VIRTUE OF THE MONTH

— MERCY —
Caring for those who suffer

Saint of the Week: Saint Faustina
Feast Day: October 5

Saint Faustina grew up in a big family in Poland and joined the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy when she was a young woman. She was always mindful of how others suffered and wanted to help them. She offered many sacrifices, sufferings, and prayers for souls who needed God’s mercy. Many times she did not know the souls for whom she was suffering.

On February 22, 1931, Our Lord appeared to Saint Faustina in a vision and instructed her to paint Him as He appeared to her and include the motto “Jesus, I trust in you.” He wanted her to proclaim the message of His mercy- Divine Mercy- to the whole world, which she faithfully did until her death.

Do you wonder how we can pray and work for justice in the hope of ending the sin of racism in the United States (CCC1935)? Listening to how others have experienced social structures of racism in their lives is a good beginning, so all are invited to an evening of listening and discussion about racial injustice in the U.S.
