QUOTES FROM CLASSICAL WRITERS

“According to most philosophers, God in making the world enslaved it. According to Christianity, in making it, He set it free. God had written, not so much a poem, but rather a play; a play he had planned as perfect, but which had necessarily been left to human actors and stage-managers, who had since made a great mess of it.”

— G.K. Chesterton, Orthodoxy

We are seeking volunteers to answer the call of becoming a lead catechist, assistant catechists, or classroom aide. Using their time and talents, Catechists lead their class with Catholic teachings aligned with the Gospels and principles of the Church. These very important roles help flourish and nurture the religious education of our parish children.

Registration Coming Soon for First Sacraments And Faith Works!

Classes for First Sacraments and our religious education program, Faith Works start in September. Registration will be open next month! Check the bulletin for future updates.

PARISH FAMILY HOUR

Summer Schedule

6:00pm Potluck in Camerman Hall

6:30pm Reading and Discussion of St. John Paul II
The Role of the Christian Family in the Modern World

7:30pm Gather in the Church for Night Prayer

For the Kids:

All children and youth will have an opportunity to enjoy summer with their fellow parish friends. Activities will range from games in the park to watching Bluey on the big screen. All children and youth programming for the summer will begin with group prayer, then the kids will split off based on whether they are considered "children" (PK-5) or "youth" (6-12). These activities will foster faith, community, and relationships in our children and youth.

For the Adults:

The most profound explanation of family life is offered to us by St. John Paul in his Apostolic Exhortation on the Role of the Christian Family in the Modern World. I am very excited to read and discuss this material as we work on forming Christian Families and growing in holiness.

Dates:

JULY 20, 27

AUGUST 3, 17, 24, 31
(10th cancelled due to VBS)

SEPTEMBER 7

I know that people won't be able to make it each night (and sometimes you won't be able to even bring anything to share for the potluck except a bag of chips) but I think it is so important that our parish is doing everything we can to support our families in a very difficult age. So, we decided to continue on through the summer with our Parish Family Hour! Please join us when you can!

Lives of the Saints

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

Feast Day: July 22

Except for the mother of Jesus, few women are more honored in the Bible than Mary Magdalene. Yet she could well be the patron of the slandered, since there has been a persistent legend in the Church that she is the unnamed sinful woman who anointed the feet of Jesus in Luke 7:36-50.

Most Scripture scholars today point out that there is no scriptural basis for confusing the two women. Mary Magdalene, that is, “of Magdala,” was the one from whom Christ cast out “seven demons” (Luke 8:2)—an indication at the worst, of extreme demonic possession or possibly, severe illness.

Writing in the New Catholic Commentary, Father Wilfrid J. Harrington, O.P., says that “seven demons” “does not mean that Mary had lived an immoral life—a conclusion reached only by means of a mistaken identification with the anonymous woman of Luke 7:36.” In the Jerome Biblical Commentary, Father Edward Mally, S.J., agrees that she “is not...the same as the sinner of Luke 7:37, despite the later Western romantic tradition about her.”

Mary Magdalene was one of the many “who were assisting them [Jesus and the Twelve] out of their means.” She was one of those who stood by the cross of Jesus with his mother. And, of all the “official” witnesses who might have been chosen for the first awareness of the Resurrection, she was the one to whom that privilege was given. She is known as the “Apostle to the Apostles.”
