All Soul's Day

All Soul's Day is a Roman Catholic day of remembrance for friends and loved ones who have passed away. The day purposely follows All Saint's Day in order to shift the focus from those in heaven to those in purgatory. It is celebrated with masses and festivities in honor of the dead. While the Feast of All Saints is a day to remember the glories of Heaven and those there, the Feast of All Souls reminds us of our obligations to live holy lives and that there will be purification of the souls of those destined for Heaven.

The Christian holiday of All Soul's Day pays respect and remembers the souls of all friends and loved ones who have died and gone to heaven. The living pray on behalf of Christians who are in purgatory, the state in the afterlife where souls are purified before proceeding to heaven. Souls in purgatory, who are members of the church just like living Christians, must suffer so that they can be purged of their sins. It is a time to pray for their souls that they may be received into heaven.

Upon death, it is believed that souls have not yet been cleansed of sin. Praying for souls of loved ones helps to remove the stain of sin, and allow the souls to enter the pearly gates of heaven. Through prayer and good works, living members of the church may help their departed friends and family. There are three Requiem Masses that are said by the clergy to assist the souls from Purgatory to Heaven: one for the celebrant, one for the departed, and one for the pope.

The traditions of the Feast of All Souls began independently of the Feast of All Saints. The Feast of All Souls owes its beginning to seventh century monks who decided to offer the mass on the day after Pentecost for their deceased community members. In the late tenth century, the Benedictine monastery in Cluny chose to move their mass for their dead to November 2, the day after the Feast of all Saints. This custom spread and in the thirteenth century, Rome put the feast on the calendar of the entire Church. The date remained November 2 so that all in the Communion of the Saints might be celebrated together.

“Father, thank you for the death of your Son, Jesus. Thank you for holding me and all of my loved ones in your hands. Fill me today with more of your love, with hope in Christ’s death and resurrection, and with faith in your will for my life.”

November 7, 2021~ 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 17:10-16--The widow made a little cake from her flour and gave it to Elijah. Psalm 146--“Praise the Lord, my soul.” Hebrews 9:24-28--Christ was offered once to take the sins of many. Mark 12:38-44--This poor widow put in more than all the others.
The readings today focus on two women whose powerful faith sustains them in their grief. Though we know very little about their backgrounds, both women are widows, so they have lost their husbands, bringing both emotional and financial pain. One widow has no food but a handful of flour and a little oil. The other has no money but two small coins. Yet each is willing to offer what little she has to God’s work. The sacrifice each makes portends the sacrifice Christ himself makes on the cross for us all.

PARISH NEWS

Message from Archbishop Etienne-"We all have an obligation to love our neighbor, to protect our health and to protect the health of others." Masks are to be worn during all indoor Masses and while inside any building on a parish campus at this time. THANK YOU for wearing your mask properly!

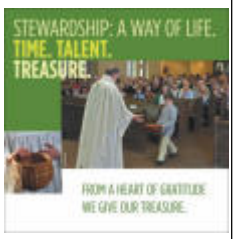
PARISH Stewardship Renewal 2021/2022 -Everything we have is a gift from God and our faith filled response is to share these gifts with others. This is stewardship. It's how we give back. It's how we spend our time, our energy, our thoughts and so much more. While stewardship is often equated to money, we are more than the sum of our material value. Stewardship is a way of life. On November 6/7 we will be hearing from one of our parishioners about how God has blessed him and his family and what Stewardship means to them. Please prayerfully consider how you will respond to the call for this year's parish stewardship, which supports our parish and our ministries. Return your stewardship flyer of Time, Talent, & Treasure through the collection basket, mail or drop by the office.



COATS FOR KIDS annual campaign is underway! The Knights of Columbus will be accepting cash donations following Mass for the next 2 weekends. The coats will benefit children from our church communities. Thank you for your support!

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 7-13, 2021. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of a vocation. If you have questions about your vocation, please contact Fr. Justin Ryan in the Office of Vocations at justin.ryan@seattlearch.orgor 206-507-4476. Visit us at www.seattlevocations.com for more information, or on social media@seattlevocations.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

THANK YOU for your generous response to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. Our parish raised $1,516.00. You may stay connected year-round to the Pope's missions, continuing the commitment of World Mission Sunday, by visiting MISSIO.org.

Thank you for your generosity!

ALL SAINTS DAY is Monday, November 1st. Although it is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, you can still attend the Monday, 9:00 AM daily Mass at St. Joseph Mission in Kalama and give thanks to God for the Saints. Before a potential saint is canonized, this holy person is beatified, at which point he or she is formally known as Blessed. Check out: https://www.usccb.org/offices/public-affairs/saint to learn more about saints.
REMEMBER and PRAY for all of your deceased loved ones at the Tuesday, November 2nd (All Souls' Day) daily Mass at St. Mary of Guadalupe, Ridgefield at 6:00 PM. All Souls Day boxes are available to put the names of your deceased loved ones into during the month of November.
PLEASE pray for & support all of our many parishioners who are currently enrolled in faith formation classes.
DAYLIGHT Saving Time Ends on Sunday, November 7th at 2:00 AM. Remember to FALL BACK one hour.
