"The Cross had asked the questions; the Resurrection had answered them...The Cross had asked: "Why does God permit evil and sin to nail Justice to a tree?" The Resurrection answered: "That sin, having done its worst, might exhaust itself and this be overcome by Love that is stronger than either sin or death."

~Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Sunday Reflection:

APRIL 17/18, 2021

"A connection can be traced to after the Resurrection when Jesus appeared to the Apostles "and they recognized him in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 24). When we receive Communion, we are participating in the sharing of the bread from Elijah, through Jesus and continuing through the centuries. When we break bread, we are strengthening our connection with our community of believers as well as with the Lord Jesus Christ.

Catholic Kids Corner

How can you show Jesus' endless mercy to others this week?

Quote from the Catechism

"Christ's Resurrection was not a return to earthly life, as was the case with the raisings from the dead that he had performed before Easter... Christ's Resurrection is essentially different. In his risen body he passes from the state of death to another life beyond time and space. At Jesus' Resurrection, his body is filled with the power of the Holy Spirit: he shares the divine life in his glorious state, so that St. Paul can say that Christ is 'the man of heaven'."

-Catechism of the Catholic Church, 646
