WITNESS OF THE WEEK

✦ Patrick L ✦

In 5th grade, Patrick was nominated for demonstrating "cheerfulness" while in literature class. As the class carried on a Socratic style discussion regarding their present novel study, Patrick's enthusiasm to share his perception and knowledge of details was impressive. This led others to be just as engaged. Thank you, Patrick!

VIRTUE OF THE MONTH

–TEMPERANCE–

Only having a healthy amount of something good

Saint of the Week: Saint Teresa of Avila

Feast Day: October 15

Saint Teresa sometimes had trouble with self-control, especially with the amount of time she spent reading and talking to friends. As she grew closer to God, she learned to give the right amount of time to Him and to others. When she joined the Carmelite nuns, they had forgotten their rules about how much time they should be in silence so that they could talk to God. She helped them to take time for silence and prayer and to take time to play and have fun together.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

WON'T YOU WATCH ONE HOUR WITH ME?

Pope Paul VI wrote in his Encyclical On the Mystery of the Faith: In the course of the day, the faithful should not omit to visit the Blessed Sacrament, ...such visits are a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, an acknowledgement of the Lord's Presence...Day and night, He is in our midst, He dwells with us full of grace and truth. He restores morality, consoles the afflicted, and strengthens the weak."

COULD YOU ADORE JUST ONE HOUR PER WEEK?

Prayer in Adoration is powerful. There are many ways to adore; all that is required though is to be as present as we can to God. Use this time to adore Him for His Great Sacrifice, to return love; seek His help in life's decisions, in solving our problems; thank Him for His Presence, His Love and blessings; for time spent with Him. We can pray the rosary,

Chaplet of Divine Mercy and other devotional prayers; we can read and meditate on scripture; we can praise God using the Psalms; we can pray for world peace, an end to abortion, protection of our families; for the sick, homeless and mentally distraught; for our clergy and religious, and for the many needs everywhere in the world; or we can just sit quietly, resting in His Loving Presence.

DAY CAPTAINS ARE ALSO NEEDED;

providing less than 30 minutes per week effort, from home.

Please contact Carolyn at (360) 871-8447 to choose an hour from this list or any hour that would suit you.

Lives of the Saints

SAINTS FELICITY AND PERPETUA

Feast Day: March 7

“When my father in his affection for me was trying to turn me from my purpose by arguments and thus weaken my faith, I said to him, ‘Do you see this vessel—water pot or whatever it may be? Can it be called by any other name than what it is?’ ‘No,’ he replied. ‘So also I cannot call myself by any other name than what I am—a Christian.’”

So writes Perpetua: young, beautiful, well-educated, a noblewoman of Carthage in North Africa, mother of an infant son and chronicler of the persecution of the Christians by Emperor Septimius Severus.

Perpetua’s mother was a Christian and her father a pagan. He continually pleaded with her to deny her faith. She refused and was imprisoned at 22.

In her diary, Perpetua describes her period of captivity: “What a day of horror! Terrible heat, owing to the crowds! Rough treatment by the soldiers! To crown all, I was tormented with anxiety for my baby.... Such anxieties I suffered for many days, but I obtained leave for my baby to remain in the prison with me, and being relieved of my trouble and anxiety for him, I at once recovered my health, and my prison became a palace to me and I would rather have been there than anywhere else.”

Despite threats of persecution and death, Perpetua, Felicity—a slave woman and expectant mother—and three companions, Revocatus, Secundulus and Saturninus, refused to renounce their Christian faith. For their unwillingness, all were sent to the public games in the amphitheater. There Perpetua and Felicity were beheaded, and the others killed by beasts.

Felicity gave birth to a daughter a few days before the games commenced.

Perpetua’s record of her trial and imprisonment ends the day before the games. “Of what was done in the games themselves, let him write who will.” The diary was finished by an eyewitness.
