VIRTUE OF THE MONTH

— MERCY —

Caring for those who suffer

Saint of the Week: Saint Mother Teresa

Feast Day: September 5

Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu was born in Albania and left home at the age of 18 to join the Sisters of Loreto as a missionary. By 1929, she was assigned to a girls school in Calcutta, India where she spent many happy years teaching.

In 1946 she experienced an encounter with Christ that led her to dedicate her life serving the poorest of the poor in imitation of the mercy of Jesus. With permission, she left her religious community, trading the habit of the Sister of Loreto for a plain white sari bordered with blue. Very soon, young Indian women came to join her, including some of her former students, and her new community became known as the Missionaries of Charity. Throughout the remainder of her life, Mother Teresa and her Missionaries of Charity would spread the mercy of Christ throughout the world, attending to the needs of the most abandoned and neglected of our brothers and sisters.

Where Are They Now?

We’re catching up with some of our past Missionaries who served a year (or two!) here at Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish. Learn what our Missionary Alumni are up to today and continue to keep them in your prayers! Up next is Ronan Ostendorf!

Salutations!

What’s up, friends? It’s been a while since I left Star back in June. A month or two after I returned in glory to the East, I joined St. Joseph’s College Seminary in the Charlotte Diocese. That’s the last thing I remember.

The rest is an amalgamation of blurry images of Latin and Theology and epic feasts. Just kidding! It has been very eventful, however.

Getting used to living in a small red castle with 27 brothers and God who stays in the chapel in the Tabernacle down the hall, is not an easy (albeit extremely rewarding) task. It is a very academically, socially, and spiritually rigorous environment, in which we are deeply challenged to become the holy men God wants us to be. It’s tough in the best way possible. I’m very very grateful to be discerning my vocation at St. Joseph’s.

Alright! I could keep going on about various details, but that would be tedious for everyone. Pray for me! I’ll pray for all of you at Star during Lent. Thank you all for being faithful witnesses to Christ. Keep it up.

In pace Christi Regi,
-Ronan Ostendorf

PARISH LIFE

Do you wonder how we can pray and work for justice in the hope of ending the sin of racism in the United States (CCC1935)? Listening to how others have experienced social structures of racism in their lives is a good beginning, so all are invited to an evening of listening and discussion about racial injustice in the U.S.

Saturday, March 27 @ 6:30-8:00pm in Camerman Hall.
Light snacks and refreshment will be provided. For more information, contact Gabriel Crawford: gabriellmcrawford@gmail.com

We entrust Your priests to the Immaculate Heart of Mary!
Come pray for Priests and vocations to the priesthood!
