FROM THE PASTOR

As you may or may not know, the school Auction and Fundraiser was held last week. Part of the auction was a money raiser for the school. The Committee and Rosemary Leifer decided this year to have Fund an Item a scholarship in my name. I consented since it would help a number of families who cannot afford the full tuition to the school. I had no idea how much would be raised since this is the first time that something like this would be tried. Usually, it is a fundraiser for some item for the school to help support the functioning at the school. Last year it was getting a computerized locking system for all the doors of the school. I was totally surprised when I was told that Scholarship fund collected a total of $71,000.00. Thank you to all who contributed to make this happen. Hopefully, this will help those families who are struggling to continue to attend St. Francis School. It is a gift that can keep on giving for a while. At least I hope it lasts for a little while.

In the Peace of Jesus,
Fr. Dick

INTERIM PRINCIPAL ANNOUNCEMENT

As we bid farewell to the 2023-2024 school year and our beloved Rosemary Leifer, Father Dick is pleased to announce the arrival of Nancy Bradish as the Interim Principal for the St. Francis of Assisi School for the 2024-2025 school year. The search for a permanent principal will resume in the Fall. We are enormously grateful for Nancy's willingness to step into this interim role and guide our school during this transition. Nancy joins STFOA with a wealth of experience, knowledge and passion for Catholic education. Most recently Nancy was at Bishop Blanchet High School as a Learning Research Specialist. She has extensive experience with bilingual, gifted, and special education programs. Prior to that Nancy was the Principal at Kennedy Catholic High School where she was in charge of academic instruction. Earlier in her career Nancy was also the principal of a large (1000+) elementary school located in the Midwest. There she successfully implemented the Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) system.

Please join us in welcoming Nancy as we offer her our prayers of support and cooperation as our new Interim Principal!

STEWARDSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION

John Eisen | jeisen@stfoa-parish.org

Annual Catholic Appeal Goal: $114,800. 106 families have pledged about $35,000. We have a way to go, but with your help we can reach our goal.

Rectory update: The cost to add air conditioning to the three priests' living quarters is just over $60,000 which includes the electrical work. Three heat pumps will be attached on the north side of the rectory, just above the garage roof. Funds in our building fund will be used for this work.

Seeking a Landscaper: Dan Payne has been mowing the lawns. The garden beds need weeding. We are looking to hire a landscaper to keep our grounds looking their best.

The July 2023 through April 2024 Financial Report to the finance council showed that the total revenue exceeded all expenditures by $31,463.

Safe Environment Program

(SEP) Requirements: Every year the parish submits a report about the status of all employees and active volunteers. To stay in good standing; conduct policies are signed, background checks every three years, and ongoing training / education about keeping vulnerable adults and children safe. If anyone is not current, they are made inactive until they can catch up.

FAITH FORMATION

Cheryl Brooten | cbrooten@stfoa-parish.org

The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity

The church calendar is studded with various solemnities intended to draw our attention to essential aspects of Catholic belief. This Sunday, we are being invited to rejoice in and acknowledge the revelation of God as a trinity of persons. Using the calendar as a pedagogical tool is a brilliant means of reminding the faithful of what we believe, annually drawing our attention to various key events in salvation history and the lives of various saints. Each year, the doctrine of the Trinity is proclaimed, which helps deepen our understanding in one of the key mysteries of our faith.

Lest we forget, the idea of a Trinitarian God is a distinctly Christian concept and would have been heretical to first century Jews. One of the core foundations of Jewish faith is recited in the Shema, a daily prayer recited by Jews, "Hear O Israel, the Lord is our God, the Lord is one." If the Lord is one, how can there be God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit? Retaining the firm belief in one God was critical, but how to incorporate these three separate identities revealed by Jesus posed great difficulties! Yet, the Christian experiences of God mediated by Jesus and the coming of the Holy Spirit could not be denied. The great controversies of the early church simmered around how best to describe the Trinitarian nature of God. The Nicene Creed we currently recite is the description we maintain.

