday nights. Information, Rosanne Michaels, rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

FRATELLI TUTTI: ON FRATERNITY AND SOCIAL FRIENDSHIP In October, Pope Francis released Fratelli Tutti, an encyclical which calls us to live out our Christian duty to see the face of Jesus in our neighbors, recognizing everyone we meet as a brother or sister. On Monday, January 11 at 6:30pm, Judy Mayotte, a scholar and Cathedral parishioner, will speak on Fratelli Tutti's call to restore humanity's fraternal bond, that we are all sisters and brothers. The following week, a 4-week small group program will begin, for Cathedral parishioners to read, discuss and pray with this important teaching on human solidarity and friendship. Registration and information, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

FAITH AND RACIAL HEALING Mondays, 6:30pm-9pm starting on January 18, 2021. Through new learning from articles, videos, and resource books, the Faith and Racial Justice small group program from JustFaith Ministries lends new insights to participants' awareness of privilege and racism. By encouraging new spiritual practices and informed action, it cultivates an expanding community of Christians who work to dismantle racism in their respective contexts. This process will challenge your own thinking about racism, its causes, and its impact, while helping you discern practical steps to address it. Information and registration, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of Holy Redeemer in Vancouver and Sacred Heart in LaConner.

Sacrificial Sunday Giving

Thanks to all who have made your pledge for 2021 and a quick reminder to all that this is the time we think about how we will support the Cathedral parish in the coming year.

Your financial support is absolutely essential to make possible not only the celebration of the Church's liturgy, but also our many arts, outreach, and education programs throughout the year.

If you have not yet done so, please drop your pledge card in the mail today, or go online to make your commitment. Thank you so much for your generous response and for all you do to make this parish the wonderful place it is!

OUTREACH OPPORTUNITIES DURING THE PANDEMIC Catholic Community Services/Catholic Housing Services (CCS/CHS) has asked the Cathedral to provide meals for their day centers and shelters. Unopened store-bought casseroles and unopened sandwich-ingredients (bread, deli meat, vegetables and condiments) are greatly appreciated. In addition, toiletries (toothpaste, toothbrushes, soaps and shampoos, feminine hygiene products), canned ready-to-eat meals (ie soup or chili), cup of noodles, easy mac & cheese, K-cup coffee, cocoa and tea, individual servings of chips, crackers, granola bars and cereals have been requested. Deliver food to Cathedral Hall (803 Terry Ave.), Tuesdays, 9am to 11am. Information, Patrick Barredo, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

OUTREACH AND ADVOCACY NEWSLETTER Learn about upcoming events and opportunities as well as stay informed on Catholic social teaching by receiving this twice-monthly newsletter. Subscribe, outreach@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL IS HIRING AN ASSISTANT FOR SOCIAL OUTREACH AND ADVOCACY The incumbent will provide support for the Cathedral's ministries for the poor and underserved, with a particular focus during the pandemic on meal programs and care for creation. This is a 25-29 hour/week position, non-exempt. To receive a job description and details, interested applicants should download the Seattle Archdiocesan Job Application and send it with a resume, via e-mail, to Patrick Barredo, Director of Social Outreach and Advocacy, 206-619-2879, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A young survivor of domestic violence left her family in another state in hopes of starting a new life in Seattle. She found work in a restaurant but soon lost her job when the pandemic forced her employer to lay off multiple employees. Overwhelmed by all she had suffered and lost at such a young age, she was in tears when we answered her call for help. We did our best to comfort her. Then we paid enough on her rent to keep her housed while she continued to look for work, and we referred her to other possible sources of help with food, utility bills and other necessities of life. Your financial support and your prayers of support make our outreach ministry possible - thank you! Information, Jo Ann Wiesner, 206-291-4012 or wiesnerjo@gmail.com.

FRATELLI TUTTI

On Fraternity and Social Friendship

"To see the earth as it truly is, small and blue and beautiful in that eternal silence where it floats, is to see ourselves as riders on the earth together, brothers [and sisters] on that bright loveliness in the eternal cold -- brothers [and sisters] who know now they are truly [family]."

– Archibald MacLeish

GO DEEPER AND WIDER WITH POPE FRANCIS' THIRD ENCYCLICAL, FRATELLI TUTTI!

