Wisdom of the Saints

Jesus himself in the Garden of Olives said, when he was begging his Father to release him from the appalling suffering that awaited him:

My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will (MT. 26:39)

And the cup did not go away, and Jesus, the Son of God, went through a heartrending Passion. God knows better than we do what is useful: health or sickness, wealth or poverty, respect or defamation. We can and should pray when we are discouraged, but it is essential to defer to the will of God.

If (your suffering) were to increase even one degree your glory in heaven for all eternity, then it would secure an infinite benefit. Life passes quickly, even suffering passes, while eternity will last forever. It is worth it.

I invite you to give yourself to the divine Immaculate Mother, as a child to the best of mothers. Appeal to her with simplicity in all your worries, sufferings, and temptations and she will happily accompany you throughout this short life. And how blessed death will be, under the cloak of the Immaculate! None of those who love her will be lost forever. Courage, then!

-ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

PRAYER REQUESTS

For the repose of the souls of all who have died. May God grant them the joy of eternal life and peace for their families.

DEBUNKING “MYTHS” ABOUT A CLASSICAL LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATION

#2. It's too dependent upon memorization, an outdated learning method

Sometime around the late 1980s and early 1990s, memorization in the classroom became a bad thing. Instead, students were expected to figure out just why and how three times five equals fifteen. Not such a bad thing, yet this lack of memorization led to a large number of students unable to focus on solving longer equations, dividing fractions, or figuring out the area of a triangle.

Classical students do not memorize simply to memorize — though the memorization of a poem certainly helps exercise the brain. Rather, they memorize the necessary facts, or building blocks, that will help them excel later in their academic career.

BACK TO SCHOOL BBQ!

CELEBRATING 40 YEARS OF Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration
 AT OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

August 6, 1982 marked the inauguration of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at Our Lady Star of the Sea by Father David White. Three hundred parishioners were signed up, every hour filled. Father White, a regular adorer, was later quoted, saying, “This is the greatest thing that has happened to me in my priesthood.”

Come, Let Us Adore the True Presence!

Contemplate His love for us... in thanksgiving, praise, and prayerful petition... in silence and peace . . . just you with Jesus.

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst. But I told you that although you have seen [me], you do not believe. Everything that the Father gives me will come to Me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to Me, because I came down from Heaven not to do My own will but the will of the One who sent Me.”

Lives of the Saints

SAINT BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX

Feast Day: August 20

St. Bernard was born of noble parentage in Burgundy, France, in the castle of Fontaines near Dijon. Under the care of his pious parents he was sent at an early age to a college at Chatillon, where he studied theology and Holy Scripture. After the death of his mother, Bernard left his home to join the monastic community of Citeaux. His five brothers, two uncles, and some 30 young friends followed him into the monastery. Within four years, a dying community had recovered enough vitality to establish a new house in the nearby valley of Wormwoods, with Bernard as abbot. The zealous young man was quite demanding, though more on himself than others. A slight breakdown of health taught him to be more patient and understanding. The valley was soon renamed Clairvaux, the valley of light.

His ability as arbitrator and counselor became widely known. More and more he was lured away from the monastery to settle long-standing disputes. On several of these occasions, he apparently stepped on some sensitive toes in Rome. Bernard was completely dedicated to the primacy of the Roman See. But to a letter of warning from Rome, he replied that the good fathers in Rome had enough to do to keep the Church in one piece. If any matters arose that warranted their interest, he would be the first to let them know.

Shortly thereafter it was Bernard who intervened in a full-blown schism and settled it in favor of the Roman pontiff against the antipope.

The Holy See prevailed on Bernard to preach the Second Crusade throughout Europe. His eloquence was so overwhelming that a great army was assembled and the success of the crusade seemed assured. The ideals of the men and their leaders, however, were not those of Abbot Bernard, and the project ended as a complete military and moral disaster.

Bernard felt responsible in some way for the degenerative effects of the crusade. This heavy burden possibly hastened his death, which came August 20, 1153.