While we have verbiage around what we mean when we talk about God as three persons but one nature, most of us scratch our heads and say, "Well, if you say so." None of our explanations fully describe the mystery that is God. "The infinite nature of God is never going to be exhaustively contained in the finite categories of human thought." Still, we are not without a good deal of information we can claim as well attested over the centuries since Jesus walked this earth. The coming of the Holy Spirit is undeniably an expression of God which turned the world upside down. The life, death, and resurrection of Jesus left his followers stating, "Jesus is Lord", a.k.a. God. God the Father, creator of heaven and earth, was a primary focus of worship by Jesus himself. Just because we cannot fully explain it does not diminish the reality or importance of our understanding of the Trinity. Glory be to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen!

Quote from John Polkinghorne, "Exploring Reality," Yale University Press: New Haven, CT, 2005.

CATECHISM NOTES

Catherine Szeibert | cszeibert@stfoa-parish.org

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of Christian life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit" (CCC 261). The Father, Son and Holy Spirit form a mystical, unique relationship! The three work together in love. God the Father loves his beloved Son Jesus, Jesus loves His Father so much that He fulfilled his will by offering his life as a sacrifice, and the Holy Spirit is the love between them.

Families are called to mirror this Trinitarian relationship. The Catechism says, "The Christian family constitutes a specific revelation and realization of ecclesial communion, and for this reason it can and should be called a domestic church. It is a community of faith, hope, and charity...The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit" (CCC 2204-2205).

Let us ask the Holy Trinity-- the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, to teach us how to love! Also, let us ask for comfort and courage during the times we fall short. Holy Spirit, you promised to be with us until the end of time. We believe in your promise and pray that your assistance be with us daily. Come Holy Spirit, renew our hearts. Amen!

LITURGY

Kathi Swan | kswan@stfoa-parish.org

The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity is celebrated on the Sunday following Pentecost Sunday.

The Holy Trinity is the mystery of one God in three divine persons. It is also the central mystery of our Catholic faith and life.

As Catholics, we believe in one God, but we believe that He exists in "three persons." They are: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

Prayer Most Holy Trinity

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
I worship You with profound love and adoration. I bow down before Your greatness and perfect holiness. You are the one God in three persons.
I give to You my life, all that I am and all that I will be.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Your son, who lives and reigns forever and ever.
Amen

What is the difference between a Feast Day and Solemnity?

I've always been curious about this, and thought that I should probably know. Well, guess what? I wasn't sure. So I did some homework.

Solemnities are like Sundays, they are all obligatory. Feasts are the next rank down and identified in my homework as such.

They consist of the celebration of certain Saints such as the Feast of the Archangels or most of the Feasts of the Apostles. The Gloria is sung on these days. The Creed is not recited.

Special Thanks & Recognition

Our Secret Gardener - For the beautiful floral changes that happen in our courtyard.

Molly Connelly - For her faithful watering and tending to our church flowers. Easter flowers were a big task to keep happy and healthy. Thank you to Sarah, her precious daughter too.

Sacristans - Daily and weekend Sacristans arrive an hour early to open the church and set up for Mass: make sure the doors are unlocked, the elevator is unlocked, open the windows if it's hot in the church, turn on the lights and then prepare for the Mass. They also change out the 4 hour candles in our Mary and Saints Alcoves. Soonie Park serves 3 days a week. Thank you all for your generous and most gracious support. You are so generous and greatly appreciated.

Funeral Reception Volunteers - This ministry is such a blessing for our church, community and those families that we serve. They arrive 2 hours before the funeral reception; organize, set up, serve and provide such compassionate and loving care for our funeral families.

Lectors - We are extremely blessed to enjoy and appreciate our fabulous lectors. Those who proclaim the word of God from the Ambo. We have weekday Lectors and weekend Lectors. They prepare for the day that they read. They also read the Ambo announcements and the Intercessory Prayers.

Ushers - They are those individuals who decide and invite those to bring up the gifts of bread and wine. They are instrumental in collecting the donations from parishioners and the bring up the offering and our books of prayer requests and place them in front of the altar.

