All-powerful and eternal God,

*you have chosen to give mankind a model of humility;
our Savior took on our flesh, and subjected himself to the Cross.
Grant us the grace to preserve faithfully the lessons he has given

And may your blessing remain always upon us.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

APRIL 10, 2022 NEWSLETTER

Holy Week Prayer

Jesus,

in this last week leading up to Easter, as I recall your passion and death, let me remember that, above all, I am called to feed your sheep. You have given me a model of how to live; may I strive to be all that you created me for, spreading the love of God and the truth of our Catholic faith wherever I am able. You are the way, the truth, and the life.

Amen.

CHOOSE A FAVORITE, DONATE A BOOK, AND ALLOW TEACHERS AND STUDENTS TO ENJOY

If you've been asking, "How do I get children to read the Great Books?" John Senior gives us the answer. The answer is you don't. They aren't ready yet. They need the 1,000 good books first.

Dr. John Senior was a professor of the humanities at Cornell University and the University of Kansas. He sought to help his students in their search for meaning through an education in the great books. Senior believed that we needed to be fertilized with good books and stories, steeped in Western culture, in order to best approach the great books.

In his book "The Restoration of Christian Culture" he outlines how play, work, folkways, food, and more can help us learn from the world around us. He said,

"the seeds (the Great Books) are good but the cultural soil has been depleted; the seminal ideas of Plato, Aristotle, St. Augustine, St. Thomas, only properly grow in an imaginative ground saturated with fables, fairy tales, stories, rhymes, adventures, which have developed in the thousand books of Grimm, Andersen, Stevenson, Dickens, Scott, Dumas, and the rest. Western tradition, taking all that was best of the Greco-Roman world into herself has given us the thousand good books as a preparation for the great ones and for all the studies in the arts and sciences, without which such studies are inhumane."

Each week a different age category will be presented from "The Thousand Good Books" list by John Senior.

If you have a copy of a listed book on your shelf and want to donate it to the school, our teachers and students are eager to accept!

You can drop off your donated books to the school office during the week. Thank you!

SCHOOL DAYS (Ages 7-12)
