DEBUNKING “MYTHS” ABOUT A CLASSICAL LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION

#1 Too much emphasis is placed on history

Western Civilization is a vital part of a liberal arts education. To understand ourselves, both as humans and as a society, we must understand where we come from, and the mistakes made by those empires which came before us. Thus, classically educated students learn about the character of significant historical figures. Likewise, they learn the most influential biblical events and individuals of history. Great literary stories and novels are read to cultivate a deeper understanding of these periods of history.

Altogether, the emphasis on history serves two purposes:

- ⇒ To ensure students are historically literate. After all, “Those who forget the past are doomed to repeat it.”
- ⇒ To serve as quality examples. Learning about Charlemagne, and the many ways in which he shaped the modern Europe, sets an example of good character for students.

OLSOS PARENT TIP!

If you are feeling unequipped to assist your child in history, especially the medieval ages, consider getting a jumpstart on the year by downloading Famous Men of Middle Ages onto your Kindle and start reading it yourself.

Or listen to the audio book on Librivox for free:
<https://bit.ly/3ONluwp>

SCHOOL FAMILIES—ESCAPE TO THE FOREST THEATER

Escape to the Kitsap Forest Theater this summer to create a family tradition of enjoying the performing arts under a canopy of conifers.

We encourage families to consider adding Bend in the Road, the Anne of Green Gables Musical as another source of summer family enjoyment. This is just another means to support our classical approach that integrates theatrics within the curricula. This performance runs for four weekends through August.

“Through Drama, the ancient Greeks found a platform for the exploration of feelings, knowledge, and ideas, leading to a greater understanding of the world.”

Shop SCRIP and Raise Money for our School!

Scrip fundraising is a no-selling program that enables families to raise money for our school, with the purchase of gift cards for your everyday needs. Buy gift cards from our Star SCRIP Coordinator and OLSOS school receives up to 20% of earnings from the particular brand!

You can purchase gift cards in the church vestibule after the weekend Masses or visit shopwithscrip.com and use our Enrollment Code: 45975CF51L152

Questions? Contact Kay Thompson: scripolsos2@gmail.com

Parent Volunteers, Catechists, and Aides Are Needed!

We are seeking volunteers to answer the call of becoming a lead catechist, assistant catechists, or classroom aide. Using their time and talents, Catechists lead their class with Catholic teachings aligned with the Gospels and principles of the Church. These very important roles help flourish and nurture the religious education of our parish children.

Hello Friends of Stella Maris Shelter!

Thank you so much to each of you who have donated this year to the women and children in the Stella Maris Shelter. The clothing, toys and supplies are greatly appreciated by our residents.

The good news is that we are still accepting donations. This year, we used Amazon Wishlist to collect the much-needed items and honestly, we hit some bumps in the road. We are sorry if this caused any confusion in your ability to place an order. But we are still in need of some essentials and would greatly appreciate your help.

Use the link below to go to our Wishlist on Amazon:

<https://amzn.to/3cFGpnZ>

1. Select the item/items you wish to purchase for the shelter.
2. Add to Cart. Go to Cart. Proceed to Check out.
3. When you check-out, use the shipping address for "St Vincent de Paul Bremerton Felicia's Gift Registry Address". This will get it privately shipped to us.

Thank you for your generosity!

-ST. DOMINIC

Lives of the Saints

SAINT DOMINIC DE GUZMAN

Feast Day: August 8

Saint Dominic was born in Caleruega, Spain in 1170. His father was Felix Guzman, and was the royal warden of the village. His mother, Bl. Joan of Aza, was a holy woman in her own right.

Dominic is known to have had an education in Palencia, concentrating on theology and the arts and in 1194, he joined a Benedictine Order, the Canons Regular in Osma.

On a journey through France with his bishop, Diego de Acebo, Dominic came face to face with the Albigensian heresy at Languedoc. The Albigensians--or Cathari, "the pure ones"--held to two principles—one good, one evil—in the world. All matter is evil—hence they denied the Incarnation and the sacraments. On the same principle, they abstained from procreation and took a minimum of food and drink.

Dominic and Diego's austerity and personal self discipline appealed to many of the heretics which led them to be more open to their preaching and eventually converting many back to the Catholic faith. Although not all were converted and threatened Dominic with violence. Nevertheless, he remained steadfast to his mission and wished to establish an order dedicated to promoting morality and the expulsion of heresy.

In July 1215, Dominic was granted permission to form his own religious order for this purpose. He was joined by six followers. The group followed a Rule of Life which included a strict routine of discipline, including prayer and penance. They also established a system of education. They often traveled the countryside to preach. His order was confirmed and in 1217, Pope Honorius III dubbed Dominic and his followers "The Order of Preachers".

In 1221, Dominic took ill with a fever. He asked to be laid on the ground, still refusing a bed. He exhorted his brothers to keep a spirit of humility and charity. After several weeks of illness, he made a last confession and a will, then passed away on August 6. He died in the presence of his brother Dominicans. Dominic was just 51.

Dominic's body was placed in a humble sarcophagus in 1223. It was then moved to a shrine in 1267.

Pope Gregory IX canonized St. Dominic on July 13, 1234, and his feast day is August 8.