Hospitality Ministers - We like to have two Hospitality Ministers at each weekend Mass. We are currently seeking volunteers who might want to assist in this area. Our Hospitality ministers welcome our parishioners as they come into Mass; offer them a missal, offer children's liturgy of the word and following Mass, the weekly bulletin.

Environmental Design Volunteers - These ladies and gentlemen are always busy changing out the environment of the church; changing out altar colors, linens, banners, flowers, as our literature and liturgical seasons change. They are like happy bees around a bee hive when they come together to serve. It's a beautiful blessing for sure.

Altar Servers - These dedicated parishioners serve the altar during our weekend Masses and funeral Masses. Their gift of altar serving is so important. They are serving God, Father and our parish families. They are a gift and a blessing, each one of them.

Blessings, peace and love for your week.

LIFE JUSTICE PEACE

Allen Tlusty | stfoa.ljp@gmail.com

May 30th, Memorial Day in the U.S., is also the anniversary of the death of St. Joan of Arc, who was burnt at the stake on May 30th, 1431. Our book club, moderated by Aaron Walsh, and, which meets every fourth Tuesday, has us reading St. Joan of Arc by Mark Twain.

The official history of Memorial Day was borne out of the Civil War with a desire to honor those who had died in their service. On May 5th, 1868 General John Logan, proclaimed in his General Order 11, "May 30th, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and whose bodies now lie in almost every city, village and hamlet churchyard in the land." The General called it Decoration Day.

On the first Decoration Day, 5,000 participants decorated the graves of 20,000 Union and Confederate soldiers buried at Arlington Cemetery. Differently, the South refused to acknowledge the day and honored their dead on separate days. This went on until after WW I when the holiday changed from honoring just those who died fighting in the Civil War to honoring Americans who died fighting in all of America's wars, and then established as a national holiday.

In 1915, inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields," Moina Michael replied with her own poem:

We cherish too, the Poppy red, That grows on fields where valor led.

It seems to signal to the skies, That blood of heroes never dies.

She was the first to wear and sell red poppies as a symbol of Remembrance. The money from her sales went to benefit servicemen.

Later, a Madam Guerin from France was visiting the United States and observed the custom started by Ms. Michael. She returned to France, started the Franco-American Children's League, made and sold artificial red poppies to raise money for war orphaned and widowed women. The League disbanded a year later, and Madam Guerin approached the VFW for help.

In 1922 the VFW became the first veterans' organization to nationally sell poppies. Two years later their "Buddy" Poppy program was selling artificial poppies made by disabled veterans. In 1948 the US Post Office honored Ms. Michael for her role in founding the National Poppy movement by issuing a red 3 cent postage stamp.

In 1971, Congress passed the Uniform Holiday Act and established that Memorial Day to be commemorated on the last Monday of May. Each year at Arlington National Cemetery, a small American flag is placed on each grave. Traditionally, the President or Vice President lays a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

In Dec. 2000, Congress passed a resolution titled "National Moment of Remembrance." It asks that at 3 p.m. local time, Americans "voluntarily and informally observe in our own way, a Moment of remembrance and respect, pausing whatever we are doing for a moment of silence.

Every Little Bit Can Help

Every Little Bit Can Help (ELBCH) is a ministry based at St. Francis of Assisi with an operation that extends beyond parish boundaries. We help our clients create a home using donated furniture and household goods provided for free. We began at St. Martin de Pores shelter, helping men emerging from homelessness, but now will help anyone making a similar life transition. Our clients are referred to us by Catholic Community Services, St. Vincent de Paul parish conferences, as well as by word of mouth. In a busy month, we help 6-8 households. Whether providing a replacement for a worn-out recliner or furnishing an entire apartment, our aim is to quickly deliver items to fill each client's particular need.

ELBCH accepts new or lightly used furniture, small appliances, kitchen/dining wares, and other household items. Think "What would I need?" if I was moving into an empty studio or 1-bedroom apartment.

Please call to discuss/schedule a donation pick-up. If you are able, a small donation of $25 is suggested to cover the expenses of pick-up and storage.

CONTACT: Email ELBCHelp@gmail.com or text (or call) Mark Smith at 206-291-8083 regarding donations, for more information about ELBCH or to volunteer.