WE ARE ALL SISTERS AND BROTHERS

January 11, 2021, 6:30pm – 7:30pm (ZOOM)

DR. JUDY MAYOTTE, MacArthur grant recipient, humanitarian and Cathedral parishioner, will speak on Fratelli Tutti's call to restore humanity's fraternal bond, that we are all sisters and brothers dwelling together on the Earth, our common home. We are called to hear the cry of the poor, our brothers and sisters. We also are called to hear the cry of the Earth, which sustains us and gives us life. Dr. Mayotte's reading of the Pope's encyclical includes a consideration of what walls we build within ourselves, and what structural walls we (as a people) have constructed. Following her presentation, there will be a period for discussion.

FRATELLI TUTTI STUDY GROUPS Starting the week of January 17

Cathedral parishioners are invited to join a 4-week, small group program on Zoom to read, discuss and pray with Fratelli Tutti, with a particular focus on the importance of human solidarity and friendship. You are welcome to participate in one of these small groups: Tuesdays, 2pm-3.30pm, Wednesdays, 6:30pm-8pm, and Thursdays, 6:30pm-8pm. Two books will be needed: Fratelli Tutti and Bill Huebsch's On Fraternity and Social Friendship: Group Reading Guide to Pope Francis' Fratelli Tutti. Both are available in the Cathedral Bookstore.

To register and to receive information, Patrick Barredo, Director of Social Outreach and Advocacy, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org

Take another look

The program will begin Monday, January 11, and will run for six Monday evenings, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm on Zoom.

This is an opportunity to gather with other Catholics who have been away from active participation in the Church.

These sessions will offer opportunity to experience community, to learn about changes to the Church, ask questions, and perhaps to once again become part of your faith community..

If you have questions, or would like to sign up, contact Rosanne Michaels, rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org, or 206-790-1519.

Grief Support Group

Tuesdays, January 26—March 16, 2021
6:30pm-8:00pm, on ZOOM

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Nancy Granger and Rosanne Michaels

*Information and registration, Rosanne Michaels, 206-790-1519

The Eucharist is both human and divine, earthly and heavenly.

There is something cosmic about the Eucharist. “Even when it is celebrated on the humble altar of a country church, the Eucharist is always in some way celebrated on the altar of the world. It unites heaven and earth. It embraces and permeates all creation” (Pope St. John Paul II). The Eucharist is both human and divine, earthly and heavenly. In the Eucharist, as in the Incarnation, earth and heaven meet: “Joined to the incarnate Son, present in the Eucharist, the whole cosmos gives thanks to God. Indeed the Eucharist is itself an act of cosmic love” (Pope Francis).

The Eucharist strengthens our interior life, while transporting us beyond ourselves into a profound relationship with the Lord. This heavenly food fortifies us for this earthly pilgrimage until we find our true home in heaven.... There is nothing else like the Eucharist on earth: Comparisons cannot do it justice! This is food and drink, but different from any other food and drink. This is a shared meal, but different from any other meal. In the Eucharist, God takes the humblest of our earthly offerings — bread and wine — and transforms them into something extraordinary, the very Body and Blood of Christ. In the presence of this awesome mystery, all we can do is humbly approach the Lord to receive what he desires to give us.

Cardinal Nguyen Van Thuan on the Eucharist

When I was arrested, I had to leave immediately, with empty hands. The next day I was allowed to request in writing the things I needed most: clothes, toothpaste.... I wrote, “Please, could you send me a bit of medicine for my bad stomach?” The faithful understand what I meant and they sent a little bottle of wine for Mass, which they labeled “stomach medicine,” as well as some hosts sealed in a flashlight to protect them from humidity. The police asked me: “Do you have a bad stomach?” “Yes,” I answered. “Here’s some medicine for you.” I will never be able to express my immense joy: every day, with three drops of wine and one drop of water in the palm of my hand, I celebrated my Mass.

Cardinal Francis Xavier
Nguyen Van Thuan
(1928-2002)

For Reflection

What does it mean to describe the Eucharist as “cosmic”? Have I experienced this in my own celebrations of the Eucharist?

Earth and heaven meet in the celebration of the Mass. Where do I hear/see/feel/taste this meeting when I go to Mass?
