CATHOLIC LIBERAL EDUCATION IN ACTION

Within our PreK-4 program, Kim Bennett (Ms. Kim) incorporates the use of scales as students discovered the concept of more and less through weighing various items. ## VIRTUE OF THE MONTH

— CHEERFULNESS —

Looking on the bright side

Saint of the Week: Saint Philip Neri

Feast Day: May 26

Philip Neri was known as "Pippo buona," or "good little Phil," because he was a cheerful, thoughtful boy and well-liked. Philip's cheerfulness helped others remain hopeful and faithful. When he was a young man and was about to move away from home, it was his cheerfulness and faith that gave his sisters hope that everything would be alright, even with him leaving.

As an adult, he used his sense of humor and his friendliness to gain the attention of passersby and helped them give up their careless ways of life to follow Christ. Philip inspired his friends to serve the sick in the hospitals and to pray. His heart burned and expanded with love to God and others. He often asked, "Well, brothers, when shall we begin to go good?"

In 1551 he was ordained a priest. He often heard Confessions, and helped many people with his wisdom, warmth, and compassion. St. Philip kept a Bible and a joke book by his bed. He hung a little sign on his door that said "The House of Christian Mirth." He said, "Christian joy is a gift from God flowing from a good conscience." Many came to know Christ through the cheerfulness of Saint Philip Neri.
