Sunday Reflection:

O precious and wonderful banquet that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this?

~St. Thomas Aquinas

Ministry Spotlight

Ecumenical Food Kitchen

For 26 years, St. Thomas Parish has worked with nine other churches to provide a Thursday noon meal for our vulnerable neighbors in Coeur d'Alene. The lunches are offered at First Presbyterian Church. About 30 people are served each week.

St. Thomas' next turn to provide a noon meal is August 26. Look for an announcement and a sign-up board at the back of church about a week before the lunch.

For more info, contact Cindy Algeo at 509-951-1883.

Quote from the Catechism

The first announcement of the Eucharist divided the disciples, just as the announcement of the Passion scandalized them: "This is a hard saying; who can listen to it?" (Jn 6:60). The Eucharist and the Cross are stumbling blocks. It is the same mystery and it never ceases to be an occasion of division. "Will you also go away?"(Jn 6:67): the Lord's question echoes through the ages, as a loving invitation to discover that only he has "the words of eternal life" (Jn 6:68) and that to receive in faith the gift of his Eucharist is to receive the Lord himself.

-Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1336
